12B—Method of Planting -

In order that erosion of the soil is stopped at the earliest possible time and the forest land is effectively conserved afforestation work may be done on the following lines:—

(i) The area to be afforested may be protected from cattle by taking measures which may include digging of a cattle-proof trench all round the area or fencing or both.

(ii) Ordinarily such afforestation work shall be done by sowing seeds or planting seedlings or stumps.

ANNEXURE.

the matter of an industrial dispute existing between Messrs. Mundra Metal Industries, 200, Bowbazar Street, Calcutta and their workers represented by Mundra Metal Karmi Panchayat, 205, Bowbazar Street, Calcutta.

BEFORE THE SIXTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL, CALCUTTA.

PRESENT:

SHRI MOTILAL CHAKRAVATTI, District Judge, Judge, Sixth Industrial Tribunal.

Appearances.

For the Company: None.

For the Union: Shri Satindra Mohan Mookherjee, Secretary, Shri Madan Mohan Saha, Advocate, and Shri Nityan Das Gupta, President.

Acting under sections 7 and 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, by order No. 2630Dis./D/10L-55/54, dated Calcutta, the 24th May 1954, referred the aforesaid dispute for adjudication to me regarding the matters specified in the schedule to the said order of reference.

SCHEDULE.

- (1) Whether the lock-out is justified and whether the workers are entitled to any payment for the period of lock-out.
- (2) Whether the dismissal of four employees named below is justified:—
 - (i) Shri Himansu Chowdhury, (ii) Shri Mahendra Lal Dutta, (iii) Shri Parchan Goala and (iv) Shri Ram Sumer Yadav.
 To what relief (including reinstatement) are they entitled?
- (3) Whether the workers are entitled to the same rate of wages if they are transferred to some other departments.

- (4) Sick leave with pay.
- (5) Whether the management is justified in demoting Surji Kurmi from permanent to temporary work.

AWARD.

The workmen contend that the Company engages the workmen on piece rate system subject to certain quota which must be reached by such workmen in order to earn the wages and that sometimes the Company transfers workmen from one such job to another the result being that the quota cannot be reached in either of the two jobs, and it is alleged by the workmen that on the 1st January 1954, 4 workmen viz: (i) Himansu (ii) Mahendra (iii) Panchanan and (iv) Ram Sumer were directed at an odd hour of the day to work in a machine different from the one in which they had been working from that morning, and therefore, those workmen, as it was not natural for them, wanted to know whether they would be paid their full day's wages or not, because on account of such assignment of work at an odd hour of the day, they would neither be able to finish the quota production allotted in respect of their original job nor in respect of the new job they were being transferred to. But the Management took this as an act of disobedience and issued charge-sheet against those workmen on the alleged ground "Disobedience".

On 4th January 1954, the Company discharged those workers on 7 days' notice. On 5th January 1954, the workmen made a petition to the Labour Commissioner over the said matter. On the 11th January 1954, the Company discharged 4 workmen wanted to work in the factory but the Management did not allow them to. It is alleged by the workmen that accordingly the workmen effected a sit-down strike. The Management brought in police and at last a settlement was arrived at, on the basis of which the aforesaid discharge order was to be replaced by an order of suspension against each of the said 4 workmen concerned.

In bona fide anticipation, the workmen turned up on the next morning to attend to their duties but it is alleged that the factory was found under lock-out sine die.

It is alleged that on the 5th April 1954, the lock-out was lifted by the Management and the suspension order was withdrawn but still 8 workmen were debarred from doing work. The Company contends that the lock-out was effected by a notice, dated the 11th January 1954, in view of the declaration of a strike of that date. And it is also alleged that the lock-out was to take effect from 12th January 1954. It is admitted by the Management that on the 11th January 1954, i.e., before the closure or lock-out was to take effect, all the workmen were discharged with immediate effect. (Vide Annexures B and B-1 with the written statement of the Company). The workmen claimed wages of entire lock-out period. Although the workmen have been allowed by the Management to resume duty, the lock-out workmen are still under lock-out:—

- (1) Bamapada Adhikary (President).
- (2) Profulla Burman (Secretary).
- (3) Gostho Behari Bhattacharya (Executive Committee member).
- (4) Biswanath Chatterjee (Executive Committee member).
- (5) Benoy Das.
- (6) Biren Mazumdar.
- (7) Jnanada Naskar.

In the evidence Biswanath Chatterjee, witness for the workmen states that on the 5th April 1954, when the lock-out was lifted by the Management, originally discharged workmen, viz., (1) Himansu, (2) Mahendra, Panchanan and (4) Ram Sumer were taken back into service but 7 or 8 workmen were not allowed to work. And the witness also states that at present only Benoy Das, Prafulla Burman and Biren Mazumdar remain to be taken back into service and that the rest of the workmen have all been allowed to resume their works.

In the setting of the above circumstances, the Issue No. 1 falls for consideration:—

Issue No. 1.—Whether the lock-out is justified and whether the workers are entitled to any payment for the period of lock-out.

Admittedly, the lock-out commenced on 12th January 1954 and it was lifted on 5th April 1954 in respect of all the workmen concerned. But on 5th April 1954, 7 workmen, viz.: (1) Bamapada, (2) Prafulla, (3) Gostha, (4) Biswanath, (5) Benoy Das, (6) Biren Mazumdar and (7) Jnanuadakar were left out. From the evidence I find that subsequently 4 amongst them have also been taken in but Benoy, Prafulla and Biren are still left out. The witness cannot say whether the originally discharged workmen viz.: Himansu, Mahendra, Panchanan (Parchan) and Ram Sumer now want any compensation for the period of lock-out.

The Issue No. 2 runs thus:—

Issue No. 2.—Whether the dismissal of (1) Himansu, (2) Mahendra, (3) Parchan and (4) Ram Sumer is justified and what relief including reinstatement are they entitled to?

In the evidence I find that this issue is now irrelevant because these men have already been taken into service on the basis of certain understanding with them and the witness for the workmen says "I cannot say the discharged workmen, viz.: Himansu and others now want; they already been taken back into service."

In view of the above circumstances, I am of opinion that Himansu Chatterjee, Mahendra Lal, Parchan and Ram Sumer are not to be included amongst the workers referred to in Issue No. 1 and they are not entitled to payment for the period of the lock-out. It appears that these 4 workmen were discharged before the lock-out and they were reinstated after the lock-out. Let me now decide whether the lock-out was justified and whether workers other than Himansu, Mahendra, Parchan and Ram Sumer are entitled to any payment for the period of lock-out. There is no evidence on the part of the management. On the evidence I find that the lock-out was the outcome of the sit down strike on 11th January 1954, and the aforesaid sit down strike was called off on that very date, viz., 11th January 1954. The management had no necessity to declare lock-out sine die with effect from 11th January 1954. Moreover, the order of discharge on all the workmen on 11th January 1954 with immediate effect was illegal and unjustified. The discharge took effect from before the alleged closure or lock-out and I find that it was done after the sit down strike was called off by the workmen. In the G. D. entry, Ext. 1A, dated 11th January 1954, made by the Thana Magistrate, it appears that the workmen were not doing any act of violence and that they were quite peaceful during the stay-in strike on that date and that the Management also settled up the matter amicably on that very day.

In these circumstances I find no reason for the lock-out to take effect and from 12th January 1954 up to 5th April 1954. It has been held in 195 L.A.C., page 343, that where the employer declares a lock-out, the employees are not under any obligation to present themselves for work. Compensation cannot, therefore, be refused on the ground that they have not reported for work. In the present case, I find that on the 12th January 1954, some of the workmen went to the factory. The Company's contention was that they came to do violence but the workmen aver that they did not assemble to commit any such act. There is no evidence that the workmen attempted or committed any act of violence.

Sit-down strike has been criticised by the United States Supreme Court in the case of National Labour Relations Board vs. Fan Steel Metallurgical Corporation. Their Lordships observed "the Company was guilty of unfair labour practice but reprehensible as was that conduct of the Company, there is no ground for saying that it made the Company an outlaw or deprived of its legal rights to the possession or protection of its property. The employees had the right to strike but they had no licence to commit acts of violence or to seize their employers' plant. The seizure of the building was itself a wrong apart from any act of sabotage..... As to the Company's unfair labour practices afforded no excuse for the seizure and holding of its building, the Company has its normal right or redress. The rights include the right to discharge the wrong doers from its employees. The Fan Steel case has been distinguished by Justice Reed on the ground that in that case the conduct of the dismissed strikers was reprehensible inasmuch as they had seized the factory buildings and refused to obey the Court's injunction to hand them over and resisted the Sheriff by force in enforcing the Court's order.

In the present case, there was no such conduct on the part of the workmen. Annexure "A" to the written statement of the Company contains several notices issued by it on 11th January 1954. These notices do not show that the workmen seized the plant or the building or did commit any act of violence. I hold that the present case is quite distinguishable from the Fan Steel case. There has been no ouster of the Management or of the Company men. Moreover, strike was called off before the lock-out and there is evidence that during the continuance of the lock-out strikers were offered reinstatement and that they refused to work. I, therefore, hold that workers are entitled to payment of their wages including Dearness Allowance if any, for the period of lock-out.

For the piece-rated workers, by "wages" I mean average monthly wage of Rs. 45. I find this on the basis of the testimony given by the witnesses of the workmen.

Issue No. 3.—Whether the workers are entitled to the same rate of wages if they are transferred to some other departments.

The evidence on the side of the workmen is that when the Management transfers the workmen to jobs on lower wages, they are paid such lower wages for the said job but when they are transferred to jobs on higher wages they are not paid at the higher wage rate for those jobs.

It is fair and reasonable that the workers should be paid at the higher rate fixed for the jobs to which the workers may be assigned. They are entitled to a lower rate for the lower rated jobs and to get higher rate for the higher rated jobs, as the case may be.

Issue No. 4:—Sick leave with pay.

he workmen contend that the Management does not grant any Sick leave with pay. So the workmen claimed 15 days' sick leave with full pay in a year, admissible to accumulate up to 45 days. The Company states in its written statement that the permanent workers are given 15 days' sick leave with $\frac{1}{2}$ pay in a year on production of medical certificate. There is no evidence that such leave is in fact granted. I hold that 15 days' sick leave with half pay on production of medical certificate to be given to the permanent workers and that such leave may be accumulated up to 30 days.

Issue No. 5.—Whether the management is justified in demoting Surji Kurmi from permanent to temporary work.

There is no evidence on this point. The Company's contention in its written statement is that Surji Kurmi was not demoted at all and that he left the company's service of his own accord. The workmen's witness stated that Surji Kurmi was a cooly on daily rate and that he has been driven away by the Management. Witness could not say for how long Surji Kurmi has been serving this Company. So my conclusion is that the fact of demotion of Surji Kurmi not having been proved, the question of justification or otherwise of the same does not arise. The Reference is dated 24th May 1954. On 1st February 1955 Sovachand Maheswari took lease of this business for one year. He has been made a party to this proceeding under section 18(b) of the Industrial Disputes Act. At the hearing no body appeared on his behalf. Assuming that he has taken a lease for one year from 1st February 1955, I hold that the lessee has become the employer of the workmen of this business and as such he is equally bound by this Award as the lessor is.

SCHEDULE.

1. Are the employees entitled to any puja bonus for 1953 over and above the usual bonus given by the Company during the year

AWARD.

Both parties appeared before the Tribunal and filed the petition for compromise. Later on the Company's Advocate produced a note from Chief Accountant (addressed to Sandersons & Morgans, Solicitors) relating to the interpretation of the word "workman" as used in the petition for compromise—called Agreement. The Union's representative admitted such definition of the term was accepted by the Union for the purpose of this Agreement alone in order to define the payees of the said bonus question and that the Union had to accept it reluctantly and that in contemplation of the members of the Union that whatever bonus was received by the permanent staff—will be shared with the 5/6 members of the staff who are not yet made permanent although they have put in more than one year's service and that the Union hopes that the Company will extend the favour of this bonus to those 5/6 employees also. The dispute has been disposed of by consent of the parties. Award in terms of the Agreement be drawn up and the Agreement be made a part of the Award as Annexure "A". The Company's letter addressed to the solicitors as Annexure "B" to the Award.

Dear Sirs,

Re. Adjudication.

We have today had discussions with the Union Secretary with regard to the definition of the word "Workmen" as used in the terms of settlement. This has now been defined as follows:—

"The term 'workmen' means 'all permanent Indian Clerical Subordinate staff of Calcutta Branch including bearers, pe drivers, coolies, mistries and junior technical hands' "

On the basis of this explanation and definition, we have signed the of the Agreement and have also obtained the signature of the representa of the Employees' Association.

We therefore return the form duly completed, herewith, for filing in the Tribunal.

Yours faithfully,

ANNEXURE.

The matter of an industrial dispute between Messrs. Balmer Lawrie & Co., Ltd., 21, Netaji Subhas Road, Calcutta and their workmen, represented by Balmer Lawrie & Co., Ltd., Workers' Union, 19, Strand Road, Calcutta.

BEFORE THE SECOND INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL.

PRESENT:

SHRI M. N. GAN, Judge, Second Industrial Tribunal.

the Company: Shri S. C. Sen, Advocate of Orr Dignam & Co. with Mr P. Norton Jones.

the Union: Shri P. K. Sanyal, Advocate, with Shri S. K. Bose, Pleader.

AWARD.

This industrial dispute regarding the two issues mentioned below between Messrs. Balmer Lawrie & Co., Ltd., 21, Netaji Subhas Road, Calcutta and their workmen represented by Balmer Lawrie & Co., Ltd., Workers' Union, 19, Strand Road, Calcutta, was referred to this Tribunal for adjudication under Government of West Bengal, Labour Department Order No. 4084Dis./D/11L-141(B)/54, dated the 25th August 1954. Both parties filed their written statements.

In their written statement, the workmen stated among others that in the industrial tribunal, known as "Mercantile Tribunal", was constituted by the Government of West Bengal to adjudicate upon various industrial disputes including the dispute regarding dearness allowance of the staff between the Bengal Chamber of Commerce and its member firms including the Balmer Lawrie & Co., Ltd. (hereinafter called the Company) and their workmen; that an award of the said Tribunal directed the Bengal Chamber of Commerce dearness allowance should be paid to the staff and that the basic salary of the said staff should in no case be less than Rs. 30 and that those getting less than Rs. 30 as basic pay would be pulled up to Rs. 30 and at the same time increment basic pay should be deducted from the dearness allowance. This went on paying its subordinate staff, the different categories of which mentioned in the statement, pay and dearness allowance in accordance with the said directions till August 1954. In the normal course as in the said award, the subordinate staff would have got Rs. 61 as allowance in September 1950. The Company, however, in September issued a notice intimating their intention to link the dearness payable to the subordinate staff with the working class cost of living and not with the middle-class cost of living index as was paid before after the Mercantile Tribunal's Award. This resulted in the reduction of the dearness allowance from Rs. 61 to Rs. 58 per month. The Company however went on deducting from the dearness allowance of the subordinate staff the amounts of increment by which their basic pay was pulled up to Rs. 30 under the Mercantile Tribunal's Award. A dispute between the parties over the payment of dearness allowance was referred to Shri S. K. Neogy, Industrial Tribunal, for his adjudication. The learned Tribunal approved of the payment of dearness allowance linking it with the working class cost of living index but disapproved of making it stationary unless and until the cost of living index figure of the Calcutta work rose beyond the slab of 391-400. This did not satisfy the staff. As to the prevailing standard of living, the working class to which the subordinate staff belong, should require at least Rs. 150 per month to meet actual needs. The minimum total requirements of a workman of the lowest category should never be lower than Rs. 85 per month. The Union, therefore, requested that the minimum total remuneration of the lowest category of subordinate staff should be fixed at Rs. 85 per month and those of the other categories should be proportionately increased. The dearness allowance should be 30 per cent. of the total remuneration, 70 per cent. should be basic pay and there should be no reduction from the dearness allowance for the purpose of further adjustments of basic pay. The statement includes a list of the different categories of the subordinate staff and their present minimum pay. This has been accepted by the Company as correct except in two cases.

In the written statement filed by Messrs. Balmer Lawrie & Co. (after called the Company), the Company had given the existing structure of the subordinate staff and contended that the present dearness allowance in respect of the staff was proper and fair in comparison with those paid by other industries to the categories of workers to which this subordinate staff belong. Shri S. K. Neogy, the then Chairman of the Industrial Tribunal, had occasion to scrutinise the adequacy of the dearness allowance and dealt with the subordinate staff on the same basis as the working class employees of the unskilled category. The Industrial Tribunal fixed the wages and dearness allowance of the subordinate staff of all the member firms of the Bengal Chamber of Commerce and Industry, including this Company and the staff was being paid at the said rates. The Company implemented the award of the Mercantile Tribunal and contended that they should not be asked to pay higher wages in this particular case.

The issues are—

- (1) What should be the minimum basic pay of the subordinate staff?
- (2) What should be the rate of dearness allowance admissible to the subordinate staff and whether the Company can make any deduction from the dearness allowance for the purpose of adjustment of basic pay.

FINDINGS.

Issues Nos. 1 and 2.

I take up the two issues together for they are inter-connected. The Union's demand is that the lowest category of the subordinate staff should receive a total remuneration of Rs. 85 per month, of which 70 per cent. should be basic pay and 30 per cent. dearness allowance. In the alternative, a dearness allowance should be paid so that he gets a total remuneration of the same amount. The basic pay of other categories of the subordinate staff should be raised so as to maintain the present differentials. And there should be no further deduction from the dearness allowance for the payment of the basic pay.

The Company resisted this demand in all the stages of this proceeding stating that the wages and dearness allowance paid to the different categories of the subordinate staff are not only adequate and proper but even higher than those paid for such staff in the neighbourhood. It contested the claim on merits as also on the following objections:

- (i) There should not be any discrimination in the matter of picking up companies who were members of the Mercantile Tribunal for paying higher wages to its staff;
- (ii) Fixation of wages is a long-term arrangement and unless there is a substantial change in the circumstances, the arrangement should not be disturbed.

Shri S. C. Sen, Advocate for the Company, relies on a decision of the Army and Navy Stores, Ltd., Bombay, and their workmen, reported in 1951 II L.L.J. p. 31 and contended that basic wages once fixed should stand for a reasonable period of time unless some substantial change occurred. He further contended that the payment of living wage, one of the basic principles of State policy, should not be enforced in a court of law. Shri Sanyal, Advocate for the Union, contends that the Union's demand is for the revision of minimum basic pay of the subordinate staff and has nothing to do with the fixation of a living wage. In fact, the Union made it clear that in the present circumstances, it should be satisfied with getting a total remuneration of Rs. 85 per month for the lowest category of the subordinate staff although the actual needs of a worker are more than Rs. 150 per month. Shri S. C. Sen's last contention is, therefore, the point. Shri Sen's other objection regarding discrimination of the Company by the Government in the matter of paying higher pay for staff does not appear to be tenable. In the first place, this Tribunal must follow the reference as it is and adjudicate the dispute. It is not for the Tribunal to decide regarding the propriety of the reference and further there is hardly any logic in the contention that a dispute of this nature can be decided by a Major Tribunal and not on a reference like this for, in all, there cannot be any reference unless a dispute arises between the employers and employees of a particular concern. In the opinion of the Tribunal, these objections shall fail.

The Company has got fixed grades with scales of pay for different categories of the subordinate staff as mentioned in paragraph 2 of its written statement. The Union's written statement mentions the minimum basic pay and there is, except in one case, no difference between the parties over it. In the case of Subedar, the minimum basic pay according to the Union is Rs. 66 whereas it is Rs. 65 according to the Company. The lowest category of the subordinate staff has a grade of Rs. 30—1—35. The Union, mentioned above, asked for a total remuneration of Rs. 85 per month.

75 per cent. of which would be his basic pay and 30 per cent. his dearness allowance. Seventy per cent. of Rs. 85 is Rs. 59-8 as. Practically speaking the Union demands for raising the minimum basic pay of the category of the staff by double with corresponding increase in the pay of the other categories of the staff. Is there any justification for this? Shri P. K. Sanyal, learned Advocate for the Union, has not adduced oral or documentary evidence in this case. He mainly relied upon the recommendations of the Central Pay Commission and says that the actual requirements of a worker of the subordinate staff are many times more than what he gets at present. According to him, he requires Rs. 150 per month to meet his requirements and that is not practicable at present. He asked for a remuneration of Rs. 85 for them. He said that the Mercantile Tribunal, which fixed the basic pay of the subordinate staff did not take all his requirements into consideration but mainly tried to pull up his basic pay to Rs. 85, i.e., just above the poverty line. He pleaded for removing this injustice that had been done to him in the said award and said further that he has been doubly wronged when some time in August 1950, the Company increased the dearness allowance with the cost of living index for the working class in place of that of the middle class. His total remuneration is now Rs. 73 per month and then deductions from this dearness allowance were made even now according to the directions given in the Mercantile Tribunal award. The Tribunal finds one major difficulty in accepting Shri Sanyal's contention in this case, in the absence of any positive evidence as to the actual requirements of a worker at the present day. That is an important factor to be taken into consideration in an investigation of this character. The most relevant fact is the cost of living of a worker of this category and that information is not available. Shri Sanyal has, practically speaking, asked this Tribunal to make certain assumptions in this matter and to proceed on these assumptions to the conclusion that the actual requirements of a worker are more than what he gets at present. It has been repeatedly said by their Lordships of the Labour Appellate Tribunal "though the question of remuneration is liable to change with circumstances the fixation of wages is a long term plan and should not be readily or lightly disturbed and that there is no reason for changing the existing figure unless it is reached after a careful consideration of materials available on the subject of the war cost of living." Shri S. C. Sen has all along stoutly supported Shri Sanyal's contention for a revision of the basic pay range as suggested by the Union. He relied mainly on the observation of the Lordships of the Labour Appellate Tribunal in workmen of Messrs. Britannia Building & Iron Co., Ltd., Howrah versus Messrs. Britannia Building & Iron Co., Ltd., Howrah (1954, L.A.C. p. 10) and Messrs. Buckingham & Carnall Co., Ltd., versus their workmen, 1952 L.A.C. p. 490 and said that there is no good reason why the minimum basic pay of Rs. 30 should be increased to double that figure in the present case. The Labour Appellate Tribunal made certain valuable observations in one of its recent decisions (Re Mill Mazdur Sangh versus Mill Owners' Association, Bombay and Co. Factories Journal, VIII, Part II, p. 78). On a consideration of all the materials before it, the Tribunal finds that the Union has not been able to make out a case for an increase of the minimum basic pay of the subordinate staff to double its present rate. This issue is, therefore, awarded in favour of the Union.

Regarding the dearness allowance, the position is different. In 1946, the Bengal Chamber of Commerce introduced a scheme of dearness allowance for the clerical staff which was linked with the middle class cost of living figure compiled by the "Capital, Ltd." Dearness allowance was calculated on the basis of every 10 point rise above the middle class iving index figure 180. The figures above 180 were divided by groups of point each and for every rise in the index into a higher group of 10 at the scale of dearness allowance was raised by 5 per cent. on the Rs. 100, Two and half per cent. on the second Rs. 100 and 1½ per cent. on the remainder of the basic salary. The minimum rate of increase in dearness allowance was Rs. 3 for every rise in the index figure into the higher slab 10 point. Similarly with the fall of cost of living index, dearness allowance was to decrease at the same rate. The benefit arising out of this system was extended to subordinate staff in 1947 and subordinate staff was allowed to draw, at a flat rate, whatever was the minimum dearness allowance for the clerical staff under the scheme. The Company involved in the present dispute adopted the said scheme. In 1948, the Mercantile Tribunal was constituted to adjudicate upon various disputes including the one regarding the dearness allowance of the subordinate staff of this Company. The sub-staff was getting at the time dearness allowance at the flat rate of Rs. 49 per month. In the main case of the Bengal Chamber of Commerce, the Mercantile Tribunal expressed the view that the dearness allowance was fair and accepted it. The said Tribunal's award in the case of this Company published in the Calcutta Gazette, dated 5th May, 1949, is as follows:

"Now about the subordinate staff. There are various categories with different time scales. The minimum that a person earns is Rs. 69. This is considered fair and sufficient. Our idea is that the basic salary ought not to go below Rs. 30. There are some grades where the start is below Rs. 30. We award that those persons whose salaries are below Rs. 30 be given increments to reach Rs. 30 each as their salaries. The amount of increment be deducted from dearness allowance now payable. They will earn increments as if they have reached Rs. 30 in the time scales. The salary and the dearness allowance of the new recruits be so adjusted that at least they each get Rs. 30 as his basic salary subject to what we have said before. They will draw dearness allowance as at present with fluctuations as may be occasioned by rise and fall in the cost of living."

It appears that the dearness allowance was paid at this scale and the basic salary was pulled up to Rs. 30 with deductions from the dearness allowance as per this award. This was continued till August 1950 when the Company informed the subordinate staff their decision to link the dearness allowance with the working class cost of living index in place of middle class cost of living index. This resulted in the reduction of the dearness allowance in September 1950 by Rs. 3. The Company further continued to make some deductions from this dearness allowance as before. This led to a dispute which was referred to Shri S. K. Neogy, 6th Tribunal, for his adjudication. He held that the dearness allowance of the subordinate staff could be linked with the cost of living index of the working class and not of the middle class. He however said nothing about the justification of this change for it was outside the scope of his reference. The Union has taken up this point once again and it has been contended on its behalf that the dearness allowance was reduced and at the same time deductions were being made from it as before. The Union demanded that there should be no dearness allowance payable to all workers of the subordinate staff and that no further deductions be made from it. Shri Sen's point of view is that the dispute regarding dearness allowance having been once settled by a tribunal, there is hardly any occasion for its revision in this case and that the dearness allowance is adequate. For over four years, the subordinate staff enjoyed the benefit of a higher rate of dearness allowance when it was linked with the cost of living index of the middle class "Capital Limited". The middle class cost of living index according to "Capital Limited" is higher than that of the working class. No endeavour was made before this Tribunal to show the justification for taking away benefit from the subordinate staff which was enjoyed by them for a long time. The desirability of linking the dearness allowance for the subordinate staff with the cost of living index of working class is one thing to take away some existing benefits from the subordinate staff is another. Shri Sen did not advance any argument on this point. He did not give any reason why the existing benefits should be taken away from the subordinate staff. As a matter of fact the Mercantile Tribunal which on the occasion to fix the total remuneration for the subordinate staff had then existing rate of dearness allowance before it for its consideration. That learned Tribunal considered the entire amount of remuneration payable for the subordinate staff with particular reference to the then existing dearness allowance paid to them at the time. In directing the adjustment taking from the dearness allowance, the increments made to the basic pay they had the high rate of dearness allowance in view. The company implemented this award fully till August 1950. It appears that the Company reduced the rate of dearness allowance since September 1950 at the same time followed the directions of the Mercantile Tribunal making deductions from it in the increments given to the basic pay to bring it up to the limit of Rs. 30. In the opinion of the Tribunal, there is no justification for this deduction since after linking the dearness allowance of the subordinate staff with the cost of living index of the working class and thereby reducing the rate of such allowance. At least no such case has been made out before this Tribunal for making such deductions and at the same time reducing the rate of dearness allowance. Further, the dearness allowance as also the basic pay should be fixed and should not fluctuate the way in which they are done at present. The basic pay should be fixed where it is. The dearness allowance should be paid now according to the Bengal Chamber of Commerce scheme, such allowance being linked as directed by Shri S. K. Neogy in his award with the cost of living index of the working class. There should be no deduction from such dearness allowance from the date of the publication of this award. The issue is answered accordingly. This is my award.

and whereas in exercise of the powers conferred by section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the said Tribunal has adjudicated upon the said complaint and submitted its award to the State Government; the matter of an application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, filed by Srimati Balmati Raini, worker, against the Teeyok Tea Estate in connection with Government order No. 3Dis./D/9L-60/53, dated 4th January 1953 (Case No. 30/55).

BEFORE THE FOURTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL.

PRESENT:

SHRI S C MUKHERJI, District Judge, Judge, Fourth Industrial Tribunal.

the applicant: Shri D. P. Rai, Secretary, Darjeeling Chiya Kaman Shramik Sangha.

the Company: Shri J. K. Ghosh, Advocate of Messrs. Orr Dignam & Co., Solicitors.

While the aforesaid dispute was pending the Secretary of the Chiya Kaman Shramik Sangha made an application complaining that Srimati Balmati Raini has been ejected from the garden premises on 20th January 1955 while her dispute is still pending before the Tribunal, that under the circumstances the order being in violation of the section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act, she is entitled to be put back to her house.

Notice of the aforesaid complaint having been served on the opposite party the Company filed the reply on 11th March 1955 in which it contended that the application is not maintainable inasmuch as it does not disclose any violation as contemplated under section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act on the dismissal of Naina Singh Rai, her daughter Srimati Balmati Raini was discharged in accordance with the practice and custom in the tea gardens in Darjeeling district, that she has been ejected from the garden premises in pursuance of the Civil Court decree, that there has been no violation of the conditions of service, and as such section 33A is not applicable.

only point for decision is—

Whether the application is maintainable? If so, to what relief the petitioner is entitled?

AWARD.

In the first place the present application being presented by the Union of the aggrieved worker it does not lie in law. In ejecting Srimati Balmati Raini in accordance with the local custom the Company has according to the conditions of service and it has not violated any condition of service and in that view also the present application is not maintainable. Thirdly she has been ejected under the decree of the Civil Court. I think this Tribunal will not pass any orders which will affect the Civil Court decree and as such also the present application is not tenable. Srimati Balmati Raini admitted that she has left the garden voluntarily since then she was residing at Kurseong and earning her own living and consequently there has been no violation of conditions of service. As such the present application is not tenable. Lastly on merits it has been awarded in the original reference that she is not entitled to any relief. She was liable to be ejected according to the principles of well-known law and valid custom and so on merits also she is not entitled to any relief in this case.

ANNEXURE.

In the matter of an industrial dispute between Messrs. Kohinoor Rubber Works, 46/6, Canal East Road, Calcutta and their workmen represented by Kohinoor Rubber Works Workers' Union, 14, Girish Chandra Bose Road, Calcutta-14.

BEFORE THE SECOND INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL.

PRESENT:

SHRI M. N. GAN, Judge, Second Industrial Tribunal.

For the Union: Shri D. L. Sen Gupto, Advocate, with Shri S. C. Sen, President.

For the Company: Shri S. C. Sen, Advocate.

AWARD.

This industrial dispute between Messrs. Kohinoor Rubber Works, 46/6, Canal East Road, Calcutta and their workmen represented by Kohinoor Rubber Works Workers' Union, 14, Girish Chandra Bose Road, Calcutta-14.

Kohinoor Rubber Works Workers' Union, 14, Girish Chandra Bose Road, Calcutta-14, regarding the matters specified in the issues mentioned below, was referred to this Tribunal for adjudication under Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, Order Nos. 4634Dis./D/10L-173/54, dated the 29th September 1954 and 547Dis./D/10L-173/54, dated the 8th February 1955.

Both parties filed their written statements.

In the written statement filed by the Union, it is stated that the Company started in 1934 and employed about 700 workmen, time-rated and piece-rated, in manufacturing various rubber goods, as for example, football bladders, rubber sports goods, play-balls, rubber toys, industrial rubber sheeting, hospital rubber sheeting, canvas and rubber shoes, etc. It has a very big market and good reputation for its goods. The workmen are mostly skilled and the unskilled workmen work with the skilled workmen and assist them in their work. The Company successfully suppressed the Union activities in the past and succeeded in breaking the former Union. The present Workers' Union came into existence in March 1954 with Shri Santi Sen as President. Again, the Company started victimising the Union officials with a view to break this Union and in fact dismissed some of them most arbitrarily.

The workers have too many genuine grievances against payment of very poor wages for their work without any payment of dearness allowance and other facilities. The workers are not given any leave and holidays directed to be introduced under the last award. The inadequate wages are not even compensated by payment of any bonus or any annual increment. The Union, therefore, placed a charter of demands with the management of the Company on the 9th of May 1954. The management did not give any reply to it. Amicable settlement of the dispute through conciliation machineries failing, the dispute has been referred to this Tribunal.

The Union asks for the introduction of grade system, both for the time-rated and piece-rated workers, alleging that the rates of wages are less than the minimum wage. The workmen are entitled to the following rates which are current in comparable concerns in the locality:—

Unskilled—Rs. 1-4-0 to 2 as.—Rs. 2-8-0 per day.

Semi-skilled—Rs. 2-0-0 to 3 as.—Rs. 3-14-0 per day.

Skilled—Rs. 3-0-0 to 4 as.—Rs. 5-8-0 per day.

The Union asks for a 25 per cent. increase in the rate of piece-rated workers subject to the minimum earning suggested above. It further demands that these scales be introduced with provision for one increment for every past two years of service in the Company with effect from the date of the claim.

In demanding the immediate introduction of a contributory Provident Fund, the Union said that the Company did not introduce it though directed under the last award to do so. It accordingly asks for the provision of 6½ per cent. contribution for both parties to this fund. The Union also asks for privilege leave, casual leave and leave and holidays with wages as are current in all industrial concerns for all workmen. At present, there are no medical facilities and dearness allowance for the workmen. The Union, therefore, demands that both should be awarded in the present case.

Messrs. Kohinoor Rubber Works (hereinafter called the Company) filed two written statements in which they stated that due to bad market and keen competition, they had to discontinue the production of rubber goods other than canvas and rubber shoes and a nominal quantity of hospital rubber sheeting and bladders. It further stated that they were running at a loss as the cost of labour was much higher than that of comparable concerns in the locality. The difference between the skilled and the unskilled workers was negligible for it did not require more than a month for an unskilled worker to pick up skilled work. The workmen were paid adequate wages which included dearness allowance. The different rates for the piece-rated workers have grown out of many years' experience and, therefore, they should not be changed as suggested by the Union. Regarding the Provident Fund, the Company stated that the workmen were opposed to it. As the Company manufactures rubber shoes which are seasonable goods, they have no work for their workmen for 48 hours a week and, therefore, they are not entitled to any leave and holidays as demanded by the Union. Regarding the demand for medical facilities the Company denied their liability to bear any medical expenses for the workmen and said that the Employees' State Insurance Act provided sufficient facilities in this respect. The Company concluded by denying the demand for dearness allowance and said that the claim was unreasonable and should be rejected.

The issues are—

- (1) Introduction of grade system.
- (2) Introduction of Provident Fund system.
- (3) Leave and holidays.
- (4) Medical facilities.
- (5) Dearness allowance.

FINDINGS.

Issues Nos. 1 and 5.

These relate to the demands for introduction of grade system and dearness allowance. As stated before, the Union asks for three grades, for the unskilled, one for the semi-skilled and one for the skilled work and dearness allowance as prevalent in the Bengal Chamber of Commerce stating that the wages paid are grossly inadequate and that no dearness allowance is paid by the Company. The Company resists these claims alleging that the wages paid are higher than those current in the locality and include the dearness allowance. It states further that the dearness allowance is fanciful and unrealistic and that the Company's financial and business position do not justify the imposition of such a financial burden. It is already running at a loss. The Tribunal is particularly handicapped for want of proper materials coming from the Company's side to establish its defence. The Company was accommodated as best as possible in the circumstances. But it dropped out of the concluding stage of the hearing of the case. The result is that the Tribunal does not get any idea whatsoever of the Company's alleged financial and business position in the period in dispute. There is absolutely no material before it to show or suggest that it is running at a loss. On the contrary there is a denial of this allegation of the Company from P.W. 5 and P.W. 6. An employee of this Company for the last 16 years, P.W. 6 Abdul Haq, says that the Company's production nowadays is good. The Tribunal, having no access of the Company's accounts, could not prove by any positive evidence the exact financial position of the Company at this date.

re was a previous dispute over these matters between the Company and its employees which was adjudicated by Shri S. N. Modak, Chairman of the Industrial Tribunal. His award was published in the Calcutta Gazette, dated 8th June 1950. There were several directions given by him in his award. He directed that the wages which was said to include dearness allowance should be split up into two, viz., basic wages and dearness allowance. Curiously enough, on its own admission, the Company does not implement this part of the award. Shri S. N. Modak was in a poor position to judge the financial capacity of the Company at that time. He said in dealing with Issues Nos. 2 and 3 that: "On an examination of the profit and loss account of the Kohinoor Rubber Works for the year 1948, it appears that the profits which accrued during that year or in the preceding year were fairly substantial." It has been contended by the learned Advocate for the Union that the financial position continues to be as sound and stable as it was in 1950. The attitude taken by the Management of this Company since the conciliation proceedings over this issue is anything but helpful and satisfactory. The Management has for reasons best known to them, decided to withhold all evidence relevant to the purpose of deciding the issues in this case. The Tribunal, therefore, is obliged to act on what evidence is furnished before it on the side of the Union and on the probabilities of the case.

The two employees of the Company, P.W. 5 Dud Mian and P.W. 6 Abdul Hadi, said that there was no dearness allowance and no Provident Fund in the Company and that they were paid a very poor wages for their work. P.W. 5 is a piece-rated worker. He says that he earns a minimum of Re. 1 a day, sometimes he comes away without being provided any work. His own earning cannot therefore exceed Rs. 26 per month. He further says that the average workman earns Rs. 7 or Rs. 8 per week including overtime. Only a handful of them who are related to the Management earn more and they are monthly-rated staff. In cross-examination, he says that coolies earn more than what he earns, namely, earn a minimum of Re. 1 per day. P.W. 6 Abdul Hadi is a daily-worker. He says that he gets a daily wage of Rs. 1-13-0 and no dearness allowance. He says further that the minimum wage of a daily-worker varies between 12 annas to Rs. 1-4-0. Besides this, the Company has filed charts showing the basic wages and dearness allowance payable by different rubber companies of comparable size in the locality. The wages that are paid by this Company do not compare favourably with the wages and dearness allowance that are paid by other concerns in the locality. It appears from Shri S. N. Modak's award of 8th June 1950 that he fixed the minimum basic wages of the unskilled worker on the daily wages system at Re. 1 as basic wage plus 12 annas as dearness allowance. He did not fix the basic wages for other workers except the few categories of monthly-rated employees mentioned in his award. However expressed the hope that in the matter of fixing minimum basic wages for higher categories, the employer shall do so with fairness and consideration in the light of the increase directed in respect of the daily-unskilled worker. There is no evidence before this Tribunal to show whether the Company ever implemented this part of Shri S. N. Modak's award. On the Union's evidence, I find that the total emoluments paid by this Company now to its staff are inadequate, in comparison with those paid in comparable concerns of the locality. It is needless to mention that the wages now paid to the staff as spoken of by P.W. 5 Dud Mian and P.W. 6 Abdul Hadi are not sufficient for the actual needs of the workers. The minimum basic wages of allied industries have been considered by our Tribunals from time to time. The Major Engineering Tribunals have given their awards on this point. I fail to see why the workers of this Company should not get the same wages and dearness allowance. After all, the essential requirements including the necessities of life are the same for every worker whether he is employed in a jute industry or an engineering industry. For reasons given by Shri S. K. Neogy in his award in India Rubber Manufacturers, Ltd., published in the Calcutta Gazette, dated 24th January 1952, to which a reference has been made by the learned Advocate for the Union in this case, I think the workers should be given the same grades. The classification of course will have to be left to the discretion of the Management. The workers should be classified as unskilled, semi-skilled and skilled with the following grades and scales of pay:—

Unskilled—Rs. 30—1—45.

Semi-skilled—Rs. 35—1-8—53.

Skilled—Rs. 40—3—85.

The piece-rated workers should not be given wages lower than that fixed in the aforesaid grades and scales.

As to the demand for dearness allowance, the Union's demand seems to be excessive. A reference has been made to my award given in a dispute between Messrs. United Rubber Works and their workmen published in the Calcutta Gazette, dated 28th January 1954, in support of this claim of the Union. I venture to think that on the facts and in the circumstances of this case and for reasons given in my award referred to above, the workers should get the dearness allowance fixed in that case, viz.:—

Basic pay range.	Dearness allowance
	Rs
Up to Rs. 50	31.
From Rs. 51 to Rs. 100	42.
From Rs. 101 to Rs. 150	48
From Rs. 151 to Rs. 200	54.
Rs. 201 and upwards	60

The Union asked for giving a retrospective effect to the grades and of pay and the dearness allowance. Since the workmen were on inadequate emoluments for a long time, I think the workers should have paid increased pay and dearness allowance with effect from the beginning of January 1955. Regarding adjustments, it is directed as follows:—

“No worker shall get less than the existing wages. If the existing wages of any worker is in excess of the maximum of his grade, the difference will be treated as his personal pay. When the workers have been classified, they shall be placed in the appropriate grades at the stage just above their present basic wages.”

I decide the issues accordingly.

Issue No. 2—Introduction of Provident Fund system.

This relates to the introduction of the Provident Fund system. This is a disputed issue before Shri S. N. Modak who in his award, dated 8th June 1950, directed that a Contributory Provident Fund in respect of the permanent monthly-rated employees be started without least possible delay and that the rules of Provident Fund be framed as far as practicable on the basis of the rules of Provident Fund as settled in the Jute Tribunal's Award. Company's case is that the workers did not like this direction in the award to be implemented. Both P.W. 5 Dud Mian and P.W. 6 Abdul i (P.W. 6 was not even cross-examined) said that there was no Provident Fund in this Company and gave a denial to the Company's aforesaid statement. Here again, the Tribunal finds that Shri S. N. Modak's award was not implemented. There is no other objection coming from the Company's side to the introduction of the system of Provident Fund. I, therefore, direct that a Contributory Provident Fund be introduced forthwith for all employees in which the rates of contribution should be 6½ per cent both on basic wages and dearness allowance, equal contributions being made by the employers and the employees. The rules should be drawn up according to the directions given by Shri S. N. Modak in his award, i.e., on the basis of rules set forth in "Appendix 10" of the Jute Textile Tribunal's Award, dated 31st August 1948.

Issue No. 3—Leave and holidays.

Shri S. N. Modak in his aforesaid award did not propose to introduce a system of privilege leave or casual leave with pay for the daily-rated workers. He gave the following directions:—

"Monthly-rated employees shall be entitled to one month's privilege leave with full pay in a year and also 10 days' casual leave with full pay in a year. The daily-rated employees shall not be entitled to any privilege leave with full pay other than what is provided for under the Factories Act. Daily-rated workers will not be entitled to any casual leave with full pay but this matter will lie at the discretion of the employer. Both monthly-rated employees and daily-rated employees shall be entitled to 10 days' sick leave with full pay in a year on production of a medical certificate from a qualified medical practitioner approved by the Company."

Union's evidence is that the workers do not get any leave and holidays. There is no evidence on the Company's side. The Company's objection in its written statement was that the provision for leave and holidays was inadequate and the factory being seasonal, there was not even work for 48 hours. There are good reasons to think that this award of Shri S. N. Modak on this issue was also not implemented. I direct that the directions given by Shri S. N. Modak in his award should be given effect to with this modification in the matter of sick leave, viz., that both monthly-rated employees and daily-rated employees shall be entitled to three weeks' sick leave with full pay in a year on production of a medical certificate from a qualified medical practitioner. I answer the issue accordingly.

Issue No. 4—Medical facilities.

Shri S. N. Modak in his aforesaid award found the medical arrangements to be inadequate and directed that they should be improved. Nothing has since been done on the side of the Management. The Management suggested that with the introduction of the Employees' State Insurance Act, there would be no necessity for medical arrangements made by the Company. The Tribunal on a consideration of the evidence on the one side and suggestions put forward by the learned Advocate for the Union finds that the employees should be given during working hours not free medical advice but free medicine and diet and that arrangements should immediately be made for providing a qualified doctor at least for 24 hours in the day to attend to workers in case of emergency and it hereby decides the issue accordingly. This is my award.

AWARD.

1. By order No. 4774Dis./D/11L-290/54, dated the 20th October 1954, the Government of West Bengal, in the Labour Department, referred section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, the industrial dispute between Messrs. Kamalalaya, Ltd., Calcutta, and one of their employees, Shri Sailesh Nath Maitra, represented by the Shop Assistants' Association of Bengal, 7, Padmapukur Road, Calcutta-20, regarding the matters specified in the schedule, to the Third Industrial Tribunal constituted under section 7 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, by notification No. 592-D/121-5/52, dated 23rd February 1953, for adjudication.

2. After usual summons, the parties entered appearance and filed their written statements. Pleadings were completed on 7th December 1954. The case was thereafter fixed for hearing on 7th April 1955.

3. The matter of dispute as stated in the schedule to the Order of Reference is as follows:—

- (1) Whether the discharge of Shri Sailesh Nath Maitra was justified? To what relief by way of re-instatement and/or compensation he is entitled.

DECISION.

On 7th April 1955, the widow of the workman Shri Sailesh Nath Maitra reported that her husband died. She filed a petition for substitution and for proceeding with the claim. The Company opposed the application. The matter was then adjourned at the request of the parties to 7th May.

On that day the widow did not take any step. Her petition for substitution was considered. There is no provision for substitution. In the instances, when the workman died and when there is no provision for substitution in his place, it is obvious that the reference has become infructuous. I award accordingly.

In the matter of a complaint under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, as amended by Industrial Disputes (Appellate Tribunal) Act, 1950, filed by Shri Durgadas Karmakar and nine others against Messrs. For the petitioners: Shri Ram Sen.

For the opposite party: Shri N. M. Das Gupta, Advocate

AWARD.

This is a complaint under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, filed by 10 workmen. Out of the petitioners, Shri Sudhir Chandra Karmakar (No. 5), Shri Panchanan Karmakar (No. 7), Shri Bhairab Chandra Paul (No. 8) were group heads; petitioners numbering 1, 2, 3, 4, 6 and 8 were helpers; and the petitioner No. 10, Shri Badal Chandra Samanta was a worker in the Moulding Shop. During the pendency of adjudication ceedings in respect of industrial dispute between the Company and their workmen, the aforesaid three group heads (petitioners 5, 7 and 9) were suspended and thereafter dismissed on 11th September 1953, and the others (petitioners 1 to 4, 6 and 8) under them were discharged on that day, while petitioner No. 10, Shri Badal Chandra Samanta, was discharged on 17th August 1953 on account of the closure of the Moulding Shop, without permission from the Tribunal. Hence the complaint.

The complaint was originally filed before the Fourth Industrial Tribunal. After the main reference in connection with which the complaint was filed was withdrawn from the said Tribunal and committed to this Tribunal for adjudication, the complaint was received by transfer from the Fourth Industrial Tribunal.

The petitioners alleged that they were members and/or office bearers of the Surgical Workers' Union and were thus dismissed and discharged by reason of victimization. The petitioners accordingly prayed for reinstatement and compensation.

The Company denied charge of victimization in the matter of dismissal and discharge of the workers and pleaded that it acted bona fide. The Company alleged that it was selecting the group heads and the latter in turn were choosing their helpers. Thus the workers used to function in groups under different group heads as units, and when the group heads were absent or ceased to work their helpers invariably became idle. It was said that the three group heads were dismissed from service for gross misconduct on account of "go slow" tactics, absence without permission, deterioration in the quality of instruments produced by them; and owing to such dismissal as there was no work for the helpers, their helpers were discharged.

Regarding workman, Shri Badal Chandra Samanta, it was said that he was discharged on account of the closure of the Moulding Shop and that he received all dues in full and final satisfaction of his claim.

In the circumstances the Company submitted that the petitioners were not entitled to reinstatement or any compensation.

The points which, therefore, arise for determination are as follows:—

- (1) Whether dismissal of group heads was justified. To what relief are they entitled?
- (2) Whether discharge of the helpers was justified. To what relief are they entitled?
- (3) Whether discharge of Shri Badal Chandra Samanta was justified. To what relief is he entitled?

DECISION.

Issue No. 1.

The petitioners have examined P.W. 1 Shri Bhairab Chandra Pradhan, P.W. 2 Shri Nilratan Santra, P.W. 3 Shri Sudhir Chandra Pradhan, P.W. 4 Shri Sudhir Chandra Karmakar, P.W. 5 Shri Panchanan Karmakar, P.W. 6 Shri Durgadas Karmakar, P.W. 7 Shri Badal Chandra Samanta, P.W. 8 Shri Badal Chandra Karmakar and P.W. 9 Krishna Chandra Adak. The Company, on the other hand, has examined the proprietor of T. C. Burman & Co., D.W. 1 Shri T. C. Burman, Technical Adviser of the Company, D.W. 2 Shri Sudhir Kumar Mukherjee besides exhibiting documents, Exts. A to J series.

Messrs. H. Mukerji & Banerjee Surgical, Ltd. (hereafter called Company) was established on 5th October 1948 (vide D.W. 2) Company like its predecessor manufactures surgical instruments. Company has got various sections including Blacksmith Section and a main Section. D.W. 2 deposed, "For carrying on work in different sections the Company selects headmen and the headmen in turn choose their assistants or helpers. The Company formally appoints the assistants and the workmen are guaranteed certain wages. Besides, the headmen draw production bonus for the groups and they in turn distribute the bonus if they so like, amongst their assistants. For normal working hours 48, the headmen and their assistants are guaranteed certain wages and headmen in addition get a production bonus. If the group heads become idle, their assistants become idle." P.W. 1 Shri Bhairab Chandra Pradhan admitted in cross-examination "Work in the concern is carried on in groups as units and not by individual as unit."

Petitioners, Shri Bhairab Chandra Pradhan (P.W. 1) and Panchanan Karmakar (P.W. 5) were two group heads in the Viceman Section, while petitioner, Sudhir Chandra Karmakar (P.W. 4) was group head in Blacksmith Section.

Petitioners Shri Nilkanta Santra (P.W. 2) and Shri Sudhir Chandra Pradhan (P.W. 3) were the helpers under the group head Shri Bhairab Chandra Pradhan; petitioners Shri Durgadas Karmakar (P.W. 6), Balaram Shome and Shri Krishna Chandra Adak (P.W. 9), were helpers under the group head, P.W. 5 Shri Panchanan Karmakar; petitioner, Badal Chandra Karmakar (P.W. 7) was a helper under the group head, P.W. 4 Shri Sudhir Chandra Karmakar. The evidence shows that Shri Sudhir Chandra Pradhan is brother of group head Shri Bhairab Chandra Pradhan. Likewise, helper Shri Durgadas Karmakar is brother of group head Shri Panchanan Karmakar. Helper Shri Badal Chandra Karmakar is a relation of the group head Shri Sudhir Chandra Karmakar. The production work was thus being carried on in different groups as units. The three group heads Shri Bhairab Chandra Pradhan, Shri Panchanan Karmakar and Shri Sudhir Chandra Karmakar, were according to the evidence, suspended first and thereafter dismissed. Following their dismissal the helpers under them were also discharged. The petitioners alleged that their employment was terminated in that way as they were either members and/or office bearers of the Union. The Company, on the other hand, contended that termination of employment was bona fide and justified. It was said that the group heads were dismissed because of adoption of "slow" tactics in production, sometimes by wilful absence rendering their helpers idle and sometimes by working in slow-down manner, and because of deliberate deterioration in quality of instruments produced by them. It was said that as the group heads were dismissed, the helpers under them were discharged.

Before going into the question, it is necessary to state certain facts which are either admitted or established in evidence for proper appreciation of the case. On 15th February 1953, the employees of the Company ed Surgical Workers' Union (vide P.W. 1). The said Union presented demands whereupon after unsuccessful conciliation proceedings the disputes were referred to by the Government before the Fourth Industrial Tribunal for adjudication. The Company, in the meanwhile, off six workmen with effect from 19th March 1953. Thereupon there was a mass representation and this was followed by strikes on two successive days—once on 21st March 1953 and the other on 24th March 1953. Notwithstanding, the Company did not withdraw the order of lay-off.

The group head Shri Bhairab Chandra Pradhan according to his own statement, has been the Secretary of the Union since it was established and the head Shri Panchanan Karmakar, its Vice-President. Having been the bearers, it is natural that they would like to have the demands of the Union acceded to by the Company. The other group head Shri Sudhir Chandra Karmakar, the evidence shows, is related to group head Shri Panchanan Karmakar.

Regarding the group heads D.W. 2 deposed that they were dismissed from service on account of "go slow" tactics, deliberate absence without permission and deterioration in the quality of the instruments produced by them. He stated that these group heads adopted "go slow" tactics some time in April 1953, so much so, that production of their groups came down to such an extent that no production bonus became payable to the groups. He further deposed that these group heads did not give production even sufficient to cover the guaranteed wages received by them. According to him, slow-down in production was successfully brought about by working in slow manner or by deliberately absents rendering themselves idle.

Regarding Shri Bhairab Chandra Pradhan, the evidence has been given that he wilfully absented himself from duty from time to time without permission or notice with a view to bring down production from time to time in April 1953. Exhibit I shows that he so absented for a total of 49 days in 1953. Shri Bhairab Chandra Pradhan and the helpers under him admitted that Shri Bhairab Chandra Pradhan was absent from time to time without previous permission or notice. Shri Bhairab Chandra Pradhan could not deny that the total period of such absence in 1953 was 49 days. The evidence of D.W. 2 shows that when the group heads were absent the helpers under them invariably became idle. Shri Bhairab Chandra Pradhan admittedly received charge-sheets relating to such absences and warnings in respect of those charges as in Exts. A series. On 1st April 1953 he was given charge-sheet for absence from 1st April to 2nd April 1953 without notice and permission. After he submitted explanation the Company considered the charges and the explanation and found the explanation unsatisfactory and gave warning to Shri Bhairab Chandra Pradhan on 4th April 1953 (vide Ext. A1). In spite of the warning Shri Bhairab Chandra Pradhan was again absent on 15th April 1953 and was followed by charge-sheet on 16th April 1953. After he submitted explanation, the Company gave him warning for the second time on 17th April 1953 (vide Ext. A3). In that decision the Company stated that Shri Bhairab Chandra Pradhan was absents deliberately in order to bring down production. Again Shri Bhairab Chandra Pradhan absented and he was charge-sheeted on 30th April 1953 (vide Ext. A4). After he submitted explanation, the Company gave him warning for the third time that if he absented in such a way, he would be dismissed. Undaunted by these warnings, Shri Bhairab Chandra Pradhan continued to absent without notice and this he did in May, June, 1953, successively. Then he absented for the last time before dis from 17th to 22nd August 1953 without permission and without n Thereupon the Company gave him charge-sheet on 27th August 1953 29th August 1953 the Company gave its decision finding that he was and that he should be dismissed and that pending permission from Tribunal he was suspended. The absence from time to time in the of the warnings and behind the background it took place, cannot b to be unintentional. The evidence further reveals that Shri B Chandra Pradhan during such absence was doing work elsewhere an supplying goods he was producing to D.W. 1, Shri T. C. Bu Proprietor of T. C. Burman & Co., from April 1953. The receipts, G, G1 and G2, showing receipts of payments by Shri Bhairab C Pradhan from T. C. Burman & Co., support that it was so. Shri B Chandra Pradhan of course denied the signatures therein as his, bu circumstances leave no room for doubt that those were his signatures has been admittedly serving under D.W. 1 since his employment this Company was terminated. In the circumstances D.W. 1 would make a false statement against his own employee. His evidence i that Shri Bhairab Chandra Pradhan was supplying him goods from 1953. The statement regarding payment of production bonus also su the Company's case. The Company contends that Shri Bhairab C Pradhan received only Rs. 31-15 as production bonus in April 1953 a Rs. 169-14 in March 1953 and none from May 1953 (vide Ext. H) argument that when system of production bonus was current a we would not naturally adopt "go slow" tactics as it would then be w against one's pecuniary interest, cannot be accepted in view of the and circumstances as discussed above. It would appear from Ext. Shri Bhairab Chandra Pradhan was all along earning a good am production bonus prior to April 1953. This together with the fact t lay-off was not withdrawn in spite of mass representation and strike rather suggest that Shri Bhairab Chandra Pradhan, who was the S of the Union, would like to adopt other measures like "go slow" in order to bring the Company to submission. Be that as it may, facts and materials placed before the Tribunal, there can be no do Shri Bhairab Chandra Pradhan absented himself deliberately and absence and acts he brought down the production. So the action Company in dismissing him on the materials before it cannot be sa mala fide or unjustified. No doubt during enquiry the workman called to be present, but from this the enquiry cannot be said to h vitiated.

Regarding Shri Panchanan Karmakar, Exts. C series, wh admitted by him, show that he too absented from time to time fro 1953 and received charge-sheets and several warnings before the last sheet and dismissal. The absentee statement, Ext. 1-2, shows that absent for 17 days. He admitted that he was absent from time to but said that this was not unusual. Exhibit J shows that even w attended, he did not work for full 48 hours but far less. The i further shows that the goods which he used to produce were not standard quality and that for this the Company received complain its customers from time to time. The production bonus statement, I also reveals that he was not producing sufficiently to earn productio from April 1953. As a matter of fact, he did not receive any pr bonus from April to July 1953. So on the facts and materials be Company, the Company cannot be said to have acted mala fide or i in dismissing him.

Regarding Shri Sudhir Chandra Karmakar, Exts. B series show that he was absent from time to time from April 1953 and received charges and warnings from the Company. The absentee statement, Ext. 1-1, is that he was so absent for a total period of 56 days. He was totally absent from time to time. The production bonus statement, Ext. H2, shows that he received only Rs. 10-3-6 pias as production bonus for the month of April 1953 against Rs. 49-15-0 in March 1953 and none in May 1953 onwards. The evidence shows that he was supplying finished goods during such absence from April 1953 to other Company. In examination Shri Sudhir Chandra Karmakar admitted that after he was dismissed from this Company, he was doing work at home and supplying finished goods to T. C. Burman & Co. The evidence further shows that he was so doing from the time he was absenting. So, in this case too, the Company did not act mala fide but it was justified in dismissing he group heads were no doubt either members and/or office bearers of the Union, but it does not appear that their Union activities had anything to do with the action which the Company took against them. It rather appears that the group heads abused their position as such and started to work deliberately and work slowly with a view to bring down production and force the Company to submission by causing loss to it. So, to decide, I find that the action of the Company in dismissing the group heads was bona fide and that their dismissals were justified. It, therefore, appears that they are entitled to no relief.

Issue No. 2.

The evidence shows that it is the group head who was selecting his units or helpers and the Company was making only formal appointments. In the circumstances, it is natural that when a change in the group head becomes essential, his helpers cannot be retained as otherwise work is not possible. I am, therefore, unwilling to interfere with the discharge of the helpers. The helpers are, however, entitled to some relief when they have been discharged for no fault of theirs. Section 25F introduced by amendment of the Industrial Disputes Act and which came into force from 24th October 1953, is a guide in this respect. Having regard to the provisions therein and other factors, I think the discharged group heads should be given one month's wages in lieu of notice. Their length of service as well as the wages which they were drawing at the time of discharge are to be found in the statement, Ext. J1. There is no dispute between the parties regarding the same. Having regard to the length of service and other factors, I find that the helpers are entitled to, in addition to one month's wages, the compensation as below:—

- 1) Shri Nilratan Santra—2½ months' wages.
- 2) Shri Sudhir Chandra Pradhan—15 days' wages.
- 3) Shri Badal Chandra Karmakar—2½ months' wages.
- 4) Shri Durgadas Karmakar—2½ months' wages.
- 5) Shri Balaram Shome—2 months' wages.
- 6) Shri Krishna Chandra Adak—2 months' wages.

The Company should make the payments within one month from the date the award becomes enforceable.

Issue No. 3.

Shri Badal Chandra Samanta was a workman in the Moulding. He was working under Mistry Shri Nakul Bakshi. The evidence that he was first laid-off on 4th May 1953 for two months and then it was found that no work could be given to him he was discharged on paucity of work on 17th August 1953 and was asked to take his dues appears that he declined to do so and that subsequently his dues were to him by money order and he accepted the same. The discharge, therefore, appears to be justified. As he was, however, discharged for no fault of his own, I think he is entitled to retrenchment relief. Besides one month wages in lieu of notice, he should get 1½ months' wages as compensation which I think to be fair. The Company is to pay the amount within one month from the date the award becomes enforceable.

In terms as aforesaid, I make my award.

ORDER.

No. 2274Dis./D/9J.-8/55.—20th May 1955.—Whereas under the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, Order No. 3D/1 D/9J dated the 4th January 1954, the industrial dispute between Messrs Tea Estate, post-office Mirik, Darjeeling, and one of their workmen, Balmati Raini represented by the Darjeeling Chiya Kaman Samiti, post-office Darjeeling, regarding the matters specified in the schedule was referred for adjudication to the Fourth Industrial Tribunal.

And whereas the said Fourth Industrial Tribunal has submitted to the State Government its award on the said industrial dispute:

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the provisions of section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Governor is pleased hereby to publish the said award as shown in the annexure hereto.

ANNEXURE.

Industrial dispute between Messrs. Seeyok Tea Estate, post office Mirik, Darjeeling, and one of their workers Sreemati Balmati Raini, represented by the Darjeeling Chiya Kaman Sramik Sangha, post office Darjeeling, referred under Government Order No. 3Dis./D/9L-60 53, dated 4th January 1954.

BEFORE THE FOURTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL.

PRESENT:

SHRI S. C. MUKHERJI, District Judge, Judge, Fourth Industrial Tribunal.

the Union: Shri Deo Prokash Rai, Secretary.

the Company: Shri J. K. Ghosh, Advocate of Messrs. Orr Dignam & Co., Solicitors, assisted by Col. E. S. E. Herrie of D. B. I. T. A. and Mr J. Gordon Temple, Manager.

By Government order No. 3Dis./D/9L-60/53, dated the 4th January 1954, the aforesaid dispute was referred to this Tribunal for adjudication. The issue framed by the Government was the same as the issue framed by the Tribunal and it was as follows:—

- (a) If the discharge of Sreemati Balmati Raini in consequence of dismissal of her father by the Management was justified and to what relief she is entitled?

Notice of the aforesaid dispute having been served on the parties the Union filed its written statement on 20th February 1954 and the Company filed its written statement on 27th March 1954.

The case for the Union is that Srimati Balmati Raini was served with a dismissal notice by the Company on 25th June without any rhyme or reason without framing any charge-sheet, that the dismissal of Srimati Balmati Raini is illegal and she is entitled to reinstatement with back pay.

The Company, on the other hand, contended that Srimati Balmati Raini employed in the garden as a dependant of Naina Singh Rai, that according to the practice prevalent in the garden at Darjeeling are the liabilities of the dependant workmen are liable to be terminated on the termination of the services of the primary workmen, that Naina Singh Rai had dependants living with him at the time of his dismissal and out of them Srimati Balmati Raini was the only dependant who had been working in the garden of the Company, that consequent upon the dismissal of her father for gross misconduct she was discharged from service by Company's order dated 25th June 1951, in accordance with the custom mentioned above, that the order is not only legal and proper but is also justified because she was not to be allowed to live alone in a house away from her family, that as she was a dependant of her father, she had, therefore, no right what-so-ever to remain on the estate on the dismissal of her father.

AWARD.

At the outset it has been noticed that there is no denial about the dismissal of Naina Singh Rai for gross misconduct. This fact is also proved by the evidence of the Manager of the garden. He has proved that Naina Singh Rai used to charge extra for rations and pocketed the difference between the actual amount and the charged amount. The Manager gave him a charge sheet, Ext. C and held an enquiry into the matter and gave him a dismissal order, Ext. C(1). These facts are not challenged and the dismissal under the circumstances was proper and was effected on the ground of gross misconduct under clause 9(i), (ii), (iii) and (iv) of the Certified Standing Order with effect from 25th June 1953. Thereafter on the strength of the Standing Order clause 12 and the I. T. A. Circular No. 81, dated 8th December 1951, the company gave a notice of dismissal along with an order for eviction upon Naina Singh Rai directing him to vacate the quarters with his dependants and consequent upon it the Company also gave notice to Srimati Balmati Raini, the working member of the family of the dismissed worker Naina Singh Rai, by giving her one month's notice pay and terminating her service with effect from the same date in pursuance of an alleged custom regarding the tea estate at Darjeeling, particularly the Seeyok Tea Estate. The Union has challenged this custom as being without any rhyme or reason and also attacked the discharged order as being against social justice as no charge-sheet was given to the discharged worker Srimati Balmati Raini. It goes without saying that the onus is on the Company to prove that the custom is old and immemorial, that it is reasonable and certain and not against public policy. Custom has been proved on the side of the Company by the evidence of O. P. Ws. 1 and 2. O. P. W. 1 who is a Labour Officer and the Secretary of the Darjeeling Branch of the Indian Tea Association says that "he knows about the conditions of service obtaining in 81 different tea gardens in the district of Darjeeling within his jurisdiction. Although he has been connected with tea for 8 years he has proved that the custom is regarded as long-standing and followed without exception. According to him when gardens recruit labour; they recruit by families; the senior worker of the house is dealt with as the head of the family by the Manager. All arrangements are made through him by the Manager and the head of the family on appointment gets all the privileges—

- (a) house for himself and his family to live in,
- (b) khet land to cultivate,
- (c) ration issued for himself and for the members of the family and the dependants,
- (d) free educational and medical facilities, and
- (e) employment of vacancies for dependants above 12 years of age.

He further proved that arrangement for appointment of dependants are made with the head of the family by the Manager, that under the custom the dependants of the head of the family do not get any independent status and that when the head of the family is dismissed for gross misconduct and is liable to be evicted, he goes and everything goes with him namely, his dependants, etc. If, however, a dependant is discharged or dismissed for misconduct that does not necessarily affect the head of the family. If the head of the family wishes to be responsible for the good behaviour of the dependants the family is not affected." The custom is also proved in the same way by O. P. W. 2 Mr. J. Gordon Temple, the Manager of the Estate who is also connected with the industry for nearly 8 years. He proves that the custom is long standing because it is followed without exception in a garden during his time and further he proves from very old papers in the cept in the regular course of business that Company's registers have been named in pursuance of this custom. He has proved that payments for each member of a particular house is calculated and totalled together for the purpose of distribution and the family earnings are distributed to the family to the representative of the head of the family. It was also proved that his system applies to distribution of lands. He has also proved that when a man is recruited his house is numbered and the number of the house which is allotted to Naina Singh Rai was 228 in the Housing Book and in it the names of the members of the family were recorded under his name. For the purpose of distribution of land also a family has been taken as one unit and under the name of the head of the family the names of his dependants residing with him are also written and in support of this contention he has produced the ration distribution book of the year 1953. The first name in the family by family in this book is the name of the head of the family and the dependants' names are written under him (vide Ext. H). That book so shows that it is the head of the family does not come for taking the rations, the dependants are to give out the name of the head of the family or the number of the house to which they belong in order to enable him or them to collect rations or to receive payments. He has also proved that marriage advances were given to the head of the family and never to the dependants. The register shows that Bandhoj and Agomdhoj as head of the family collected marriage advances and these advances were recovered from the head of the family and not from the individual dependants. The above set goes to show unmistakably that the dependants of the family have no independent existence other than the head of the family and this custom is long standing. It is also certain that it is not unreasonable or against public policy. If the company gives so many facilities to the dependants and if the latter enjoy the facilities on the basis of a custom which enjoins their dismissal on account of the dismissal of the head of the family for gross misconduct, such custom cannot be said to be unreasonable or against public policy. On the side of the Union they have examined three witnesses and these witnesses tends only to show that there had been cases where dependants have been allowed to continue in service in spite of the dismissal of the head of the family for gross misconduct. In other respects the custom is practically admitted even by these P. Ws. For example P. W. 1 admitted that she was the only working member of her father's family. Her eldest son was also working in the garden but since she is living with her husband in a separate house and her husband is the head of the family she has not been discharged although P. W. 1 has been discharged consequent on the dismissal of her father for gross misconduct. It is evident that she has been working in the garden by adopting the name of her step-mother whose appointment has been given as being a dependant of the member of the house Naina Singh Rai. She admitted that when a man is freshly recruited for the garden he is given a house to live in, khet land to cultivate, ration for the whole family and medical facilities for the whole family. She also admitted that in Seeyok Tea Estate when there are vacancies, certain members get jobs and for this they are not to give any written applications. At the time of the appointment the dependants have to give out the name of the head of the family. This completely proves the first part of the custom regarding appointment. As regards second part—dismissal—P. W. 1 admitted that just as it is a fact that in the garden a fresh recruit is given a house to live in with his family and a plot of land to cultivate at the time of his appointment, so at the time of the dismissal the dismissed worker is to vacate the quarters with his families and to quit the khet land but this practice according to him is justified. So he practically admits the second part of the custom which involves the point of the dependants being dismissed on the dismissal of the head of the family for gross misconduct, but he only urges that this custom is unjustified. But I have already said that where a custom exists for long time and it is not unreasonable or against public policy it is justified. The dependants cannot complain against it when they have once submitted to the custom and enjoyed the benefits derived from it. P. W. 2 is similarly admitted that when a new man is recruited he is given a house to live in, a plot of land to cultivate, free medical facilities to a family, concessional ration, and also privilege of the dependants to have employment case of the jobs offering. P. Ws. 2 and 3 no doubt gave some instances where dependants continued in service even after the dismissal of the head of the family, but both he and P. W. 3, however, admitted of many instances where dependants have been given appointment merely by reason of the said persons being dependants of the head of the family in case of vacancies, and in no case there had been separate and independent contracts with them. As regards these cases of exception P. W. 2 said that he could cite seven instances where the dependant member continued in spite of the dismissal of the head of the family but while giving out names, he gave five instances. P. W. 1 Labour Officer, D.B.I.T.A., however, proved that he has made enquiries into the these cases and found that the work mentioned above have not been dismissed from the Avengrove Tea Estate. In support of his contention he has proved Ext. I, 1(1) a communication from the Manager of the said tea estate addressed so far back, dated 9th December 1954. In the circumstances, the evidence proves conclusively that the Company only suspended these workers with effect from 1st December 1954 pending decision by Court of Law and O. P. W. 1 has proved that the matter is still sub judice. The evidence, therefore, is not sufficient to prove an exception. As regards the case of P. W. 2 himself, O. P. W. 2 has proved that P. W. 2's wife was allowed to continue as a dependant. The Manager has to accede to the recommendation of the Assistant Labour Commissioner and the Panchayet held in connection with the misconduct of P. W. 2. Besides P. W. 2 committed a social crime and this has not to do with any misdemeanour under the standing orders. Consequently in this respect the Panchayet was called and the Manager has allowed the wife to continue as a special case on the basis of the Panchayet's decision which was obeyed by P. W. 2 and who on the strength of the Panchayet's decision has voluntarily left the garden. Under these circumstances his own case also is not an exception to the general custom. The other witness P. W. 3 has proved three instances, one of himself and the other of one Dhanay Rai and the third is of Maili Limbuni and said that he and Dhanay Rai were working under the Ambootia Tea Estate and though they were dismissed their wives were not discharged. As regards Maili Limbuni he has admitted that she was the head of the family and her husband was at the army and had two children who were small and at the time of her discharge her children were not working. So the case of Maili Limbuni is neither here nor there. As regards Kancha Gurum himself and Dhanay Rai the Commissioner has called for the record of the Ambootia Tea Estate and it is found that the case Darjeeling Tea Company took action to evict the family of Dhanay Rai and Maili Limbuni and O. P. W. 1 further said that so far as his memory goes the wives of these persons did not work in the gardens. The alleged dependants of the said workers have not also come to give a statement. Consequently, under the circumstances these two instances cannot be accepted to prove exception to the general custom. Besides these two cases as well as in the case of Kancha Gurum himself the present Management Darjeeling Tea Co., Ltd., have sold their interest to the present Management and the present Management have given back employment to all its labour force who were dismissed by the previous Com-and consequently on their re-appointment their dependants also continued in service and consequently their cases cannot be said to be an exception to the general custom. Further as regards Kancha Gurum, O. P. W. I has stated that he was not actually dismissed from service by the previous Company but he was transferred from the factory to the garden. At any rate, as the Management changed hands soon after this incident, it is quite possible that the hands of the previous Management being thus tied but desisted from taking action against Kancha Gurum's wife and dependants according to standing orders. Continuance of Kancha Gurum's wife in service, therefore, cannot be proved to be an exception to the general custom. But in all these instances proved by the Company or admitted by the P. Ws. including the case of Balmati Ruini, the appointment was evidently on the basis of the custom. In this respect the present case differs from the case which was decided by Mr. G. Palit, a Judge of the Industrial Tribunal, West Bengal, and it cannot be cited as an authority in support of the contention raised by the Union in the present case. Mr. Palit no doubt relied in that case on the adjunct theory in coming to his decision but each worker had also independent contract of appointment with the Management. It is no doubt true that this adjunct theory has not been accepted by the Hon'ble Judges of the Labour Appellate Tribunal in the case of Dumduma Tea Estate of Assam. But in that case the Hon'ble Labour Appellate Tribunal also found that the husband and the wife were employed independently of each other and pointed out that such cases are to be dealt with as based on separate contract. The existence of the custom which is the sheet anchor of the present case was not, therefore, the foundation of the decision in either of the said cases. The decision of the Hon'ble Labour Appellate Tribunal, however, seems to have given its approval to the rule of appointment on family basis in the event of existence of such a custom inasmuch as they said that the custom or usage repeatedly brought before or recognised by Courts or Tribunals need not be proved by evidence every time it comes before the Tribunal. But this custom has been relied upon and proved by the other Darjeeling Tea Companies in three subsequent cases with regard to the Darjeeling district, viz., regarding Burnsberg Tea Estate, Ringtong Tea Estate and Bannackburn Tea Estate of this district. The custom is also recognised in authoritative reports in Roze's Report under an enquiry into the conditions of labour on plantation in India, 1945, he has pointed out that "in Assam the majority of workmen was imported from outside and was employed on permanent basis and a very small proportion consists of lala or basti labourers recruited locally who are descendants of ex-garden labourers who had been imported from distant Provinces and who had purchased lands and had settled outside the garden lands, that the family rather than the individual was the unit of recruitment of labour imported from distant places, that the cash wages were low and the women folk of the family were also employed as labourers because (a) plantation work was suited to them, (b) facilities were given to male workers to settle on or in the vicinity of plantation and to take their wives with them and (c) that under old system labour (contracts for indenture labour) based on principle of utilising every able-bodied person for labour and of fixing wage rates accordingly, i.e., at the rates which were low for individual worker, many women, wives of male workers sought employment in order to balance the meagre budget". These passages give the history of the plantation of labour in the tea gardens of Assam as well as of Bengal and notice the fact that the employments are on family basis. Then again Shri Deshpande also in his report on the Cost and Standard of Living of Plantation workers in Assam and Bengal stated "recruitment on plantation is on family basis". There is, therefore, overwhelming evidence to prove existence of the family basis of employment in the district of Darjeeling in Bengal and the custom applies to appointment as well as dismissals as referred to above. The custom is reasonable as it is for mutual benefit and the employees are not entitled to accept the one part and reject the other. The custom as a whole is to be relied on and the employees have failed in their attempt to show that the second part of the custom relating to dismissal was disproved on account of their being exceptions to this general custom. I, therefore, hold that the custom as a whole is proved. It is reasonable, it is certain and it is of long standing and it is, therefore, binding on all the parties and the Union cannot accept the best part of the evidence and reject the other.

The Union further sought to attack the rule of custom as offending the principle of social justice. As a fault of the head of the family was gone to be visited by the dependants who were neither given the charge-sheet nor asked for an explanation and no enquiry was held against them, no doubt the principle of natural justice has been apparently violated and consequently the Union laid stress upon the principle of natural justice as laid down in the decision of the Buckingham Carnatic Mill's case but that case has expressly laid down that in the case of discharge on notice or in lieu thereof the payment of wages for a certain period without assigning any reason under the Standing Orders the Tribunal would be at liberty to examine the explanations offered by the employee and other circumstances for the purpose of seeing whether the employer acted with honest purpose and that if termination of service be held to be justified no further question would arise, though in exceptional cases there may be a scope for giving compensation. Applying these principles to the present case it appears that the discharge of the dependant worker on the dismissal of the head of the family who is a primary worker on account of gross misconduct has been the custom in this area on account of the fact that appointment has been all along on a family basis and families are allowed to live in a house in the garden and the Company has to make ration and other arrangements for the family. In such circumstances, the discharge on notice of one of the dependants, namely, daughter, in the present case, for the dismissal of the father for gross misconduct becomes a matter of necessity; if the father cannot be allowed to stay in the quarters provided by the Company in the garden under the Standing Orders there cannot be any doubt, therefore, that in terminating the employment of Balmati Ram the dismissal of the father Naina Singh Rai for gross misconduct the Company acted with honest purpose. The question of violation of the principle of natural justice, therefore, does not at all arise in the present case. In view of the fact that this consideration will have to be made in deciding the merit of the decision of the Management in relation to charges of misconduct against an employee which comes under the third type of the case referred to in paragraph 10 of Buckingham Carnatic Mill's case. It was, therefore, no violation of the principles of natural justice and the action of the Company was justified and the Company acted with honest purpose in terminating the services of the dependant Balmati Ram on basis of a well-recognised valid custom. The discharge of Balmati Ram is, therefore, upheld and she is not entitled to any relief in this case.

AWARD.

1. By order No. 4024Dis./D/101L-106/54, dated the 19th August 1954, the Government of West Bengal, in the Labour Department, referred under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, the industrial dispute between Messrs. Hindusthan Development Corporation, Ltd., Hindusthan Buildings, 4, Chittaranjan Avenue, Calcutta-13 and one of their employees, Shri Anil Kumar Roy of 80/B, Vivekananda Road (3rd floor), Calcutta-6, represented by himself, regarding the matters specified in the schedule, to the Third Industrial Tribunal constituted under section 7 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, by notification No. 592Dis./D/12L-5/52, dated the 23rd February 1954, for adjudication.

2. After issue of usual summons the parties entered appearance and filed their written statements. The pleadings were completed on 27th October 1954. The parties were thereafter directed to file list of documents. The hearing was concluded on 2nd May 1955 and award was reserved.

3. The matter of dispute as stated in the schedule to the order of reference is as follows:—

- (1) Whether the Company was justified in terminating the services of Shri Anil Kumar Roy? What relief and/or compensation is he entitled to?

DECISION.

The workman, Shri Anil Kumar Roy, was a clerk in the Head Office of Messrs. Hindusthan Development Corporation, Limited, at 4, Chittaranjan Avenue, Calcutta. He had joined on 28th June 1948 and his employment was terminated on 31st March 1954 on payment of one month's salary in lieu of notice besides his salary. His salary at the time was Rs. 190 per month.

In his written statement of claim and during hearing, the workman concerned did not claim reinstatement but only compensation. In the circumstances, the question whether the termination of employment was justified or not ceased to be material and has not been gone into.

As the employment was terminated on 31st March 1954 after amendment of the Industrial Disputes Act introducing section 25F, the workman is entitled to the relief as provided in section 25F. Clause (a) provides for one month's notice or payment of one month's salary in lieu of notice. The workman was admittedly paid one month's salary in lieu of notice. Under clause (b) of section 25F, a workman is entitled to compensation at 15 days average pay for every completed year of service or any part thereof in excess of six months. The workman, according to both sides, had completed 5 years of service before retrenchment. He is, therefore, entitled under clause (b) to compensation equivalent to three months' salary.

As regards claim for salary for three months' accumulated leave, the Company resisted the same. It was agreed on all hands that there was no service rules or office Standing Orders governing the service conditions of the Head Office staff (vide the pleadings).

It being so, and the workman concerned having been a clerk in the Head Office of the Company, I agree that in the matter of the leave the workman concerned would be governed by the Bengal Shops and Establishments Act, 1940. The Head Office of the Company would come under the category of commercial establishment. Section 12 of the Bengal Shops and Establishments Act, 1940, lays down that privilege leave admissible under clause (a) may be accumulated up to a maximum of not more than 28 days. This being the position, the workman, in my opinion, would be entitled to salary on leave for 28 days on this head.

The Company is, therefore, directed to pay to the workman three months' salary as also salary for 28 days as soon as the award becomes enforceable. I award accordingly.

Appearances :

For the Union : Shri Sudhansu Majumdar, Secretary of the Samity.

For the Company : Shri Nripendra Nath Sikdar, Proprietor of the Company.

AWARD.

An industrial dispute between Jalpaiguri Cabinet Co., Railway Feeder Road, Jalpaiguri and two of its employees, Shri Brojendralal Roy and Shri Haripada Sarkar, represented by Jalpaiguri Byabashayee Karmachari Samity, Jalpaiguri, over the dismissal of the latter, was referred to this Tribunal for its adjudication under Government of West Bengal, Department of Labour, order No. 4778Dis./D/11L-340/54, dated the 20th October 1954.

The Union on behalf of the employees said that the two employees concerned were active members of the Union since June, 1952 and the proprietor of the Company, Shri Nripendra Nath Sikdar, dismissed these two employees in service for their Union activities without giving any charge-sheet and without notice. The dismissal was illegal, malu fide and made in violation of the principles of natural justice. The Union asked for the reinstatement of these two employees with wages for the period of their unemployment.

Shri Nripendra Nath Sikdar, proprietor of Jalpaiguri Cabinet Co., in written statement denied the Union's case and stated among others that the two employees voluntarily gave up their jobs and they were not dismissed, amount of wages was due.

The issue is (1) Whether the dismissal of Shri Brojendralal Roy and Shri Haripada Sarkar was justified. Are they entitled to reinstatement and/or any other relief?

The compromise petition duly signed by the Secretary of the Union and Proprietor of the Company was received by registered post this day. I considered the petition and the terms of settlement. The terms being fairly accepted. The case is disposed of in terms of the petition of compromise which shall form part of the award.

AWARD.

I would like to preface the discussion on the issues by a brief of the facts leading up the present dispute. According to the Calcutta Electric Supply Corporation, Ltd., is a limited Company its head office in London, and its Calcutta Office at the Victoria

It dates as far back as 1897. It was started with the object of distributing and supplying electrical energy in the city of Calcutta, its industrial area and suburbs under different licenses under the Electricity Act, 1910 (Act IX of 1910). How it developed in Calcutta will appear from the fact that in the year of its origin it had an area of 5.46 square miles for its business, but now it has developed a monopoly concern having its present business area as much as 100 square miles. The Unions contend that the Company is very grudgingly giving a little more than bare subsisting wage, and this has again been through persistent struggles and adjudications. There had been many instances of collective bargaining between the Union and the Company, but the gulf about wages, etc., could not be bridged over. So the matter was referred to Shri R. Gupta, I.C.S., in 1947 by Government Order No. 239Com., dated the 4th January 1947 and No. 1857Com., dated the 4th April 1947. The award was published in the Calcutta Gazette under notification No. 175Lab., dated the 9th June 1947. Thereafter there was no other dispute referred to the Tribunal presided over by Shri M. C. Gupta, Judge. That award was published in the Calcutta Gazette, dated the 4th April 1951, under notification No. 2071Lab., dated the 4th April 1951. There was an appeal to the Hon'ble Labour Appellate Tribunal at this award. It was, however, dismissed. There was thereafter, no reference in 1952. That dispute was with regard to bonus for

It was referred to me under notification No. 3581Lab., dated the 10th June 1952. Thereafter the present reference has been made to the Tribunal comprising a large number of issues.

The Company does not dispute that it is a monopoly concern, and that it supplies electrical energy for industrial and commercial consumption. The Company contends that its profit has been restricted since the last War by the Electricity (Supply) Act of 1948. It is limited to 5 per cent. on the Capital Base which is called "Reasonable Return". It is a public concern. Its finances are governed by the principles laid down by the schedule of the Electricity (Supply) Act of 1948. Admissible expenditure are also set forth therein. So there must be a proper balance between income as well as the expenditure. But if the expenditure is not of proportion to the income, then it is bound to result in the increase of the rates payable by the public. So the Consumers should not be affected in this adjudication, though they do not actually figure before the Tribunal. Another thing that the Company points out is that the employees of this concern have been ploughed back in the business. The Company prior to any adjudication, of its own accord, improved the scales and conditions of service of the workmen. Shri R. Gupta's award fixed the annual expenditure a sum of Rs. 26 lacs. But even in the year 1948, the Company introduced a sliding scale of dearness allowance. In 1948 That was improved upon further in September 1948 and April 1949. Though the Company had several occasions to reduce the dearness allowance in consequence of the falling down of the cost of living, yet it refrained from taking any action in that direction. In 1950 the Company granted the Bengal Chambers of Commerce a dearness allowance to most of its middle class employees. This amounts to an additional expenditure of 4 to 4½ lacs of rupees per month.

Besides this, the Company started canteens, and made costly equipment. This cost the Company an annual expenditure of nearly half a lakh rupees. Medical services have also been improved. The gross cost of this head for the subordinate staff and workers in 1949 amounted to Rs. 1,40,000. The Food shops had an expenditure of 1½ lacs of rupees in 1949. The Company granted bonus of one month's basic salary of its accord. It was raised by this Tribunal to two months' salary. Thus the Company contends that it is trying to the best of its limited resources to improve the wages and conditions of service of the workmen. But to increase it to the extent claimed by the Unions would mean a total collapse of the concern which is very nearly reaching the maximum of its capacity. The Workers' Union submitted a charter of demands on the 10th May 1949. The issues were framed accordingly when the conciliation failed. The Company resists the claims of all the Unions together.

For the sake of convenience I now proceed to discuss the issues in reversed order, viz., beginning with the last issue and ending with the first.

Issue No. 22.—Whether the twenty externed employees, named in the Order of Reference are entitled to get benefit of their past service for adjustment and fitting in of the pay from the present scale to the revised scale, if any, if so, how?

These workmen were externed in 1940 along with other members of the Executive Committee of the Calcutta Electric Supply Workers' Union. Mahatma Gandhi, during his visit at Sodepore, represented their case to the then Viceroy. As a result of that, these externees were allowed to return to Bengal. Thereafter the matter was referred to Shri R. K. Chatterjee who then constituted the Tribunal. He ordered their reinstatement, but did not consider their services prior to the externment. Now these workmen have reached the retiring age of sixty. The Union claims that they should be given an extension of service by seven years, and should be placed into the new grade taking into account those seven years in exile being a period of employment. It is further claimed that those seven years of employment should be reckoned as period of service for the purpose of Provident Fund and Gratuity.

Regarding the claim for reckoning their past service for the purpose of Provident Fund and Gratuity, the Company has conceded that the contention is at rest. When the Company, as a rule for retirement, fixes the age at 60, I cannot ask it to relax the same in favour of these externed men. To fix the retiring age is necessary for many reasons. From the point of view of efficiency, its importance can hardly be overemphasised. It can never be said that these men retained their efficiency at all times while other men lost it, simply because these men were out of employment because of their externment. To put these men at the point in time at which they would have occupied but for the externment, is too much to ask. To do that would mean that these men should be taken to have been in continuous service all this time which, in fact, they were not. It shows the pay and allowance of these externees at the time of their externment, and also their present salary, etc. In all cases they are getting much higher pay than what they had been getting prior to their externment. So the Company did ample justice to these persons. Besides, the Company can very well say that it was not responsible for the said retirement order. That order was passed by the then Government in accordance with the then law and order. To penalise the Company for an act which it never did would be robbing Peter to pay Paul. That is never an acceptable principle of equity. So what the Company has done regarding the the purpose of Provident Fund and Gratuity is considered to be enough the circumstances. No further relief is called for and granted to these players.

Issue No. 21.—Designation of the greasers.

It is the contention of the Workers' Union that these greasers are semi-skilled workmen because they have to attend to turbines, and they are required to open up the Power Plant. So they should be designated as Power Plant Operators. The Employees' Association makes no claim in connection. The Mazdoor Union wants them to be designated as Engine Drivers. The Company is agreeable to call them as Power Plant Attendants on the analogy of "Boiler Attendants" used in the Act. I fail to understand how these greasers can be designated as Engine Drivers. It is discarded as fantastic. I think "Power Plant Attendant" should be the proper designation for them, having regard to the duties they perform. That may disarm the misgiving that the present designation of greaser connotes. So I dispose of the issue accordingly.

Issue No. 20.—Medical aid.

The demands of the Unions under this head can be set forth as below:—

- (1) Extension of medical aid to the family of workers;
- (2) Employment of full time medical officers at the generating stations and factories;
- (3) Payment of bills of the workers obtaining treatment from doctors outside other than the Company's doctor.

Company contends that after the submission of its written statement, it has started one more dispensary. The Company spends on the medical expenditure Rs. 30 per capita per year. Ext. J shows manual workers as well as clerks get the benefit of X-ray examination other special examinations. Ext. K shows how the dispensaries are used. That also shows that the dispensaries are quite popular. By the Ext. K the Union wanted to show how a man died before the Company's medical aid had arrived. The Company says that the man's illness was reported to the Company's doctor rather too late. The Company contends it is paying contribution under the State Insurance Scheme, and so it cannot provide for more medical aid. It is also duty of the State to provide medical aid to the family of workers. Under the present insurance scheme the Company does not fix any maximum of medical expenses for its employees. Considering all the evidence on the point, I find that the Company has made ample arrangements for the medical assistance to its employees. But I cannot agree with the Company when it wants to foist its responsibility on the State. Of course, the State has a duty to perform in connection, but the direct responsibility is of the Company. That cannot be denied. In that view of the matter I am inclined to think that the members of the workers' families, strictly so called, should also be within the purview of this medical scheme. If they come to the dispensary, they should be given free medical aid as much as is available. The wages of the workers are not such as can meet such even-ings as sickness in the family. But the maximum expenses to be paid in one single year in respect of a worker and his family must not exceed one month's salary of the said worker in any case, unless the Company is pleased to do so.

Regarding the claim of the Union in respect of employment of time medical officers at the generating stations and factories, I am of opinion that the Union should have led evidence to show that the existing part-time arrangement is inadequate and it fails to answer the requirement. But no such case has been made out by evidence by the Union. Rather, the evidence that is on record goes to show that arrangement there for providing medical attendance for employees falling sick at in course of their employment. As such occurrence is more of the nature of an exception than of a rule, I cannot accept the Union's demand for whole-time medical attendance should be provided for at night. This is an extravagant demand which is hardly called for by the circumstances. Shri Moitra, presiding over the Third Industrial Tribunal, has rejected a similar demand in the case of Hooghly Docking and Engineering Company, Ltd.

Regarding the claim of the Union for payment of bills of workmen obtaining treatment from outside doctors, the Company is not agreeable to the point. I can very well understand the attitude of the Company in this respect. To grant this will be to ask the Company to meet medical expenses which they can hardly control. The workmen can never as a rule be asked to pay extra medical expenses than what is provided for by the Company. It is only when the Company's doctors are not available, and the situation such as requires immediate medical attendance from other doctors, that medical expenses incurred for such treatment may be allowed by the Company after the same has been approved and passed by the Company's doctor as indispensable in the case. Such payments must be hedged above under strict restrictions for obvious reasons. So I make the recommendation as suggested above, but leave it to the discretion of the Company. I want to make it clear that my recommendation does not create any obligation on the part of the Company. Under this issue I have granted only what I considered to be absolutely necessary having regard to the State Insurance Scheme sponsored by the Government in which, I am told, the Company has been making contributions.

Issue No. 19.—Revision of Gratuity Scheme.

The main contention of the Unions is against the restriction of gratuity to 19 years' service. The workers want to do away with this restriction altogether. But it will not do to forget that the main purpose of gratuity is to provide retiral benefits to old employees in recognition of full and faithful service. Being a retiral benefit, it rules out granting gratuity at an early stage, viz., on three or four years' service. If a workman wants to leave the Company's service after a short period he can never claim gratuity. He can very well join other companies where the length of service he can make himself eligible for having gratuity is short. Granting gratuity for a short term of service would be setting premium on frequent turnovers. That will defeat the very purpose of the gratuity scheme. Gratuity is the tie that binds a workman to the Company. It makes him put in length of service under one Company. In the present case I find that the gratuity rules were prepared on the basis of the award of Shri R. Gupta, Tribunal (page 52 of his award). The rules were considered and are as useful today as they were at the time they were framed. So I am not inclined to change them. The claim of one month's wages per year of service as gratuity did not find favour with Shri Banerji, Tribunal, who adjudicated upon the issue on the last occasion. As a matter of fact, one month's wage is hardly given as gratuity in cases of far more prosperous companies, viz., oil companies, in which the Provident Fund. That being the position, I reject the claim of the men in this respect.

No. 18.—Overtime work and the basis of calculation of overtime payment, etc.

The Workers' Union claims overtime pay for non-factory workers at same rate as for factory workers. The Mazdoor Union claims overtime pay at twice the basic pay and allowance. This issue excludes the men in Mains Department, Central Stores, and those coming under Factories Act. I get at page 27 of the Company's written statement after the framing of the said issue there had been negotiations between Company and the Union as a result of which the Company issued an order on the 20th September 1954. That order finds place at page 28 of written statement of the Company. This relates to non-factory workers except Meter Inspectors and the Clerical Staff of the Head Office at the Victoria House, and of the Maintenance Department. The Company is opposed to any further increase of overtime pay than what has been conceded above. I find no reason why overtime rate for factory workers in the Factories Act should be extended to non-factory workers. The granting of overtime at the rate of basic pay and allowance should suffice. One and a half of the basic pay and dearness allowance for non-factory men is considered adequate. The Union wants the Tribunal to grant a penal rate of overtime so that the Company would be forced to abrogate overtime altogether. But I accept the Company's argument that the Tribunals never for imposing punitive measures under any circumstances. It is to do equity and justice under all circumstances. Shri M. C. Banerji restricted overtime as much as was found permissible having regard to nature of work in the present Company. The Company is also making decent efforts to reduce overtime to the minimum. So, to employ penal measures to force the Company in this respect cannot arise at all. So, on recording the agreement reached between the Company and the Union on this head in the Appendix of this award, I do not grant any other benefit under this issue to the workmen.

Issue No. 17.—Consolidation of dearness allowance with basic pay.

It is the contention of the Unions that the dearness allowance has to stay. It will never be wiped out. That being the position, it is time that it should be incorporated in the pay so that the workmen have its benefit in the matter of contribution to the Provident Fund and other matters. Dearness allowance was introduced to neutralise to a considerable extent the hardship that was being felt in consequence of the rising prices of food commodities as a result of the last Great War. Prices fell short to meet the requirements of the workmen. Most of them were then in a tight corner. As it was considered to be a temporary phase, a temporary measure was adopted in the shape of dearness allowance to cover the crisis. But even after the cessation of hostilities, due to the international situation, the prices are not coming down to the level expected. Dearness allowance has been allowed to continue. Of course, a volume of opinion is veering round the belief that things will never return to the level, and prices may stabilise at some point over that level, and at the present level. But it has not yet been fixed at any particular level. At the same time wages cannot be enhanced till that point is fixed. Dearness allowance is granted on a sliding scale. It is elastic. It can be raised to changing prices. It can be lowered just as it can be raised.

But in the case of wages, there is no such elasticity. Wages once increased can hardly be reduced. So one must think twice before he increases wages. Under the circumstances, dearness allowance at the present time cannot be incorporated into the wages. Besides, to do this would require a thorough and searching enquiry by experts, who can go as far into the past as into the future. This ought to be decided on Government level. It cannot be done in the case of one particular Company. So I reject the claim of the Union regarding consolidation of dearness allowance with basic pay. The Workers' Union has referred to the Gadgil Committee Report and the Rao Committee's Report. But I fail to find in any of these reports any precise point where the cost of living has been taken into account. The Gadgil Committee's Report has made recommendations in respect of Government employees. But Government itself has not accepted the recommendations of the report. A similar claim was rejected in Bombay in the Roneo case award, published in the Bombay Gazette dated the 30th September 1954, page 2625. That only strengthens my own conclusion reached above.

Issue No. 16.—Dearness allowance.

The Mazdoor Union demands an increase in the dearness allowance of the workers. It can hardly be sustained. The scale which it claims is Rs. 60 per month for the pay range from Rs. 50 to Rs. 80. The Company's present scale is Rs. 60 for the basic pay range from Rs. 51 to Rs. 69. In the case of basic pay under Rs. 50 the dearness allowance is Rs. 50. The Union does not point any reason why the dearness allowance that is being given by the Company for the higher pay range of workers should be departed from. It is Rs. 65 for the basic pay range from Rs. 70 to Rs. 100 per month; Rs. 72 for the basic pay range from Rs. 101 to Rs. 150, and Rs. 85 for the basic pay range from Rs. 151 to Rs. 200. The Company introduced a sliding scale of dearness allowance in 1948 for the workers. There was an agreement in 1949 between the Company and the Workers' Union whereby there was a flat increase of Rs. 10 for the basic salary below Rs. 70 and upwards, and Rs. 5 for the basic salary below Rs. 70 per month. The scales of dearness allowance which now prevail in the Company had thus the consent of the Union for its basis. There had been successive reductions in the cost of living index, but the Company refrained from giving effect to the consequent reduction which they could do in December 1953 and March 1954. As a result of this restrained attitude the Company the workers stood to gain Rs. 10 in dearness allowance which they would have to lose if the sliding scale was fully given effect to by the Company, as stated at page 24 of its written statement, is prepared to allow further modifications in the shape of concessions. But as the Union does not accept it, I am not in a position to give effect to the claim envisaged there. The Hon'ble Labour Appellate Tribunal of India, in their judgment, dated the 30th November 1951 in Appeal No. Cal. 10 (C.E.S. Workers' Union versus the Company) stated as follows:

"We do not see any substance in the claim for increase in dearness allowance for manual workers. Rate of dearness allowance was fixed so recently as 1949 on the basis of an agreement and no grounds have been urged which would entitle us to disturb the solemnity of an agreement which is the result of collective bargaining. The claim for increase of a flat rate of Rs. 10 on those getting a basic pay of less than Rs. 70 has no basis to support it."

Now, if this was the position in 1951, when the cost of living index was higher than what it is today, can there be any justification now for the increase in dearness allowance?

The Union has referred to the paddy forecast in 1950 as not hopeful. It contends that the last five years' average figure should be adopted as the present cost of living index. But hardly any reason has been given why this should be accepted superseding the system that is now being followed. Regarding the middle class employees, the Bengal Chamber of Commerce scales of dearness allowance exist. That these are adequate can never be disputed. The Union stands self-contradicted in its stand for an increase in the dearness allowance. It is not prepared to accept the Bengal Chamber of Commerce scales of dearness allowance for the subordinate staff, nor is it prepared to accept the scales and dearness allowance awarded under the Engineering Tribunal's Award (published in the Calcutta Gazette, dated the 21st September 1950).

The Company's scale of dearness allowance is much better than either of the above two. It is also higher than what is being given to the workers of the Gouripore Electric Supply Company which is Rs. 33-14 in most cases. It is also higher than in the electrical undertakings under the Government of West Bengal where dearness allowance varies between Rs. 30 and Rs. 55. The Company has given a diagram in its Annexure T showing how the index figure fluctuates. It also shows the average for 1953 on which the Company's dearness allowance has been made to rest. Having considered the matter on all points, I am not prepared to increase dearness allowance more than what now prevails here in the Company.

Issue No. 15.—Flat rate increment of basic pay.

The Mazdoor Union seems to have abandoned this claim at page 4 of its written statement. The Workers' Union has connected it with the No. 3. Unless the Union makes out a case that the existing wages are hard with the workers, the claim for a flat rate increment in the basic pay can never be sustained. The Tribunal can make no charity at the cost of the Company. The claim which is unsupported by good reasons is liable to be discarded by the Tribunal. The present claim is a case. So I reject it.

No. 14.—Whether the workmen in the following departments come under the purview of the Factories Act, and are, as such, to be treated as factory workers; (i) Testing Department, (ii) Sub-stations, (iii) Telephone operators at Generating Stations.

Whether or not the workmen mentioned in this issue come under the purview of the Factories Act depends upon whether the definition of a factory can be applied to the places where they work. It is more the business of the Chief Inspector of Factories to decide this matter than it is the business of the Tribunal to adjudicate it.

Regarding the Testing Department, the Company contends that it is more reasonable to regard the clerks and telephone operators of the Testing Department as factory workers than those working at the Victoria Works. Their work is not done in the factory. It can be carried out elsewhere. The Meter Fixing mistries to their work principally in the workers' premises. Consumers' premises can never be treated as a factory. So I am of opinion that the workmen in the Testing Department should be treated, prima facie, as factory workers.

Regarding the workmen in the sub-stations, the dispute is hardly admitted. Admittedly some of the sub-stations are factories, not qua-sub-stations but because of the number of men employed there. The Company does not discriminate in the matter of pay, hours of work, and rates of time pay between workmen who work in a sub-station factory and workmen who work in a sub-station which is not a factory. That being the position, I am not called upon to declare generally that all sub-station workers are factory workers. That is more or less an academical question.

Regarding the junior sub-station workers the Company concedes they are factory workers within the definition of the section 2 of Factories Act.

The Company has no objection to treating the Telephone Operators in the Generating Stations as factory workers if they so desired. There is no subsisting dispute on this head. The issue is thus answered.

Issue No. 13.—Working Hours.

The Mazdoor Union in its argument before the Tribunal asked to treat 48 hours as working hours for all workers. But in its written statement it has excluded the case of shift workers, and that for good reasons, because 48 hours' week cannot be departed from in the case of shift workers. The Company has no objection to raise the working hours from 45 to 48 hours a week just to avoid discrimination, as alleged. It is argued by the Union that the workmen may be allowed to work 48 hours in every case, but they should be given overtime for the hours beyond 46 hours. So it is clear that the Union is not very much opposed to the working hours being 48, 46 or 45, but what it wants is to snatch overtime pay. That claim can hardly be called decent when there are reasons behind it. Different working hours have been prescribed for different workers with a view to exigencies of service. The Tribunal never disturbs them without impairing the efficiency of the department concerned. The Union has also demanded that the receiving hours of the Office Cash Department should be from 9-30 a.m. to 2 p.m. instead of present system from 9-30 a.m. to 3-30 p.m. Strictly speaking, reduction of cash receiving hours is not within the scope of the present issue. The Union has shown the photograph taken during the rush of people at 2 in front of the Cash Department. So if the closing hour is made earlier the rush will only increase causing great inconvenience to the public. The Company has opened a number of Cash Offices in different parts of the city. But that has not as yet produced any tangible result. At any rate I am not prepared to disturb the existing hours for receiving cash at the Head Office Cash Department. The Union, during the argument, referred to the working hours obtaining in England. But the Company has pointed out, and rightly, that the number of Festival Holidays in England is six in a year, while in India it varies from 19 to 25 days a year. That being taken into reckoning, the working hours in England do not compare unfavourably with the same obtaining here. The issue is thus disposed of without any direction.

Issue No. 12.—Rules for confirmation in service.

The Mazdoor Union wants that all temporary hands should be made permanent after one month's service, while the Workers' Union wants that all should be made permanent after six months' service. In fact, temporary employees are taken sometimes for temporary purposes. When the term of employment terminates as soon as the work is completed, no question of confirmation in their case can arise. There are other temporary ands who are taken against permanent vacancies. In their case, of course, the question of making them permanent after a certain period of service does arise. I think ordinarily six months' service should be taken as the normal period for confirmation in a permanent vacancy where the candidate was taken with an eye to such a vacancy. The Company by its recent amendment of the clause 3 of its Standing Orders, has made this distinction. It has made two classes of workers, viz., "probationary" and "temporary" workers. Those who are appointed on temporary basis with a view to permanent appointment, are now termed as "probationers". If the Company's practice to confirm as permanent employees those who have completed satisfactorily six months' probationary service. If that service is not satisfactory, the probationer may be given an extension of the probationary period for further three months or he may be informed that no permanent appointment will be offered to him. "Temporary Workmen" is the description given to those workmen who are employed to do work which is of essentially temporary character, or to take the place of permanent workmen during the latter's temporary absence. The Company normally gives preference to such temporary workmen in filling up vacancies in permanent establishments. To reduce this period of probation to one month, as claimed by the Mazdoor Union, has no justification. The issue is answered accordingly.

Issue No. 11.—Abolition of Contract Labour.

Contract Labour has not been viewed with favour by any Labour Tribunal. But still it has been tolerated as a necessary evil because of its usefulness. Where there is no stream or inflow of materials, contract labour cannot be dispensed with for obvious reasons. The Company can never keep one set of men for the purpose because of chances are there that at one time the number of such men will be inadequate, while at another time the men will be sitting idle for want of work. I have got from the evidence of the Union's witness, P.W. 15, Shri Parimal Das Gupta, that wagons of coal do not come regularly. Sometimes there are gaps for a few days or for one week. In such a state of affair contract labour cannot be avoided. Shri R. Gupta, Tribunal, condemned contract labour, but allowed it to continue. Reference has also been made to the award of the Hon'ble Labour Appellate Tribunal in August 1954 in the Assam Oil Company's case (page 553). The Union has failed to prove that contract labour has of late increased beyond what is justified by the circumstances. So, where is the case for intervention by the Tribunal? I am unable to allow the Union's demand that 75 per cent. of contract labour should at once be abolished. That will do more harm than good. It may dislocate the loading and unloading work without any corresponding benefit to the workmen. So I refrain from doing it.

Issue No. 10.—Uniforms for outdoor employees.

Uniforms are granted to the workmen either for enhancing the prestige of the Company, or on account of clothes being spoilt in course of the work causing an extra expenditure therefor for washing, etc. Concerning the first head, it may be certainly said that uniforms in such cases are granted ex-gratia by the Company. So it is not up to the Tribunal to order it on the Company because it is not an "industrial dispute". But regarding the second head, it becomes an industrial dispute because in the condition of service it is never implied that the workmen would incur additional expenditure purely for the discharge of their duties under the company. So in such cases the Tribunal should grant relief to the workmen by ordering the Company to provide such uniforms. So it has to be considered under which of the two heads mentioned above the question of uniform does stand here. The Workers' Union demands uniform in respect of Coal Coolies, C. H. P. Drivers, Testing Department Mistries and Coolies. In the Company's written statement I find "Uniforms are provided to durwans, liftmen, peons, drivers and syces. Short coats are provided for office bearers, night watchmen, meter-fixing mistries, tester mistries, fusemen mistries and emergency mistries who are required to attend to calls at consumers' premises. Boiler suits are issued to garage workmen, and shirts and shorts to canteen staff and sweepers. Water-proofs are provided for meter inspectors, durwans, peons and lorry drivers and lorry and motor cycles syces". Thus, it appears that the Company does supply uniforms to a fairly large number of its workmen. So the claim of the Workers' Union regarding C. H. P. Drivers and Testing Department mistries are covered by the said list (at page 17 of the Company's written statement). Regarding the coolies, I do not think any uniform is required to be given. They are employed mostly in digging trenches or carrying things. If they pull up their clothes, I think, their clothes will not get soiled and damaged in course of their work. But regarding the Coal Coolies in which, of course, I do not include the coolies employed by contractors, certain outfit is necessary for the discharge of their duties. Clothes they wear are bound to become dirty and soiled by their handling of coal. So, as in the case of railway coolies, blue shirts and khaki shorts may be used here. I direct that the Company should supply such outfits to the coal coolies. They may be asked to leave them in the Company's custody when leaving their work. The Company should also bear the cost of keeping them clean, and also the cost of replacing them when torn or unusable. The Mazdoor Union has asked for uniforms on the ground of removing discrimination. When certain persons are given some privilege or concession, it does not lie with the Union to agitate against it. But that they would be doing more harm to the workmen than good whose cause they have espoused. The Company may very well withhold that concession. If the choice is between some people getting some concession and some not getting any concession, then the option should be in leaving the matter as it is. Concession can never be extorted by pressure. So in the circumstances, I do not grant uniforms to other people who are not getting it at present except the Coal Coolies. The Emergency Staff are already getting some uniform. So the contention on that head is of place. The issue is thus disposed of.

Issue No. 9.—Revision of the rate of Provident Fund contribution

The Workers' Union wants the rate of contribution to the Provident Fund to be raised to 10 per cent. of the wages including dearness allowance. The Mazdoor Union wants it to be raised to 12½ per cent., and also wants the Company's contribution to be payable after one year's service irrespective of cases of dismissal or resignation. The Employees' Association demands 8½ per cent. Under the existing system, the Company gives 6½ per cent. voluntary contribution, and 6½ per cent. compulsory contribution, the minimum qualifying period for the Company's contribution being seven years. If in this context it is taken, I should say it is fairly liberal and does not call for any interference from the Tribunal. To say that the Company's contribution should be paid even in case of dismissal is, to say the least, an extravagant claim. Faithful service is the qua non for eligibility to have Company's contribution. The demand to reduce the qualifying period for the Company's contribution from seven years to one year cannot be sustained because, after all, it is a retroactive relief. So the length of service is essential in such cases. In this connection I quote the observation made by Shri M. C. Banerji, Tribunal his award published in the Calcutta Gazette, dated the 19th April 1951, page 900, regarding this very Company. It runs thus—

"A copy of the rules of the Provident Fund of the Company is Annexure T of the Company's written statement. The fund constituted a trust which has worked smoothly for 50 years. It appears that the fund has 5,040 members of whom 4,293 make maximum subscriptions. It appears that an employee can contribute 12½ per cent. of his basic pay, if he so desires, and get 6·875 per cent. of his basic pay as Company's contribution. I consider that the rules of the Provident Fund are satisfactory and they demand no revision."

agree with the above observation, and refrain from raising the Company's Provident Fund contribution. If the Employees' Provident Fund Act, 1952, is considered, we find that both the employer and the employee contribute 6½ per cent. of the basic pay plus dearness allowance. But there is no provision for voluntary contribution, nor any independent stringer gratuity such as is granted by the present Company. So in that view of the matter, the present scheme of the Provident Fund conduces to employees' benefit more than what would be available under the Employees' Provident Fund Act, 1952. If the Engineering Tribunal's award is considered in this connection, the workers will not stand to gain by evoking the said provisions because in that case they will stand to lose the benefit of gratuity. The argument of the Workers' Union that the present Company is trying to get out of the Act is not correct. The Act does not apply to Electricity Supply undertakings, and that is why the Engineering Tribunal's award was exempted in the case of this undertaking. So I leave this issue without any direction.

Issue No. 8.—Revision of Leave Rules.

The Company's leave rules are given in the Standing Orders filed with the written statement of the Company as Annexure S. Regarding privilege leave granted to workmen whose basic pay is less than Rs. 50 per month, and whose service is less than five years, it is on the line followed by many commercial concerns. But those employees who have completed five years' service and whose basic pay is Rs. 50 or more, are entitled to privilege leave of 30 days for each eleven months of service. Sick leave 15 days' full pay plus dearness allowance in cases of all employees who are put in one year's service. In addition to the above, there are 24 or public holidays each year on full pay. So the provision about leave is liberally liberal, and does not call for any revision. The Employees' Association demands that seven days' casual leave should be given at a time. It also demands automatic transfer of privilege leave to sick leave as was the practice before. It also wants to do away with the discrimination in the matter of leave between employees putting in greater or less period of service. Prior to 1948, for a few months, the Company granted casual leave for a continuous period of seven days. But this practice was given up as it caused dislocation of work. The Company fell in line with most other commercial concerns in this respect, viz., not to grant more than 4 days' continuous casual leave at a time. The Company grants seven days' casual leave at a time only in special cases where applications are made in advance. This is perfectly in order. Casual leave is, strictly speaking, no leave. So it always rests with the discretion of the authorities concerned. Leave also cannot be claimed as a matter of right. Casual leave being "casual" in its nature, should not ordinarily exceed four days at a time. So if there is a provision to make out a special case for seven days' casual leave at a time by an application in advance, it shows that the Company is very considerate, and it does not want to rule out altogether such necessities. So the Union should not make a grievance of it.

Regarding the automatic transfer of privilege leave to sick leave, the Company contends that it was never a rule. In special cases Managers in their respective departments had exercised this discretion prior to 1951. Sick leave is granted on account of one's sickness. Not if it exceeds the scheduled sick leave period, the employee concerned has got to throw himself on the indulgence or good sense of the Company for extension of the said leave. If such extension is covered by the privilege leave due to take its place, then that must be made by an application making out a case therefor. It can never be claimed as a matter of right. The Company substitutes the extended sick leave for privilege leave due. That is an act of grace. No Government does grant such concession to its employees. So I fail to understand why the Union should grudge making an application for such conversion of leave instead of claiming it as automatic. That is rather a tall prayer which the Tribunal cannot grant.

Next, regarding the removal of the discrimination with regard to leave between employees having lower and higher scales of pay, or employees having shorter and longer period of service, I must confess that I do not view it with much favour. I can understand the logic when during the officiating or probationary period the full benefit of leave is withheld from the man concerned, but when one gets himself confirmed in the service I find no reason why the full benefit of the leave system should not be extended to him. In that view of the matter I am half inclined to remove this discrimination and to place the thing on the footing suggested above. But even in Government rules for leave there are different systems, viz. for superior and inferior kind of service. In case of superior service the leave rules are more liberal in all respect than the rules admissible to employees occupying a rank in the inferior service. I also get that Shri M. N. Gan, Tribunal, in his award in the case of James Linlay & Co. introduced such discriminatory leave rules depending on higher pay and length of service (vide his award published in the Calcutta Gazette, dated the 30th December 1954). I also get that such discriminatory leave rules obtain in some of the big commercial concerns round about Dalhousie Square area. I, however, still remain to be convinced. But what ultimately leads me to leave the present system undisturbed is that in the present Company the leave rules are much more generous than what are generally expected. One month's privilege leave and half month's sick leave on full pay seems to be more than enough. Now if the Company wants to restrict it in cases of men drawing less pay than Rs. 700 per month, or in cases where services are less than five years, such restrictions should not be resented. To hold out the Company's leave system at once without any restriction to new entrants and persons drawing on the inferior scale of pay would not be proper and advisable. I would also point out that unlike the engineering firms, this Company does not make much discrimination in the matter of leave between manual workers and clerical employees. In that view it is more liberal than the engineering firms. I, therefore, in this view of the matter, would not like to remove the discrimination in the matter of leave as pointed out above in the present circumstances. If the clerical employees and the manual workers were given separate kinds of leave and restricted festival leave, then it might have obliterated the above distinction. As it is, I refrain from revising the leave rules of the Company.

Issue No. 7.—Quarters or house rent allowance.

The Workers' Union claims family quarters or in lieu thereof house allowance at the rate of 25 per cent. of the basic pay with the minimum of Rs. 10. The Mazdoor Union demands free quarters for all employees of the Company. It further adds that till quarters are arranged by the Company, 25 per cent. of the total emolument of an employee should be given as house rent allowance. The Company states that they have provided quarters for some shift workers at the Generating Stations, but additional quarters for such categories are in course of erection. Regarding the provision of quarters for non-shift workers in and around Calcutta, it is said to be an undertaking too prodigious for the Company at the present moment. The Workers' Union has given a chart from an Adarkar's report. The Union says that if the Company built quarters for its employees, it would have to spend only one-third of the total expenses, and out of the remaining two-third it would get one-third as a grant, and the balance one-third would be donated by the Government. So the Company, according to this Union, must be made to pay prohibitive house rent allowance to compel it to build quarters for its employees. Quarters are generally built by the Company for its employees whose absence is either required for all time, or who give house rent allowance. The place of the undertaking where the house rent is very high, or house rent is not available at all. For the shift workers the Company has, as far as possible, provided accommodation at the Generating Stations. Regarding the non-shift workers it was incumbent on the Unions to prove by evidence that either houses are not available nearabout the place of work, or it is very hard on the part of the workmen to pay out of their wages the very high rent of the houses they do occupy. The Unions have not placed any such evidence before the Tribunal.

Power Stations are mostly in places where houses are available. They are never situated in places out of the way. Evidence is wanting that house rent which the workmen do actually pay is more than what is payable out of their wages. The house rent, after all, is a primary liability of a workman because it has been taken into the reckoning in fixing the wages. Any enhancement of it is covered by the dearness allowance. I quote from Shri M. C. Banerji's award already referred to in this connection. "From what I have discussed above it will appear that the dearness allowance paid by the Company more than compensates for the extra house allowance granted by the Bank Tribunal. In view of this piece of circumstance, I do not consider that any house rent allowance should be available to the employees in this Company over and above the basic pay and dearness allowance as allowed." The Company has not been liable to pay house rent allowance in lieu of providing quarters. It is admitted on all hands that the responsibility in this connection is shared by the State. If the workmen are provided with quarters, they are required to pay some rent for it. Government also receives such rents from occupants of Government quarters. That also should be considered in this connection by the workmen. I am satisfied from the evidence on record that the Company is not wanting in its sincere business in the matter of building quarters for its workmen. That should be in its own interest, because it will add to the efficiency of its workmen. But to secure lands in or about Calcutta on a large scale is extremely difficult. That can hardly be gainsaid. So in view of this, the Company has not advanced in this direction as much as is desired. It is expected it cannot be blamed if we consider the practical difficulties in this way. I would, however, recommend to the Company that it should take up this problem, and should not be slow in utilising Government aid in this direction which would do benefit to the undertaking and to he same time benefit the workmen. But more than this I am not prepared to go. To impose prohibitive house rent allowance for the Company's failure to provide quarters for its employees, as asked for by the Workers' Union, can never be accepted by the Tribunal. The Tribunal is not punitive in its action, as I have already remarked elsewhere. So I dispose of the issue as above.

Issue No. 6.—Special allowance for clerks in the Cash Department.

The Mazdoor Union demands special allowance for the Cash Department employees. They have to pay Rs. 3 to Rs. 5 per month from their pocket for shortage or counterfeit coins. The Workers' Union wants special allowance for Meter Inspectors for their special responsibilities such as custody of money, etc. The Company resists the claim. To receive money constitutes the main, if not the whole work of an employee in the Cash Department. He should be cautious in receiving proper payment or receiving bad coins. To do one's normal work, caution cannot earn special allowance. If there is any special responsibility apart from the normal discharge of work, then the question of allowance does come in. In the case before me such responsibility could not be made out in the case of the Cash Department employees. It is said that during the rush hour the Cash Department employees have got to be very busy. That is also the case with the bank employees. But in the absence of special responsibility no allowance is to be given to such Bank employees. Regarding the Meter Inspectors' case it is said that they have to collect money from rate-payers on occasions. That does not earn special allowance. In the written statement also the Union has not prayed for such special allowance for the Meter Inspectors for collecting money from rate-payers. So it is merely an after-thought. It does not carry weight. So I turn down the claim of special allowance under this issue.

Issue No. 5.—Night allowance.

The Mazdoor Union alone demands a night allowance of Rs. 5 per month for workmen not routinely to do night work. Canteen facilities, and other amenities are wanted at night. One can be kept ready for employees to go home at night in case of emergency. For people who are routinely to work at night, no allowance is required. For people who are routinely to work at night, and when it is an incidence of night work as was held in the Asbestos Cement case (vide L. A. C. J. 1954, page 2). The other category of workmen who are routinely to do night duty are given overtime allowance. Such category of workmen consists of people who are normally day workers, and who are called for work at night in connection with break-downs, etc. or overtime work. The overtime allowance given compensates such overtime work. Regarding the amenities to the night workers, the Company admits that arrangements are there for persons falling sick. For other amenities such as smoke, etc., the workmen ought to provide for themselves. Only to night workmen, a canteen cannot be kept open. Such workmen can have their meals before coming to duties. They may also have their meals supplied. The Company undertakes to keep the meals hot for being taken by the employees early at night. The Company has no objection to turn down the demand for night allowance.

Issue No. 4.—Rules for promotion.

The Mazdoor Union wants under this issue that the existing rules should be abolished, and promotion should be unrestricted from the lowest to the highest post, and also that training should be given to men who would be kept in reserve for filling in vacancies in higher grade posts. It also demands that acting allowance should be given for any period, however short, even for a day. Many of their claims on this head have not found place in the written statement, and are, strictly speaking, not covered by the issue. Two of the witnesses have deposed that normally promotions are based on efficiency. To say that seniority should be the only criterion would be to sacrifice efficiency. The Tribunal cannot be a party to it. Seniority-cum-efficiency should be the guiding principle of promotion. Evidence shows that the Company is following this principle. There are instances here and there of some departure, but unless any specific case is made out, the Tribunal cannot grant any relief on the matter. Then regarding the claim that no existing post should be abolished, I think it is a management function, pure and simple. If the management finds one post redundant the Tribunal can never ask it to keep it up only to provide accommodation to a worker. It is futile to argue that the existing service condition is affected when a post is abolished by the management being redundant. The employees learn a job while doing the work, and by experience they qualify for higher grades. I cannot ask the Company to keep a number of reservists who will merely qualify for filling in higher grade vacancies. The Company has acting allowance in the case of officiating for 30 days or more. That is quite a salutary rule. Casual acting-service for a day or two can never earn such allowance for obvious reasons. Acting allowance is given only when the period is fairly long, say,—a month. I am told that recent recruitments are hardly made. Vacancies are filled up by promotions of junior men. So the rules for promotion do not call for any revision in my opinion. I dispose of the issue accordingly without any specific direction.

Issue No. 3—Adjustment and fitting in of the pay from the present scale to the revised scale, if any.

The Mazdoor Union asks for one increment for every year of service in order to fitting in. The Company refers to Shri R. Gupta's award at page 48 where he provided for one increment for every 4 years' service. The Hon'ble Labour Appellate Tribunal has ruled in the case of fitting in for every 3 years to 5 years of service. But in the present case this will be a technical question, because, as it will be seen, I do not revise the scales under the pertinent issue. The question of fitting in only arises where a new scale is introduced, or the old scale is so revised as to require fitting in.

It is also given to soften the rigour of hardship and to extend the benefit of the scale even to outgoing men or men with only a few years' service left. So in that view I do not prescribe any mode of fitting in in the present case. Even if I had revised the pay scales and grades, I would not have granted one increment for less than 3 years' service. As in R. Gupta fixed the pay scale only in 1948, there might have been no increment given for any fitting in in the scale even if it was changed. It is, I give no direction.

Issue No. 2.—Revision of pay scales.

The Unions have demanded revision of pay scales for the workmen as well as for the clerical and the engineering staff. They have also demanded classification of workmen in different categories, viz., unskilled, semi-skilled, skilled and highly skilled. The Unions contend that the award of Shri R. Gupta in 1947 fixed the minimum wage at a figure just above the poverty line, i.e., at a standard below which a workman would be undernourished. So, practically, it is contended that it was the minimum wage. Shri M. C. Banerji in his award has refused to interfere with the said wage calling it a "fair wage", if not a living wage. The matter was taken up in appeal. Their Lordships of the Labour Appellate Tribunal also confirmed the said view. It is now urged that Shri M. C. Banerji and the Hon'ble Labour Appellate Tribunal had not before them proper materials for granting increase of wages. Before this Tribunal such materials have been placed. It is claimed that in the light of materials laid, the Tribunal should revise the pay scales, and classify the workmen into different grades. It is further contended that Shri M. C. Banerji and the Hon'ble Labour Appellate Tribunal mentioned "fair wage" but what they meant really by "fair wage" was not the "fair wage" as defined in the "Fair Wage Committee's Report".

Next, the Unions have led evidence to show that the wages of the workmen are very poor, and hardly sufficient to keep them above want and compare very unfavourably with other concerns in the neighbourhood. It is further said that Sri M. C. Banerji did not consider the matter on a scientific basis. He merely considered how far the wages prevailing in this concern compare with the wages given in Banking Industries with reference to the Bank Award. Let me consider those contentions one by one.

Before I deal with the matter in detail, I should point out that wage fixation is a long term affair. Once it is fixed, it should not be disturbed lightly and early. Unless there are strong grounds to change a wage scale, the Tribunal should leave it where it is. This was also what the Lordships of the Labour Appellate Tribunal held in the Army and Navy Stores case. Of course, it is true that at the time Shri R. Gupta gave his award, the "Fair Wage Committee's Report", which marked a step in advance, was not available. But Shri M. C. Banerji gave his award in April 1951. The Hon'ble Labour Appellate Tribunal gave its award even later confirming the said wage. At pages 284-286 of the Gazette the Lordships have dealt with the recommendation of the Fair Wage Committee. Shri M. C. Banerji also dealt with the Fair Wage Committee's report at pages 876-879 of his published award. So it is not to contend that these Tribunals used the words "fair wages" in a sense different from what is used in the Fair Wage Committee's Report. The Lordships have observed, "We have already held that the Company is paying fair wage and not minimum wage to its employees, and have regard to its capacity to pay, ceiling level has been fairly reached". After this I may very well say that the burden which the Unions are required to discharge in the present case for changing the wage scale will be more than what is ordinarily required in the absence of such judgments. The Company has referred to the Award in the case of James Finlay & Co., Ltd., Caltex (India), Ltd., Burmah Shell Company and various other mercantile concerns, and also referred to wages of Port Commissioners, Gouripur Electric Supply Company, Government of India. I should at once say that the wage scales obtained in those concerns are absolutely out of place in the matter of deciding wage scale in this concern barring, of course, Gouripur Electric Supply Co., Ltd. Wages are always decided industry-cum-region basis. In the region rates will not do. It should also be of the same industry. If we compare the wage scales of Gouripur Electric Supply Company with those prevailing here, I find scales of this Company are far better than those obtaining in Gouripur. Gouripur Electric Supply Company I have already pointed out how the dearness allowance is paid in the Gouripur Electric Supply Company which is fixed at Rs. 33-14 on a flat rate, and also in the Electricity undertakings of the Government of West Bengal varying from Rs. 35 to Rs. 55, in the issue No. 16. Here I only point out that the scales of pay in this concern are very much better than the the electrical undertakings, even taken by themselves, apart from dearness allowance. Shri M. C. Banerji in his award published in the Calcutta Gazette, dated the 19th April, 1951, at page 869, has taken great pains to show that the wage for clerks in this concern is better than that of the clerks in class A Banks in class 1 area as per All India Bank Tribunal award, the salary and the dearness allowance taken together. I do not think it worthwhile to reiterate the arguments set forth by the Awarded Tribunal in the said award. In that case the Secretary of the concern asserted that the scales of pay for clerks awarded by the Bank Tribunal were satisfactory and represented the living wage standard. If the wage scales of the present Company are better than those fixed by the Bank Tribunal for clerks of class A bank in class 1 area, then we may fairly suppose that the clerks here are getting not the minimum wage but the living wage. As a matter of fact, the learned adjudicators of the Bank Tribunal fixed the pay of class A banks at the living wage standard, class C banks at the subsistence level, and of class B banks between these two limits. So even if this concern can be made to occupy the rank of class B banks, as Shri M. C. Banerjee has established the clerks of this concern should be supposed to be enjoying "fair wage". So in this view the matter also the wage scale in the present Company does not call for revision.

Next I deal with the matter in the right of evidence adduced comparing the wage scales and subjecting the same to searching enquiry. For the clerical staff the Workers' Union demands the following scales:—

Junior clerks—Rs. 80—5—100—10—200.

Senior clerks—Rs. 190—10—240—15—300.

Annexure P to the Company's written statement the prevailing scales for the clerks are given as follows:—

Junior clerks—70—5—155.

Senior clerks—146—6—170—10—240.

As this the Company pays dearness allowance as per Bengal Chamber of Commerce rates which are 110 per cent. for the first Rs. 100 of basic pay, 70 per cent. for the second Rs. 100 of basic pay and 27½ per cent. for the subsequent Rs. 100 of basic pay or in proportion. So the total emolument of a junior clerk in this Electric Supply Concern amounts to Rs. 147 per month and the maximum pay of a senior clerk is Rs. 416 per month including dearness allowance. If this is compared with the scale of pay of the banking companies, this scale of pay would appear greater. The scales of pay and dearness allowance for class A banks in class 1 area are as follows:—

Basic Pay	Rs. 85	Rs. 227	E.B. Rs. 280
Dearness allowance	Rs. 50	Rs. 99	Rs. 118
Total	Rs. 135	Rs. 326	Rs. 398

A clerk in class A bank in a class 1 area receives in addition, if in Calcutta, 10 and, therefore, starts with a total remuneration of Rs. 145 per month and finishes at Rs. 408, against Rs. 147 and Rs. 416 as shown in this Company. Shri M. C. Banerji has spoken of the statutory limitation of profit earning imposed on electricity undertakings by the Electricity (Supply) Act, 1948 and pointed out that the banks do not suffer from this handicap of limitation of profit earning. He has placed Calcutta Electric Supply undertaking with B class banks, so far as capital is concerned. Shri M. C. Banerji has also pointed out that the scales of pay in this Company are better than those in the Gouripore Electric Supply Company. At page 894 of his award he sums up follows:—

"It will be evident that the scales of salaries as well as dearness allowance as offered by the present Company are superior to those offered by the Gouripore Electric Supply Company, Ltd. which is also a company governed by the Electricity (Supply) Act 1948. There are other scales relating to the workmen in various categories in the wage structure..... Considering the facts and circumstances discussed above, it is clear that the Union's claim for increase of basic pay of the employees on average by 60 per cent. is not worthy of support. It is also financially possible for the Company to grant the like increments and allowances as claimed by the Union in the present state of finances".

This is practically the position which I also find in the light of evidence on record. The Company has set forth the scales of pay given by it in Annexure "P" to its written statement. These scales are very much better than those paid for similar appointments in other concerns. The Company has also submitted a statement in Annexure "Q" showing the total emoluments received by different typical categories of employees at different times. It shows the minimum and the maximum wages of the different grades. The Annexure "R" to the written statement of the Company shows that the average annual wage per worker in 1942 was approximately Rs. 62 per month, and that in 1953 it had risen to approximately Rs. 100 per month, exclusive of bonus (vide the written statement of the Company at page 11).

The supervisory grade of jointers is Rs. 265—20—385. This seems to me to be quite fair and handsome.

Senior Switch Board Attendants are in the grade of Rs. 170—10—240. P.W.2, Shri S. K. Lahiri, admits that Senior Switch Board Attendants are promoted from the category of Junior Switch Board Attendants. The work of senior switch board attendants in the Generating Stations involves greater responsibility. This is also admitted by the P.W.6 and also Mr. Tabatt, O.P.W.3. So their grade is Rs. 170—10—240 (E.B.—20—385). Thus it appears that the Company has framed the grade with an eye to the degree of responsibility involved in the work. This dispels the contention of the Union that the wage scale is spasmodic and unscientific.

The Junior Switch Board Attendants occupy the grade of Rs. 160—5—175. As the evidence shows, their work consists of recording instrument reading. When they work in conjunction with the Senior Switch Board Attendants, they strike off and shut down motor connections in the direction of the Senior Switch Board Attendants. If the dearness allowance is taken into consideration, this grade seems to be quite handsome. It is better than even the Senior Switch Board Attendants' grade in Gouripore. I have already considered the grades of junior clerks and senior clerks, and have shown that they are quite well balanced when compared favourably not only with those of other concerns but also with banking concerns.

Regarding Meter Inspectors' grades, I find that they are well paid for the type of work they are required to do. P.W.5 has referred upon the difficulties in the way of discharge of their duties. I would urge the Company to minimise those difficulties as much as possible. But as their grade is concerned, I do not think that any interference is called for.

Assistant Switch Board Attendants occupy the grade of Rs. 50-5-70, a grade for young middle class employees of the nature of trainees. Assistant Junior Repairer and Assistant Mechanics occupy the same grade. Their dearness allowance at the Bengal Chamber of Commerce scale is present 110 per cent. So their total emolument is no bad. Before they reach the maximum they are usually promoted. Some are held up by their inefficiency. I would very much like that if any man is found unsuitable, he should not be kept on indefinitely in this uncertain position. Such employees would expose the Company to legitimate criticism that they are having the best use of those men but are not giving them enough emolument in return.

The grade of the Head Boiler Attendants is Rs. 95-3-128. Their work is partly supervisory and partly operational under the supervision of the Shift-in-Charge Engineer for the operation of boilers in commission.

The Head Greaser and the Head Power Plant Attendant have responsibility for the operation of valves. They also start up and shut down pump and other auxiliary plants under the direction of the Shift-in-Charge. I have already spoken of changing their designation. Regarding their grade, I do not think that it calls for any revision.

The Crane-men whose grade is Rs. 49-2-75, operate the overhead and the Turbine House and Generating Station. The overhead crane at the Central Stores is a smaller one and does much simpler work. It merely picks up and unloads the cables to other stores. This crane is operated by the Chief Crane Driver, whose grade is Rs. 37-1-54 and whose Assistant's grade is Rs. 37-1-47. I would recommend to the Company to consider the case of crane-men and to increase by a few rupees their salaries which may be rather inadequate. As there are different crane drivers, and their duties are different, I cannot fix the amount of this increase in all cases. I leave it to the good sense of the Company to give suitable

Workers' Union has referred to the wage scales of lamplighters, sweepers and coolies. It is contended that as the employees' skill increases with experience, they should be given a long time scale. But in these cases I should observe that the increase in skill, if any, is almost negligible. The Mazdoor Union pointed out that the H. T. Cubicle Mistry or Fitter Mistry, figured in the Company's Ext. O₂, at page 3, in the grade Rs. 39-1-61, should have been placed along with the Mistries. The reason for this omission as stated by the Company is that only 3 Jointer Mistries have been promoted to the upper part of the lower grade and so far no H. T. Cubicle Mistry and Fitter Mistry has crossed the bar. It is contended by the Union that the chances for promotion in the clerical grade are extremely meagre. But that is so in commercial, engineering and other concerns. The criterion is whether an adequate salary is provided for each grade. The Company, however, should consider that in suitable cases promotion in one grade should, as far as possible, be made from the grade below. Such promotion can be automatic as is wanted. It must depend more on efficiency than seniority. Unless the Company is satisfied that such promotion will be efficient, it should not go in for increased expenditure on such promotion. It is criticised by the Union that the time scale is rather short. That is so. It is, of course, not desirable that a man should reach the top of his grade in a very short time and then have to wait for the rest of his service period at a fixed pay. But the time scale can never be long unless the job is such that efficiency increases the passing of time. If some work has got to be done in the same manner for all time to come, then it is difficult to fix a long time scale. It is said that the employees of the Company are not made to feel that they are responsible hands. The Company cannot inspire the employees' sense of responsibility merely by increasing their salary. It depends on the nature of the employees more than it rests on extraneous factors. It is contended by the Union that the employees of the Company are forced to borrow money from the Credit Society or from the Provident Fund. It is urged as a plea in support of the fact that the pay given by the Company is low. Of course, the pay given can never keep a man far above want, considering the present state of the society. One must, however, cut his coat according to his cloth. So the clerks must keep within the limits of their pay and try to control their own demands that present themselves in the present society. The criterion of adequacy of wage will rest not so much upon such outside factors as upon the prevailing rate of wages in similar concerns, and upon the capacity of the Company to pay. The Unions have raised lots of other matters during the argument to which I shall only casually refer under this issue.

The Mazdoor Union has referred to the U. P. Labour Enquiry Committee's report on grouping. But I do not think that such grouping can have any precedence or preponderance over the different awards in the State. The living conditions in U. P. are not the same as those obtain in West Bengal. The report was published in 1948. The P. Commission's report came in close sequence. The Fair Wage Committee report was published in the year 1949. The two later reports were considered in details by the All India Industrial Tribunal (Labour Disputes). In spite of that the wage scales I have already referred to were given by the said Tribunal. So those reports do not very much help us in the present matter towards increasing the wage levels. The Union has also referred to Adarkar's and Sahani's reports and reports in the Labour Enquiry Commission of Jamshedpur. None of them do refer to the workers of purely electrical undertakings. So their grouping and the wage scales do not have much bearing on the present matter. In the Labour Enquiry Commission's Report, Jamshedpur, Rs. 66 was the minimum wage when the living index was 125 point below what it is today. Rs. 84 is required for bare subsistence. It is contended that the bare minimum should be Rs. 94. The Company is giving Rs. 100. That is true. But it does not go far enough because their conditions of labour are altogether different. It is contended that the report of the Labour Enquiry Commission on the middle class employees (Central Government 1939) revealed monthly average income as Rs. 299-14 and monthly expenses as Rs. 479-8. If by this the Union wants to have a scale which will meet such an expenditure, then there is hardly any Company, except alone the present Company, which will survive for long. So to meet the claim with reference to such a report would be little less than tantamount to bankruptcy. It is contended by the Union with reference to Health Bulletin 23 of the Government of India, and the chart prepared from the figures of the Labour Enquiry Commission that Rs. 40 and odd would be required for one adult consumption unit. So, for a family of 3.6 consumption units, the minimum salary would be Rs. 172. I need not give any reason why I cannot accept the wage scale based on this standard. It is contended by the Union that the present scale is the lowest level group in each category of workmen is much more than in the highest level. That is so in every concern. So no relief can be given on this score.

Having regard to all these facts and circumstances, I am of the opinion that the wage scale obtaining in this Company, taken into ness allowance which is perfectly liberal, is such as does not call for revision at the present moment. Besides, it is a public utility concern where there is statutory limitation upon profits. If the expenditure is increased, it will have a great repercussion on the consumer who is not represented before the Tribunal. Profiteering concerns adjust any increase of expenditure by increasing the prices or by bringing down the profits. But here the whole thing is rather compact and static. So the increase of expenditure even on the score of increase of wages must be granted very cautiously. While awarding bonus, the Tribunal did not concern itself so much as in the matter of increase of wages. I have already cast a burden on the Company by granting additional bonus of one month which, according to the Company's written statement, is ₹45,000, i.e., a little over 6 lacs of rupees. So the Company has been saddled to pay bonus for the year 1953 to the extent of 6 lacs of rupees. I do not think, I can add to this burden and thereby upset the balance of the Company by increasing the wages except to a very small extent, as I have pointed out here and there. So I leave this issue judicially without any direction.

Issue No. 1.—Bonus for the year 1953.

The Workers' Union has claimed 3 months' pay as bonus, while the Labour Union has claimed 3 months' basic pay as well as dearness allowance bonus. The Employees' Association is rather moderate in its demand. It has claimed bonus at 3 months' basic pay only. As the Company had given 1 month's basic pay as bonus for 1953 already, it refused to pay any more bonus for the said year.

The question of bonus seems to have been the bone of contention between the workmen and the Company for the last few years. The workmen were awarded two months' salary as bonus for the year 1949 in Appeal No. 146 of 1949. For the year 1950 this Tribunal granted two months' salary as bonus by its award published in the Calcutta Gazette, dated May 14, 1953, page 10. The Company has entered into an agreement with the workmen to grant additional bonus of one month's salary over and above the one month's salary already given for 1951 and 1952 (vide the agreement Ext P). But the award has been deferred for the years 1954 and 1955. This is also stated in the Chairman's review occurring in the printed balance-sheet for the year ending 31st December 1953, viz., "That award, although made in respect of the year 1950, involved us also in payments for the years 1951 and 1952, and as a result, we have had in 1953 to charge over ₹10 to meet the cost of additional bonuses". The present claim is for the year 1953. So the Company will have to make out a case why they having paid two months' salary as bonus systematically for the years 1949 and 1950 by their award of 1949 and 1951 and 1952 suo motu, and now withholds two months' salary as bonus for the year 1953. This will lead me to consider the evidence on the question which I propose to do below.

Now if I do that, I must point out that previously it was the systematic practice of the Electricity companies in general that being governed by the Electricity (Supply) Act, 1948 (LIV of 1948), it could not be saddled with the liability to pay bonus. Whatever it was granting in the shape of bonus was treated as an ex-gratia payment. The argument that was advanced in electricity concerns, being governed by the aforesaid Act, are public utility concerns, and there are statutory schedules of the expenditures incurred by such concerns. So, unless bonus can be injected into one of the clauses of the schedule, and the table appended to the schedule 7, it cannot be allowed. Of course, the said schedules give the exhaustive list of expenditure that is allowable under the Act. But there is a proviso to para. 1 of the schedule I which is that the licensee shall not be considered to have failed to adjust his rates if the "clear profits" of any year had not exceeded the amount of "reasonable return" by more than 30 per cent. of the amount of the "reasonable return". Thus no breach of the relevant provisions of this Act is committed by a licensee if, after providing for reasonable return to be computed in terms of clause X of para. XVII, a balance is left in "clear profit" of any year of account to the extent permitted by the proviso (vide Full Bench decision of the Labour Appellate Tribunal of India reported in L. L. J. 1954 at page 170). So, though it has been held that bonus cannot be injected into the expenditure mentioned in the schedule yet it can be given out of the clear profits barring, of course, that part which is scheduled for dividend and Tariff Control reserve and the consumption benefit account. Thus this theory seems to be an exploded theory that bonus is not allowable under the Electricity (Supply) Act, 1948.

Coming next to the quantum of bonus in the present case, I have already pointed out that the Union has claimed 3 months' salary while the Company has paid one month's salary and refused to pay more. I have already said that the workmen had got two months' salary as bonus as a result of the Appellate Tribunal's award and of my award already referred to. I was no appeal against my aforesaid award. What is more, the Company has practically submitted to the position by conceding two months' salary bonus for the subsequent years of 1951 and 1952. So unless it can be shown by the Company that there has been a deterioration in its profits, it cannot escape from the liability to pay two months' salary as bonus. For the quote below the net revenue from the Company's balance sheet in Ext. N—

Year.	Net Revenue less depreciation
1950	£1,235,833
1951	£1,359,679
1952	£1,233,916
1953	£1,210,738

Thus it will appear from the above chart that the net revenue minus depreciation has not remarkably gone down in 1953 as compared to previous years. So it does not lie with the Company to say that they will pay a less quantum of bonus than what they paid in the previous years. I quote from the Chairman's review in the printed balance-sheet of 1953: "There was an increase in our receipts of £222,000 over that of the previous year which was derived mainly from increased sales of current for domestic and industrial purposes. Normal expenditure rose by £128,912 or 11 per cent, from £3,539,668,587, which was largely due to the increase in our coal bill which naturally followed the greater output". Thus it is clear that the Company's position regarding profits was not much worse in 1953 than in the previous years.

Next regarding the claim of the workmen that 3 months' salary should be given as bonus, I should say that the position is equally unsatisfactory. Firstly, profits have gone down compared to previous years. So the grant of increased bonus in 1953 cannot arise. Besides, after their own bargain with the Company that they had been satisfied with two months' bonus in 1951 and 1952, where is the reason that they should get more in 1953 when the profits are a little less? Bonus is the correlative of profits, no bonus" is the established position. So to claim more bonus in the face of less profits, as the workmen have claimed here, can hardly be maintained. So I think two months' salary as bonus in the present case should meet the demand of justice.

The Company has pleaded that it is not in a position to pay more than one month's pay as bonus for the year 1953. So I have to examine the financial position concerning that year. I have already stated that in the Appeal of 1951 their Lordships of the Labour Appellate Tribunal granted two months' salary as bonus in respect of 1949 in the case of this concern. "Carry over" at the end of 1950 was £158,764 (vide my award published in the Calcutta Gazette, dated the 14th May 1953, page 1571, at the bottom). "Carry over" at the end of 1949 was £158,506. The "carry over" at the end of 1953 was £157,731. So there is hardly any material difference in the amount of "carry over". So if the "carry over" is a factor to be taken into account, as was done by their Lordships of the Labour Appellate Tribunal, I cannot say that the year 1953 could avoid payment of two months' salary as bonus. In my said award I made this payment of bonus out of one-third of the clear profit over the reasonable return limited by 7½ per cent of the reasonable return that was available to the undertaking. The fact that Government had made a special appropriation in respect of bonus was ruled out for reasons stated in the said award. That being the position, here also an extra bonus for 1953 can be similarly paid. That can be paid out of the clear profits is an accepted position in view of awards regarding electrical concerns. But their Lordships have further held in the Full Bench decision in the Appeal, Bombay No. 629 of 1952, decided in L. L. J., August, 1954 at page 169, in the case of the Workers West Coast Electric Supply Corporation, Ltd., and the West Coast Electric Supply Corporation, Ltd. and workers not represented by the Union. In the case of the "workers" included also the workers not represented by the Union. In their decision Their Lordships have stated that bonus can be paid out of the amount representing "reasonable return". Their Lordships have remarked "It is wrong to assume that in every case the amount representing the 'reasonable return' would be exhausted by payment of a reasonable return to the shareholders, for 'reasonable return' is defined under the Act not on the share capital but on the capital base and the other items. There is this possibility of having funds which without the provisions of the Act can be distributed as bonus....". Thus the reasonable return furnishes an additional source from which bonus can be paid for any year. So it does not lie with the Company to say that it has run out funds from which it can pay additional one month's bonus for the year 1953. In the present case I do not propose to apply the Full Bench formula for bonus as in the case of Mill Owners' Association versus Mill Mazdoor Sangh case (Appeals 1 and 5 of 1950), reported in 1950, Volume II, page 1247. The position is clear enough from the evidence. The parties also have not called upon the Tribunal to do so by producing sufficient data for the purpose. In this connection I can refer to their Lordships' observation in respect of this very Company in Appeal, No. 146 of 1951, dated the 30th November 1951, and also to 1952 L. A. Appeal No. 280. The formula in question, according to Their Lordships, should be adopted to its fullest extent in such cases, for there are statutory provisions on profit-making capacity of an electrical concern.

Now I leave this issue, let me refer to one or two points which have arisen during the trial by the parties in this connection. The Company has put the Trading Account of 1953 exhibits rather a hectic flash because of income Tax remission to the extent of £58,000. In its written statement the Company states "The Company's apparent so-called 'prosperity' is for one fact and one fact only and that is the 'temporary' non-payment income tax, a phenomenon resulting from Tax Depreciation Allowance attracted by the installation of post-war Capital plant.... The amount tax involved each year is a loan, and not a gift; it must be repaid and repayment cannot for much longer be delayed." I do not accept this argument of the Company. This exemption of income tax is not of the nature of a loan. The amount which the Company provided for income tax might have been allowed by the Government to be now invested in the machinery expenditure, and made repayable, but that is quite another matter. If practical becomes capital expenditure and the money so invested in machinery cannot be recouped and could come back in the Company's head. So the amount cannot be said to be a loan in any sense. When this income tax exemption will cease, the Company will be liable to pay income tax on the income then derived, and not for the past years. So the Company's argument on this head that the Trading Account of 1953 is misleading cannot be accepted. Similarly I do not accept the argument of the workmen that the Company should not have provided for bonuses of 1951 and 1952 in the account of 1953. When the agreement was entered, the amount becomes a liability and requires to be provided for. So I cannot find fault with the Company for having provided for the said bonuses, though payable in 1954 and 1955, in the Trading Account of 1953. The Union tried to argue that the cost of converting from D.C. to A.C. was an expense of capital nature, and should not have been charged to revenue account. By this the Union wants to augment its marginal net profit. But the Company has answered that such costs are costs of changing the consumers' equipments. The assets concerned are of the Company, but of the consumers. So the Company rightly said that cannot be called a capital charge. The Union also made suggestions as to how to economise the expenditure and coal bill by using pulverised coal by doing away with Hollerith machines. Here I must point out that the Union practically makes an encroachment on functions which do not pertain to the management. I think such arguments can be brushed aside with little ceremony. I do not consider it. Having regard to the above award that the Company must pay one month's salary more as bonus for one month which has been already given in respect of the year 1953. I get on evidence in the written statement of the Company that for the year 1953 the Company has given one month's basic pay as bonus which amounted to £45,000, i.e., a little over 6 lakhs of rupees. I have awarded an equivalent sum as additional bonus for 1953. I get that the Company has entered an agreement with the workmen that one month's additional bonus would be given for 1951 and 1952. This will be payable in 1954 and 1955. So the position comes to this that the Company will have to pay two months' bonus as bonus in 1954, and two months' in 1955. Now, if they have to pay one month's bonus in 1955 in respect of 1953, it will mean that they will have to pay three months' bonus out of the revenue of 1955. This would amount to nearly 18 lakhs of rupees. This, I am afraid, might result in upsetting the equilibrium of the Company's finances. In that view of the matter, I award that the additional one month's bonus for 1953 which I have awarded in the present case, will be payable before the end of the first quarter of 1956. In this the Company will be able to adjust it and tide over the impact of the expenditure upon its finances. So the amount would be payable before March 1956. This will be on the scale of salary drawn in 1953 excluding dearness allowance and other allowances.

APPENDIX.THE CALCUTTA ELECTRIC SUPPLY CORPORATION, LIMITED.*ORDER.*Overtime pay for non-factory workers.

The following increased rate of overtime pay will apply with effect from 1st September 1954, to all non-factory workers except Meter Inspectors and clerical staff of Head Office at Victoria House and of the Mains Department, regarding whom a separate order will be issued.

Each hour worked in excess of 48 hours per week will be paid at the rate of one pie per rupee of monthly basic pay plus dearness allowance.

Durwans, Liftmen and Emergency Depot Workmen, when given a day off during the week in lieu of Sunday, will be required to work on Sunday for their normal hours at ordinary rates, but all overtime and all hours worked on public holidays other than Sundays will be paid at the above rate. In the case of other non-factory workers whose normal working hours are less than 48 hours per week this rate will apply to overtime in excess of 48 hours per week and all hours worked on public holidays including Sundays, but overtime hours up to 48 hours per week will be paid at $1\frac{1}{2}$ times basic pay for work on week days and double basic pay for work after 2 p.m. on Saturdays as at present. In the case of non-factory workers whose normal working hours are 46 hours per week, this rate will apply to all overtime over 46 hours per week including hours worked on Sundays or other public holidays and after 2 p.m. on Saturdays.

This new overtime rate provides a substantial increase in overtime pay, which is unaffected by the number of days in the month.

It should be noted that walking allowance is still calculated in accordance with the award of the learned Tribunal on basic pay only.

Acting Agent.

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the provisions of section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Governor is pleased hereby to publish the said award as shown in the annexure hereto.

ANNEXURE.

Industrial dispute between Messrs. James Alexander & Co., Ltd., 15, Watgunge Street, Kidderpore, Calcutta and their workmen represented by James Alexander Labour Union, 130, Circular Garden Reach Road, Kidderpore, Calcutta, referred under Government order No. 4034Dis./D/11L-44/54, dated the 19th August 1954.

BEFORE THE FOURTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL.

PRESENT :

SHRI S. C. MUKHERJI, District Judge,
Judge, Fourth Industrial Tribunal.

For the Union—Shri P. K. Sen.

For the Company—Shri W. S. Rastogi.

By Government order No. 4034Dis./D/11L-44/54, dated 19th August 1954, the aforesaid dispute was referred to this Tribunal for adjudication. The issue framed by the Government was the same as the issue framed by this Tribunal and it was as follows:—

- (1) Whether the action of the Management in terminating the services of the three Tin Smiths, viz., Bankim Mondal, Panchu Biswas and Niranjan Dutta is justified? What relief are they entitled to?

Notice of the aforesaid dispute having been served on the parties, the Union filed its written statement on 13th September 1954, and the Company filed its written statement on 28th September 1954.

The case for the Union is that in course of conciliation proceedings a compromise was arrived at on 12th February 1954, between the Company and the Union by which the Company agreed to take back to employment the workmen who had been previously laid off by them, that as the workers had already gone to their native villages on account of prolonged voluntary unemployment, they came to the factory on 6th March 1954, as was as they heard of the matter of the above settlement with the Company, at the three workers being active members of the Union, they were not in the good book of the Company and when they offered themselves for service, Company illegally refused to take them in, that the action of the Company is unjustified and illegal and they are bound to give employment to the workers on their grade when they offer themselves for their employment.

Company, on the other hand, contended that when conciliation meetings were held, the Company had been impressed upon the Conciliation Officer and the Union representatives that the workers must offer themselves for service within 7 days from the date of agreement, that these 3 workers absented themselves without notice and failed to resume work in spite of several notices by the Company and hence they were duly discharged, that the Company has acted bona fide and the order cannot be set aside.

AWARD.

At the time of trial, however, the parties came to terms and filed a joint petition of compromise, the terms of which are legal and acceptable and therefore, accept the compromise and make my award in terms thereof. The petition of compromise will form a part of this award.

S. C. MUKHERJI.

Judge, Fourth Industrial Tribunal.

MOST RESPECTFULLY SHEWETH—

That both the Company and the Union have settled all the disputes amicably on the following terms:—

- (1) In order to establish cordial relations with the employees the Company agrees to recognise James Alexander Labour Union as Workmen's Sole Representative. The Union agrees to amend its constitution in such a way that members would go on strike as the last resort after proper ballots have been taken and a consensus of opinion is in favour of such a strike.
- (2) The Union heartily reciprocates this gesture of good will and assures and undertakes to maintain discipline in the factory to improve the production to their utmost. The Union will put moral pressure and take such other effective action against those members, who are found guilty of indisciplinary activities, slowing down production or inciting or instigating the staff, not sanctioned by the Union.

- (3) The suspension order on Bharat Hait and Sardar Keori is withdrawn. Their period of suspension will be treated as leave without pay. Kalicharan Das and Jotin Kantal resign their posts and will be eligible for retirement benefit as laid down in the omnibus Engineering Award. They will be given certificate of service.
- (4) Bankim Mondal, Panchu Biswas and Niranjan Datta will be retired from service from the date of their non-employment and would be eligible for retrenchment benefit as laid down in the Industrial Disputes Act. They will be given first preference when vacancies for tinsmith arise. They will also be given certificate of service.

BEFORE THE FOURTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL.

PRESENT :

SHRI S. C. MUKHERJI, District Judge,
Judge, Fourth Industrial Tribunal.

For the Union—Shri P. K. Sen.

For the Company—Shri S. K. Mitter.

While the aforesaid dispute was pending between the parties eight applications under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act were filed by the workmen on the ground that the Company has illegally violated the service condition of the workers and they are entitled to have their original benefits restored.

It is needless to state in details the facts of each case as stated in the applications and also as stated in reply filed by the Company in each case after receipt of the notice of the aforesaid applications.

AWARD.

At the time of trial the parties came to terms with regard to the subject-matter of dispute of each one of these applications. The terms of the compromise which are recorded are legal and acceptable by the Court. I, therefore, accept the terms and make my award in terms of the petition of compromise, which will form a part of this award. This award will govern the eight cases.

S. C. MUKHERJI,

Judge, Fourth Industrial Tribunal.

In the matter of Government of West Bengal, Labour Department order No.
4034 Dis./D/11L—168/54, dated Calcutta, the 18th August 1954.

Joint petition of compromise by the abovenamed Company and the Union most respectfully sheweth—

That both the Company and the Union have settled all the disputes amicably on the following terms:—

- (1) In order to establish cordial relations with the employees the Company agrees to recognise James Alexander Labour Union as Workmen's Sole Representative. The Union agrees to amend its constitution in such a way that members would go on strike as the last resort after proper ballots have been taken and the consensus of opinion is in favour of such a strike.
- (2) The Union heartily reciprocates this gesture of good will and assures and undertakes to maintain discipline in the factory and to improve the production to their utmost. The Union would put moral pressure and take such other effective action against those members, who are found guilty of disciplinary activities slowing down production or inciting or instigating the strikes not sanctioned by the Union.
- (3) The suspension order on Bharat Hait and Sardar Keori is withdrawn. Their period of suspension will be treated as leave without pay. Kalicharan Das and Jotin Kantal resign their posts and will be eligible for retirement benefit as laid down in the omnibus Engineering Award. They will be given certificate of service.
- (4) Bankim Mondal, Panchu Biswas and Niranjan Datta will be retired from service from the date of their non-employment and would be eligible for retrenchment benefit as laid down in the Industrial Disputes Act. They will be given first preference when vacancies for tinsmith arise. They will also be given certificate of service.
- (5) Poolin Purkait along with the following workmen, who are being superannuated on medical grounds, would be eligible for retirement benefit as laid down in the Omnibus Engineering Tribunal Award:—

ANNEXURE.

In the matter of an industrial dispute existing between Messrs. Calcutta Silk Manufacturing Co., Ltd., 23, Barrackpore Trunk Road, post office Sukchar, 24-Parganas (Head Office, 37, Vivekananda Road, Calcutta) and their workmen represented by Shri Jadunath Das, Shri Mohanlal Shah, Shri Chotey Lal Shaw, Shri Atma Ram Shaw and Shri Cow Chandra Bairagi, all of Raja Road, post office Sukchar, 24-Parganas.

BEFORE THE FIFTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL, CALCUTTA.

PRESENT :

SHRI G. PALIT, District Judge, Chairman, Fifth Industrial Tribunal.
Present for the workmen: Shri D. L. Sen Gupta, Advocate.
Present for the Company: Shri Sailes Sen, Advocate.

1. By Government order No. 2692Dis./D/81-25/54, dated the 25th May 1954 the aforesaid dispute has been referred to the Fifth Industrial Tribunal, presided over by me, for adjudication under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947). The said Tribunal has been constituted under section 7 of the Act by the notification No. 3581Lab dated the 9th June 1954.

2. The reference was received here on 31st May 1954. It was adjourned to 10th November 1954 because of the absence of the presiding Judge on illness. The written statement was filed by the workmen on 26th November 1954. The Company filed written objection on 27th December 1954. The case was then taken up for hearing on 2nd May 1955, and the argument was concluded on that day. The award was reserved.

3. The issue contained in the schedule to the order of reference stands as follows:—

ISSUE.

- (1) Whether such of the workmen of Messrs. Calcutta Silk Manufacturing Co., Ltd., 23, Barrackpore Trunk Road, Sukchar, 24-Parganas, as had worked in the Company till the lockout in September, 1949, and, on re-appointment in 1950 or thereafter had been working in the Company till its recent closure, are entitled to any gratuity or other compensation in terms of the award of Shri G. Palit, as published in the Calcutta Gazette of the 20th April 1950 under order No. 1757Lab., dated the 14th April 1950, of the Government of West Bengal, for their service in the Company prior to 1950, and if so, at what rate

AWARD.

4. There was a previous dispute relating to this Company referred to this very Tribunal on 10th April 1950. The award in that case was published in the Calcutta Gazette of the 20th April 1950. Under that award workers were given wages not for the entire period of the lockout in question but for a moiety only of the said period covering the month of September 1949. They were also given one month's wages as compensation. It was further found that the workmen should be treated as on duty up to the end of September 1949. This period was taken as conducive to the benefit of their leave, provident fund, gratuity and other conditions of service. It was held by the Tribunal in that case that the people who were discharged the Company should be given their full dues including arrears of wages, compensation, provident fund, gratuity, etc. But those people who were taken back after the factory had re-opened, might choose to have their disbursement any time later on in place of immediate payment. The choice in this respect was left to the employees concerned and not to the employer.

In the present case the workmen are claiming gratuity for their past service prior to the re-employment in June 1950. The Company resists the claim. The Company has given retrenchment relief under the Industrial Disputes (Amendment) Act, 1953. They have closed the factory on the 1 April 1954. The workmen have based their claim under the previous award of this Tribunal. The issue No. 4 of the past reference is relevant in this connection. That was not an issue concerning gratuity, leave, etc. directly. All that was mooted in that issue No. 4 of the previous reference was whether the period of the lockout should be considered as continuation of work, and whether it should be conducive to the benefit of leave, provident fund, gratuity, etc. Under that award the workmen were found to be on lay-off up to the end of September 1949. So evidently there was a gap when these workmen were taken back in service in June 1950. Then, how can the workmen claim gratuity for their past service prior to June 1950? They cannot claim it under the Industrial Disputes (Amendment) Act, 1953, because the Act was not operative at that time. Neither can they claim it under the award of the previous Tribunal. In that award where the Tribunal called upon the Company to pay all arrears of wages, gratuity, etc., what the Tribunal meant was that the workmen should be paid their full dues which were outstanding at the time. It did not make any award about gratuity. It could not do so as the issue would not warrant such a thing. Even if the award is taken literally, the direction given by the Tribunal should be taken as a mere recommendation, and nothing more than that. It could not certainly be obligatory on the part of the Company to pay gratuity where gratuity was not payable. So the claim of the workmen about gratuity for past services prior to June 1950 based on misconception of the previous award, cannot be sustained. If there was no gap in the service in 1950, or if the service was continuous right up to the date of the closure of the factory, the claim for gratuity as a retrenchment relief under the Amended Act of 1953 could be maintained. But as it is, the Company can very well resist the claim for such length of service as per Annexure A of the Union's written statement. So the workmen in the present case are not entitled to any gratuity under the previous award. They are entitled only to retrenchment relief under the Industrial Disputes (Amendment) Act, 1953. The Company says that such payment has already been made. That is not disputed in the present case. Besides, that is not covered by the present issue. So I make no award in that connection.

Regarding compensation, under the previous award as I have already pointed out, the workmen were entitled to wages and dearness allowance for one month of September 1949. But that was resisted by the Company in the previous case because of the illegal strike. That was overruled by the Tribunal. The Tribunal awarded wages and dearness allowance for the month of September 1949 and also one month's wage as compensation. As per Annexure A of the workmen's written statement I find that only one month's pay with dearness allowance is admitted to have been received by the workmen. This seems to cover the wages for the month of September 1949. So, apparently, no compensation was paid as awarded by the Tribunal previously in lieu of proper notice. That must be paid unless the same has been paid already. The Company says that there had been a settlement between the parties under which the payment was made. But no record of settlement is forthcoming. So I can never take that the workmen concerned had waived the claim of compensation payable under the previous award of one month's wage. So in the present award I allow compensation of one month's wage as being due under the previous award, unless it has been paid already.

It is contended by the learned Advocate of the Company that the matter about compensation payable under the previous award would be out of place because it cannot constitute, strictly speaking, an industrial dispute. If it means anything, it merely means the non-implementation of the previous award. And non-implementation of an award is not equivalent to an industrial dispute. I, of course, concede, that mere non-implementation of an award by itself cannot constitute an industrial dispute. For the Act has provided separate remedies either by Certificate procedure or by criminal prosecution. But where the point of contention is that certain particular benefit was not payable under certain award, the determination of such a matter would give rise to an industrial dispute. That is exactly what has happened here. The question whether the workmen can claim the compensation given under the previous award after re-appointment, brings the matter within the purview of an industrial dispute. Under the previous award the choice was given to the workmen to claim the benefit any time later on in the event of their re-appointment. The choice was directly reserved for the workmen. So there is no question of limitation or running of time against the workmen, because there is a reservation clause embodied in the award in this respect. Time may run only when such a claim is made and is refused. That is nobody's case here. So the workmen are perfectly entitled to claim compensation already given under the previous award equivalent to one month's wage over and above what has been given as retrenchment relief under the Industrial Disputes (Amendment) Act 1947. I award accordingly. This should be paid within one month of the award coming into operation to the workmen under the Annexure A of the workmen's written statement which forms part of the record of the case.

Dictated and corrected by me.

Messrs. Himalayan Aviation, Ltd., and Indian Air Line Corporation:
e.

And under sections 7 and 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (1947), the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, by order No 3338Dis./D/4L-9/54, dated Calcutta, the 15th July 1954, referred the abovementioned industrial dispute to Shri M. L. Chakravarti District Judge, for adjudication. As the services of Shri Motilal Chakravarti are not available, he being no longer in the employ of the State Government, the abovementioned matter has been referred to the Tribunal in supersession of the previous order referred to above, and Government order No. 2042Dis./D/4L-13/55, dated Calcutta, the 11 May 1955, for adjudication.

The issues contained in the schedule to the Order of Reference stand follows:—

SCHEDULE.

- (1) Whether discharge of (i) Shri K. P. Chatterji, (ii) Shri S. Das, (iii) Shri G. C. Sen Gupta, (iv) Shri B. C. Basu Malli (v) Shri T. Sanjeevi and (vi) Shri P. K. Chatterjee, justified?

Are they entitled to reinstatement and/or compensation?

AWARD.

Issue No. 1.

Six workmen serving under Messrs. Himalayan Aviation having been discharged, a dispute arose between the Aviation Company and the workers which was referred to the Sixth Industrial Tribunal for adjudication. Besides Messrs. Himalayan Aviation, Limited, the Indian Lines Corporation was made a party to the dispute.

A preliminary objection was taken by the Air Lines Corporation that no relief could be claimed against it by virtue of the provisions of the Act by which it was created. Shri Motilal Chakravarti, took up the preliminary point and came to the finding:—

“that the Tribunal cannot proceed against Air Lines Corporation”. He observed, however, that the discharged workmen can proceed against Messrs. Himalayan Aviation, Ltd., alone. (On this finding an award was passed by him.

On the matter coming up before me and after hearing the representatives of the discharged workmen, I have come to the conclusion that the reference has become infructuous for the reasons stated below:—

The workers in their statements have admitted that the Indian Lines Corporation had taken over the undertakings of Messrs. Himalayan Aviation, Ltd. The statement submitted by the Indian Air Lines Corporation makes it clear that with effect from 1st August 1953, the undertakings of all existing companies including the Himalayan Aviation, Ltd., were transferred and became vested in the said Corporation. In accordance with the provisions of section 22 all assets, rights, authorities, privileges and all property, including lands, buildings, workshops—all other rights and interests relating to the companies including the borrowings, liabilities and obligations of the companies in relation to their undertakings were vested in Corporation. The effect of such vesting is that Messrs. Himalayan Aviation became virtually non est. It had merged in the Corporation. Sub-section 4 of section 17 provides that “subject to the other provisions of the Act, any proceeding or cause of action pending or existing immediately before the appointed date by or against any of the existing companies in relation to its undertaking may as from that date be continued and enforced by or against the Corporation in which it has vested by virtue of this Act as it might have been enforced by or against that Company, if this Act had not been passed, and shall cease to be enforceable by or against that Company; its surety or guarantor.

On a plain reading of this section, it is manifest that Messrs. Himalayan Aviation, Ltd., has gone completely out of the picture. The rights of workers, if any, might be enforced against the Corporation but the Tribunal has already held that in the circumstances of this case, no liability can be foisted upon the Corporation. The ground is practically away from under the feet of the workers who had sought redress of grievances before the Tribunal. The result is no doubt deplorable as the law stands it does not appear feasible that any relief can be granted even if the workers succeeded in establishing that they are victims of unfair labour practice. Messrs. Himalayan Aviation, Ltd., having no independent existence, no order for reinstatement or compensation can usefully be made. There would be no way of enforcing an order even if the Tribunal arrived at findings in favour of the workmen. The workmen are not entitled to any relief.

as award accordingly.

Differences centering round the questions of dearness allowance, leave, annual increment, provident fund, and bonus having arisen between Messrs. General Engineering Corporation and their workmen as represented by General Engineering Corporation Workers' Union which did not be composed by friendly treaty and negotiation, reference was made to this Tribunal by the local Government under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act. Rather late, but not too late, on the date of coming of the case, the parties had the good sense to realise that the best and wisest course was to meet each other half-way for achievement of peaceful settlement. Terms have since been agreed upon which have been submitted to the Tribunal for ratification. As the terms are fair, reasonable and legal, they should be accepted. I make award in terms of the said compromise petition which shall form part thereof as Annexure A.

Police

NOTIFICATION.

No. 2588Pl./P.8C-8/55.—15th June 1955.—In exercise of the power conferred by section 7 of the Police Act, 1861 (V of 1861), read with section 46 of the said Act and in supersession of notification No. 9469Pl., dated the 27th December 1943, in so far as it relates to regulation 861, Police Regulations, Bengal, the Governor is pleased to make the following rule, namely:—

Rule.

Regulation 861 in the Police Regulations, Bengal, 1943, referred to in the said notification, shall be substituted by the following regulation, namely:—

861.

(a) No major punishment shall be awarded to any police officer of the subordinate ranks except in proceedings in the prescribed form (B.P. Form No. 164).

Note.—The provisions of this rule do not apply to proceedings based on a judicial conviction or on the finding of a commission.

(b) The grounds on which it is proposed to take action shall be reduced to the form of a definite charge or charges which shall be communicated in writing to the person charged within a reasonable time together with a statement of the allegations on which each charge is based and of any other circumstances which it is proposed to take into consideration in passing orders on the case.

(c) The person charged shall be required to put in within a reasonable time a written statement of his defence and to state whether he desires to be heard in person. If he states that he does not desire to put in a written statement or to be heard in person, this fact shall be recorded in the proceedings. Where the person charged from whom a written statement is so required fails to present the same within the time fixed by the enquiring officer, the enquiring officer may record a finding against him or make such orders in relation to the proceedings as he thinks fit.

(d) An oral enquiry shall then be held if the person charged so requires or if the authority who has drawn up the proceedings so directs. At that enquiry oral evidence shall be heard as to such of the allegations as are not admitted and the person charged shall be entitled to cross-examine the witnesses and to have such witnesses called as he may require.

Provided that the officer conducting the enquiry may, for special and sufficient reasons to be recorded in writing, refuse to call any such witness. The person charged shall also be allowed to take copies of all evidence, both oral and documentary, contained in the proceedings.

(e) After the evidence of the witnesses and the further statement, if any, in defence of the person charged have been placed on record, the officer conducting the enquiry shall in writing—

- (i) discuss separately each charge,
- (ii) arrive at a finding on each charge, and
- (iii) after taking into consideration the previous character of the person charged, make an order or recommend an order to the authority empowered to pass an order. When the enquiring officer belongs to a department other than the police the proceedings shall always be forwarded to the parent district/unit for final orders.

Note.—In case in which the enquiring officer does not pass the final order and recommends an order to the authority empowered to pass an order, the person charged shall be furnished with a copy of the enquiring officer's finding and/or the recommendations of the forwarding authority, so that he may at the personal hearing be in a position to object to or refute anything therein stated which, in his opinion, is incorrect.

(f) The authority empowered to pass the orders of punishment shall grant a personal hearing to the person charged if prayed for and then pass the final orders. When the enquiring officer himself passes the final order, no personal hearing is necessary as the person charged is present throughout the enquiry.

After the enquiry has been completed and after the punishing authority has arrived at a provisional conclusion in regard to the penalty to be imposed, the accused officer shall, if the penalty proposed is dismissal, be proceedings in case of major punishments (see in 7, Act V of 1861).

enquiring officer and be called upon to show cause within a reasonable time not ordinarily exceeding one month against the particular penalty proposed to be inflicted except in the following cases:—

- (i) where a person is dismissed or removed or reduced in rank on the ground of conduct which has led to his conviction on a criminal charge;
- (ii) where an authority empowered to dismiss or remove a person or to reduce him in rank is satisfied that for some reason, to be recorded by that authority in writing, it is not reasonably practicable to give that person an opportunity of showing cause; or
- (iii) where the Governor is satisfied that in the interest of the security of the State it is not expedient to give to that person such an opportunity.

Explanation.—If any question arises whether it is reasonably practicable to give to any person any opportunity of showing cause against the action proposed to be taken in regard to him, the decision thereon of the authority empowered to dismiss or remove such person or to reduce him in rank, as the case may be, shall be final.

Note.—Where the provisional conclusion is different from the finding and the recommendation of the enquiring officer grounds for such conclusion shall be recorded.

(g) Clauses (c) to (e) shall not apply where the person concerned has absconded, or where for other reasons it is found impracticable to communicate with him.

All or any of the said clauses may, in exceptional circumstances, and for special and sufficient reasons to be recorded in writing, be waived by the officer conducting the enquiry where there is a difficulty in observing them and where such clauses can be waived without injustice to the person charged.

(h) If an order is made placing a police officer under suspension it shall be entered in the order sheet and shall state what rate of subsistence allowance may be drawn by him. An order releasing an officer from suspension shall state whether the period under suspension shall count towards service for leave and pension and shall also state what pay and allowances shall be drawn for the period during which he was under suspension (vide rule 72 of the West Bengal Service Rules, Part I).

(i) A copy of the order of punishment shall be entered in the district order book and a copy thereof furnished to the offender, his dated receipt being taken for the order and attached to the proceedings.

(j) Proceedings in each year shall be consecutively numbered and the number of the proceedings together with the offence and the punishment shall be recorded in the service book or roll of the offender.

(k) The person affected by such order shall, on his depositing the usual copying fees, be given a copy of the whole record or he may provide his own paper and a copyist for the purpose.

(l) An order of punishment passed on the advice or with the concurrence of a higher authority shall be treated as an order of that authority.

(m) An order of punishment passed in a proceeding shall not be modified or cancelled without the sanction of the appellate authority.

(n) No proceedings shall be drawn up against an officer of the rank of Inspector without the sanction of the Deputy Inspector-General except in cases of serious misconduct when a preliminary order of suspension has been passed. In such cases proceedings may be drawn up in anticipation of such sanction.

(o) Proceedings against Inspectors and in cases of serious misconduct against officers of and below the rank of Sub-Inspector, shall be drawn up by the Superintendent. In other cases proceedings may be drawn up on evidence recorded by an officer not below the rank of Inspector (excluding Armed Inspectors not so empowered) who shall then submit the record to the Superintendent for perusal, examination and issue of orders.

Note.—Selected Armed Inspectors may be empowered by the Superintendent of Police or by the Commandants of the Armed Police Battalions and the Industrial Area Reserve Force with the prior approval of the Deputy Inspector-General of the Range or the Deputy Inspector-General, Armed Forces, as the case may be, to draw up proceedings and record evidence.

(p) With the exception of routine entries in the order sheet and the recording of the delinquent's "previous character", proceedings shall be written up by the enquiring officer.

Note.—(i) The enquiring officer shall finish his enquiry with as little delay as possible. As far as possible day to day enquiry shall be held and the enquiry completed and the finding given within a reasonable period. In case of a delinquent being placed under suspension special effort shall be made to expedite completion of enquiry. If the enquiry is prolonged beyond a period of one month and a half from the date of receipt of the written statement of defence from the delinquent and of his reply stating whether he desires to be heard in person in case of officers under suspension and two months in other cases, a copy of the order sheet, shall be forwarded to the head of the District/Unit so as to enable him to see why the enquiry could not be completed within the scheduled time. If the Superintendent of Police or the head of the unit himself is conducting the enquiry, the copy of the order sheet shall be forwarded to the Deputy Inspector-General of Police.

(ii) The Head of the District/Unit shall pass final orders or make his recommendations to higher authorities within a fortnight of receipt of finding of the enquiring officer, if the punishment to be awarded is other than dismissal, removal or reduction in rank for which the procedure detailed earlier shall be followed.

(iii) When more persons than one are proceeded against on the same charge or charges as a result of joint delinquency at the same place and time it shall be proper for the enquiring officer to hold a joint enquiry in the same proceeding file but each delinquent shall have the right of examining and cross-examining witnesses, submitting written defence and to be heard in person separately."

By order of the Governor,
R. K. MITRA, Secy.

BEFORE THE FIFTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL.

PRESENT:

SHRI G. PALIT, District Judge, Chairman, Fifth Industrial Tribunal.

Appearance for the workmen : Shri Subodh Banerji, on behalf of the Bird & Co. Labour Union. Shri Jagannath Pandey, on behalf of the Bird & Co. Mazdoor Union. None appears on behalf of the Bird & Co. Mazdoor Congress on the date of the final trial.

Appearance for the Company : Shri S. C. Sen, Advocate of Messrs. Om Dignam & Co., Solicitors, and Shri M. S. Bala of the Company.

1. By Government order No. 3274Dis./D/11L-234/52, dated the 26th November 1952, the aforesaid dispute was referred to the First Industrial Tribunal, constituted under notification No. 3058Dis./D/12L-5/52, dated the 8th November 1952, for adjudication under sections 7 and 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947). Later on by a subsequent order, viz., the order No. 2331Dis./D/11L-13/53, dated the 29th June 1953, the aforesaid dispute was referred to the Fifth Industrial Tribunal presided over by me and constituted under notification No. 3581Lab. dated the 9th June 1951, for adjudication under section 10 of the Act read with section 21 of the General Clauses Act, 1897 (X of 1897).

2. The reference was received in the original Tribunal on 27th November 1952, where the written statements were filed by the Unions. The Company filed written objection on 12th February 1953. The issues were framed on 27th February 1953. The Mazdoor Union filed one compromise petition on 17th June 1953. Thereafter the case was transferred to this Fifth Industrial Tribunal on 11th July 1953. The different Unions could not agree among themselves to present one united front to the Company. The result was that they fell out among themselves as to which of the Unions was most competent to represent the workmen in the present case. Quite a lot of time was taken over this matter till ultimately the Tribunal found, on the admission of the Company, on 2nd March 1955, that Shri Subodh Banerji of the Labour Union could represent the Company's regular employees as well as Sirdars' men. So the Unions were called upon to give evidence inspite of the compromise petition filed by the Mazdoor Union which was on record. The actual trial took place on 2nd March 1955 and continued till 4th March 1955. It was taken up again on 27th April 1955 and continued on 28th April 1955 and 29th April 1955 when the hearing including the argument was concluded.

3. The issues framed by the Tribunal, this being an open reference, stand as follows:—

- (1)(a). Is there any relationship of master and servant between the Company and all the workmen employed at Kantapukur shed, Hyde Road, Tea Transit Shed, Tea Warehouse, and 3. King George's Dock Warehouse, as mentioned in the order of reference?
- (b) Are there any workmen employed in these places serving directly under the Sirdars working as contractors of the Company?
- (c) Is there any industrial dispute between the Company and the men working under the Sirdars?
- (2) Is there any dispute between the Company and the workmen employed directly under them, as stated by the Unions in their written statements, at the places mentioned in the order of reference?
- (3) Scales of pay and piece-rate system.
- (4) Dearness allowance.
- (5) House allowance.
- (6) Bonus.
- (7) Working hours.
- (8) Overtime.
- (9) Extra pay for weighing and over-piling.
- (10) Rules for confirmation.
- (11) Leave and holidays.
- (12) Medical aid.
- (13) Provident fund and gratuity.
- (14) Contract system and bhaga.
- (15) Reinstatement of retrenched workmen and/or compensation mentioned in Annexure A to the written statement of the Mazdoor Union.
- (16) Withdrawal of police case.
- (17) Pay for the strike period from 18th November 1952 to 28th November 1952.

AWARD.

4. Before I deal and discuss the issues specifically I would like to give a short history of the present Company and its relationship with the workmen in question.

Messrs. Bird & Co. serve as a labour contractor of Messrs. Balmer Lawrie & Co., Ltd., and Messrs. MacNeill & Barry, Ltd., who are exporters of tea and shipping masters. This Bird Company has its centres of labour contract work at different ghats of the Ganges in Calcutta, viz., Shulimar, Salkia, Bhadrashwar, Jagannath Ghat, Kulpi Ghat, Armenian Ghat, Chandpal Ghat, etc. The Mazdoor Union came into being as far back as in 1947, and had several collective bargainings with the Company in different years up to 1950. This Bird & Co., Ltd., had its work centres at Kantapukur Tea Shed, Hyde Road, Tea Transit Shed and Tea Warehouse and 3, K. G. D., Kidderpore. The Union was agitating for the redress of the grievances of the workmen. There was also a strike over the retrenchment of 38 workers. Then there was a conciliation which ultimately led up to the present dispute. The other two Unions also, were separately, agitating for the redress of the demands of the workmen. The Mazdoor Union ultimately had the recognition from the Company, and it filed a petition of compromise with the Company. The other two Unions, however, kept up agitating and contesting the present dispute.

The Company denied the demands generally and resisted the claims thereunder. It emphatically denied any relationship of master and servant of the Company with the Sirdars' men whose case has been espoused by the Unions. The Company contended that it had no dispute with the permanent workmen, and as such the present dispute is said to be the result of misconception. It has, however, categorically denied the demands specifically brought forward by the Unions.

Issue No. 1(a).

The Officer-in-charge of the Southern Section of the Company, Mr. T. B. Didier Serre, O.P.W. 2, has in his deposition clearly brought out which of the men who worked at those places in question. He says at page 1 of his deposition "At Kantapukur we employ Sirdars for doing work. Our men there are staff, permanent staff, agents, supervisors, overseers, etc. At the Tea Warehouse we have Sirdars' men. In addition to that we have our Muster Gangmen, and our permanent staff. At Hyde Road we have our Sirdars' men. In addition we have our permanent men as mentioned above. At T. T. Shed we have our Sirdars' men, and our permanent staff as referred to above. At K. G. Dock we have our Sirdars' men and our permanent staff as mentioned above. Altogether there are 7 Muster Gangs. At present we have 69 men including the tindals in the Muster Gang. We now employ about 10 Sirdars. Sirdars employ their own men, and I cannot give the number of men they so employ. We specify the work, and the Sirdars employ men..... Deliveries are done by Sirdars' men. All other forms of laying and stacking are done by Sirdars' men. Muster Gangmen are employed by us for doing Miscellaneous work. What is usually done by them is that when the chests damaged by water are opened these Muster Gangmen turn them round for the inspection of the brokers. Then these chests are closed by the coopers. After that our Muster Gangmen pick these chests up and put them in their parent stacks from where they were taken. Where the brokers declare the contents of the chests to be damaged, then the damaged tea is separated from the good tea and discarded, and then good tea would be packed in the same chest. These are things done by our Muster Gangmen..... They also do miscellaneous other jobs which we do not like to give to Sirdars' men''. This is not disputed. So it is clear that the workmen employed at those places are comprised partly of the Company's permanent staff, and partly of Sirdars' men. Regarding the Sirdars' men, the Company disowns any relationship of master and servant between them and the Company. Now this is the position which cannot be disputed. Sirdars' men to all intents and purposes are contractors' men. The Company gives contract to Sirdars for certain jobs, and makes payments accordingly. The Sirdars employ their workmen and execute the work. They draw payment from the Company, and in their turn make payment to the workmen they employ. In this state of things the relationship of master and servant cannot be foisted on the Company regarding those contractors' men. This is also the legal position accepted by the Tribunals under the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947. In Bombay the position is different because the local Act did provide for contractors' men. But here in West Bengal we do not have any such special provision. The Union tried to show that the Company did make provisions for rations of Sirdars' men when the rationing was in force. That by itself cannot give rise to any such relationship. It is in evidence that these workmen drew rations on the strength of their ration cards. They took rations to the Sirdars' house and divided the same among themselves. They also paid for such rations. Next, it is contended that the Company made provisions for some medical relief regarding those men. That was only an act of generosity on the part of the Company. But that does not create any obligatory relationship between the parties. The only point to be decided is whether the Company did employ these men. The Union tried to show that the Sirdars merely recruited labour for the Company. But that has not been proved by any tangible evidence. So on the evidence on record I find that the Company is justified in disowning the relationship of master and servant at those places vis-a-vis the contractors' men.

(b) There is no evidence that in those places workmen serving under the Sirdars worked also as contractors of the Company. The Sirdars employ Munshis, etc., to supervise the work, but these men have no relationship of master and servant with the Company. If the Company's officers looked after the execution of work at times, that is only in the fitness of things. That, however, falls short of establishing any such relationship as the Union would like to suggest. So I answer it in the negative.

(c) Having regard to the above, I can say unhesitatingly that there is no industrial dispute between the Company and the Sirdars' men as such.

Issue No. 2.

The Company denies that there was a dispute between it on the one hand, and the permanent workmen employed directly by it on the other. The Company stands self-contradicted. The very agreement which it has entered into with the Mazdoor Union shows that there was a dispute between the Company and the workmen. In that agreement it is stated that in the matter of an industrial dispute the parties have come to an amicable settlement. The settlement pre-supposes the existence of a dispute. Besides, the very terms of the settlement would show that there did exist a dispute regarding the terms and conditions of service of the employees serving under the Company. The Company next contends that even if it be assumed that there was a dispute, that must be taken as settled by the aforesaid compromise petition. That would have been so if the Mazdoor Union which is a party to the said compromise was the only Union representing the workmen on the scene. But as it will appear from the ordersheet of this case, the Labour Union contested this matter with the Company and gave evidence. The Company had to admit that this Labour Union not only did represent the Sirdars' men, but also permanent employees of the Company. Regarding Sirdars' men it may be said that they are out of the picture, so far as the present dispute is concerned. But regarding the other employees of the Company it cannot be said that they are equally out of the picture. In the order of reference the Labour Union finds mention as representing the workmen concerning the dispute. So the compromise petition cannot have fully settled the present dispute. So even in the face of the compromise petition mentioned above, the Tribunal is required to give its finding on the different matters raised by the charter of demands submitted by the Labour Union, and also under the issues framed in this case. I must have to point out that regarding the Mazdoor Congress, there is no difficulty (vide my order No. 20, dated 28th February 1955). Shri Jiten Banerji, who represented the Mazdoor Congress, admitted in so many words before the Tribunal that he is interested only in the issue No. 1. If that issue is decided against him he would not bother about other issues which would then be out of place. As I have found above, I have decided the issue No. 1 against the Mazdoor Congress represented by Shri Jiten Banerji. So Shri Jiten Banerji representing the Mazdoor Congress fell out of the picture. As a matter of fact, he also did not turn up during the argument. So his contentions practically lose all the force in the present case. Now the only party which remains to be reckoned in the present case is the Labour Union. So while considering the issues I have to refer to the written statement of the Labour Union. In that written statement I find that it has taken its entire stand on the charter of demands filed along with the statement. So the present issue will have to be considered in the light of the said charter of demands. In this connection I shall also consider the compromise petition filed by the Mazdoor Union for what it is worth. In view of the above, I find the issue No. 2 in the affirmative.

Issue No. 3.—Scales of pay and piece-rate system.

I give below the proposed scales of pay set forth in the charter of demands, and the scales of pay given by the Company as stated in the Company's written statement, so that we may be in a position to compare the two and see if the latter requires any revision.

The proposed scales of pay as per charter of demands.

Scales of pay as per Company's written statement.

Categories of workmen.	Scales of pay.
Coopers	Rs. 30—2—45.
Overseer III, Leading Hand Markman	Rs. 45—3—75.
Clerks	Rs. 60—5—100.
Overseer II	Rs. 50—5—75.
Gunner and Overseer I	Rs. 80—10—115(E.B.)—120—10—155.
Supervisor	Rs. 125—15—175(E.B.)—185—15—275
Cash Chaprasis and Peons	Rs. 30—1—40.
Mustar Gang Labourers (Minimum)	Rs. 1 per day.

Examining the present scales of pay given by the Company I find that it suffers from certain shortcomings. Ordinarily, 10 years should be the period which must intervene between the starting pay and the maximum of it. The increments should be adjusted accordingly. If this intervening period be shorter, the difficulty will be that an employee will within a short time reach the maximum limit of his pay and stagnate there. Such stagnation certainly does not help efficiency. But at the same time it will not do to forget that when the grade is fixed, the maximum of the grade must very nearly approximate to the job value. These are the accepted principles of wage fixation. Now, if I examine the scales given by the Company what do I find? In the scale of coopers I find that it starts with Rs. 30 and ends at Rs. 45, and the increment, presumably annually, is Rs. 2. This shows that the man will reach the maximum of the grade within $7\frac{1}{2}$ years. But in the case of overseers No. III the grade starts with Rs. 45 and ends at Rs. 75 with an increment of Rs. 3 annually. This shows that the period of service would be 10 years when one reaches the maximum. In the case of clerks the scale starts with Rs. 60 and ends at Rs. 100 with an annual increment of Rs. 5. It will have a tenure of eight years' service when one reaches the maximum. In the case of overseers No. II, the scale starts with Rs. 50 and ends at Rs. 75 with an annual increment of Rs. 5. This shows that the man will reach the maximum of his grade at the end of five years. What is worse, his maximum pay is the same as of Overseer No. III. It cannot be said that both do the same kind of work. Overseer No. III starts with Rs. 5 less than the overseer No. II. His increment is also less, viz., Rs. 3 annually. Then why should the maximum salary of both of them be the same? There is no reason for it.

Regarding Overseer No. 1, the starting salary is Rs. 80, and the maximum is Rs. 155. The annual increment is Rs. 10. The length of service to reach the maximum is $7\frac{1}{2}$ years. I need not consider the rest as they suffer from the same defect. I think, the scales of pay should be based on one uniform principle as far as possible. I have no reason why I should grant increase of pay as proposed by the Union. The scales of pay given by the Company compare very favourably with the scales of pay given by the Major Engineering Tribunal. The dearness allowance is also handsome. So, I cannot accept the suggested scales of the Union, but I revise the present scale slightly to the advantage of the present incumbent. I award the scales as below:—

Categories of workmen.	Scales of pay.	Length of service to reach the maximum.
Coopers	Rs. 30—2—50	10 years.
Overseer III, Leading Hand Markman	Rs. 45—3—75	Ditto.
Clerks	Rs. 60—5—110	Ditto.
Overseer II	Rs. 50—5—100	Ditto.
Gunner and Overseer I	Rs. 80—10—120(E.B.)—10—160	8 years.
Supervisor	Rs. 125—15—185(E.B.)—15—275	10 years.
Cash Chaprasis and Peons	Rs. 30—1—45	Ditto.

Regarding the Muster Gang labourers I am required to give a special finding. They are treated as casual labourers and their minimum pay is Re. 1 per day. They want a grade. Some of them have put in 10 to 15 years' service. While dealing with the first issue I have shown the duties done by these Muster gang men, as also admitted by a responsible officer of the Company. Now, why should they be denied the benefit of any fixed scale of pay? They say, and the evidence has also established that these men sit idle for a good many days in a month. It is entirely at the discretion of the Company just to give them enough work or not, because the work done by them is more or less the work done by Sirdars' men. So their grievance is really genuine. I find no reason why these men should not occupy the rank of coopers and enjoy the same scale of pay as enjoyed by the coopers. But there is a little practical difficulty. These men have so long been treated as casual labourers, and I do not know if there is any record of services rendered by these men in the past. Now, if these men are put at the bottom of the coopers' grade after 10 or 15 years of service under the Company, I should say it would be less than justice. I had to depend upon the Company to a certain extent under this head. Wherever the service records are available, and the length of service can be ascertained, these men should be put in the coopers' grade, as I have already fixed, taking three years' service warranting one increment. But where such service records are not available, they should be put by the Company in the Coopers' grade at a point where they can be fixed after having held local enquiry by the Company's officers. Justice so long was denied to them, and the Company must make amends. Denied justice is often retributive in its nature, but there is no help. But in all cases, in fixing a man in the above grade the maximum should not be surpassed.

Regarding the Muster Gang Sirdars, the Company does not say anything. The Union has wanted an increased pay by Rs. 10 or so with increased annual increment. As the Muster Gang Sirdars should as of necessity get a little more pay than the Muster Gang labourers, I fix their grade at Rs. 32—2—52. They should be fixed in the grade according to the principles enunciated above in the case of Muster Gang labourers. It is pointed out by the Company that I have already found the Muster Gang labourers as casual labourers in the Section 33A proceeding. That may be so. In such a proceeding, the Tribunal merely takes note of the existing state of things to decide the dispute. But in a reference the Tribunal considers not only the existing state of things but also things which ought to exist. In that view of the matter my present finding may differ a little from what I have found in the section 33A proceeding between the parties.

Regarding the fitting in of the Muster Gang Sirdars in the above grade my directions noted above in the case of Muster Gang labourers would apply mutatis mutandis subject to the only qualification that the maximum of the scale in no case should be exceeded.

Regarding the other workmen whose cases I have considered above, the question of fitting in does not, strictly speaking, arise because I have not disturbed the grade to any appreciable extent. All that I have done is to step up the maximum of the grade. So these men should be put in where their existing pay justifies. But where the pay point calculated according to service in the scale is a little above, and the existing pay falls between two such points, the pay should be twisted up to occupy the next higher point in the grade. But this will be with no retrospective effect.

Regarding the piece-rate system, the Union wants 20 per cent. increase all round over the present rate. But the Company in its statement at page 6 states "There is no workman employed by this employer who is piece-rated". Therefore, this question does not arise. If I look to the compromise petition filed by the Mazdoor Union and the Company, I see that this point has been given up. In the Labour Union's written statement also, as per the charter of demands, I find that piece-rate system has been sought to be introduced with a guaranteed minimum of Rs. 80 in the case of ordinary workers. But I am not prepared to introduce any new system of piece-rates in the present case, as the evidence is hardly sufficient in this respect. Thus this issue is disposed of.

Issue No. 4.—Dearness allowance.

The Labour Union wants as per the charter of demands, dearness allowance at the rate of 100 per cent. for the first Rs. 100, at the rate of 50 per cent. for each subsequent Rs. 100 of pay subject to the minimum of Rs. 60. If I look to the Company's written statement, at page 4, I get that the Company is paying at present 105 per cent. for the first Rs. 100, 51½ per cent. for the second Rs. 100, and 26 per cent. for the rest with the minimum of Rs. 63 in respect of establishments Nos. 1 and 2. For the subordinate staff, viz., the chaprasis and peons, etc., the minimum is Rs. 52 per month. So far as the gang labourers are concerned, they are paid Rs. 1-5-4 as dearness allowance per day. If the claim of the Union and the existing conditions of dearness allowance are compared side by side, it will appear that the existing dearness allowance is in some respect better than the dearness allowance claimed. So there is no question of any interference by the Tribunal concerning dearness allowance in the present case. But in respect of gang labourers as I have put them in the grade of the coopers, and as they have been placed on par with permanent employees, they should be given the same dearness allowance as coopers. This also applied to the Muster Gang Sirdars. This will mean a little increment in their dearness allowance which I award. But I do not give it with retrospective effect. I may add generally that the present award will not cut down any higher dearness allowance if enjoyed at present.

Issue No. 5.—House allowance.

The Labour Union claims house allowance at the rate of Rs. 10 per month per head. The Company resists the claim on the ground that it is included in the pay. There is no gainsaying that the cost of housing has been taken into reckoning in arriving at the pay. But nevertheless where the houses are not available near the place of work, or where the houses, even if available, have exorbitant rates of rent, the Tribunal grants house allowance just to soften the rigour involved. But in the present case the localities where these men are employed have not been proved to be such where no house is available or the rents obtaining are very high. In the absence of that I am not prepared to grant any house allowance. Besides, Government have intervened in the matter, and there is a housing scheme which is being introduced for industrial employees. Under this scheme Government will give subsidy to the extent of one-third, and also give a State loan to the extent of another one-third, while the Company will be required to contribute only to the remaining one-third of the total cost of outlay for such housing. In a place like Calcutta or its suburbs lands are not easily available for housing purpose. However, the Company cannot be asked to undertake ambitious housing scheme all at once. Besides, in the present case this Bird & Co. is merely the handling agents for supply of labour to Messrs. Balmer Lawrie & Co. and Messrs. MacNeill & Barry, Ltd.

So in their case the housing scheme must wait because the nature of the work is not such as ensures a certain fixed volume of work to be done by a fixed number of men. So the present Company cannot be saddled with the liability to pay house allowance in lieu of providing quarters.* So I give no direction in this respect.

Issue No. 6.—Bonus.

The Labour Union claims bonus at the rate of two months' basic wage before the Pujah. The Company resists the claim. The Mazdoor Union does not press this demand. The Labour Union has merely made the demand and left. It is not said whether the Company had been granting bonus in the past or whether the bonus is claimed for the first time here. It does not call for the balance sheets of the Company just to ascertain the profits. No evidence has been led just to show whether the Company is making profits, and, if so, the extent thereof. Even it has not been said for which year the bonus has been claimed. So it is only a half-hearted claim which the Tribunal cannot entertain. In that view of the matter I reject the claim.

Issue No. 7.—Working hours.

The Labour Union depends on the charter of demands for its claim. Therein I find that the working hours cannot exceed 8 hours a day, and 44 hours in a week. In the compromise petition with the Mazdoor Union I get that the working hours are the same as laid down by the port authorities. In the written statement of the Company at page 6 I find that the normal working hours are 8 hours per day. So there is no dispute on this head. I dispose of the issue without any direction.

Issue No. 8.—Overtime.

Regarding overtime, the Labour Union wants that the rate should be double the usual rate for each hour in excess of 8 hours. Part of an hour should be reckoned as an hour. In the compromise petition with the Mazdoor Union I find that overtime pay is given for work in excess of 8 hours in a day. This is given at the rate of as. 1-3 p. per man per hour. This should be increased by 25 per cent., as. 1-3 p. per hour is certainly very small. At page 7 of the Company's written statement I get the different overtime rates in the case of different classes of employees, during day and night. The night overtime is higher. Day overtime, as I find, is at the rate of $1\frac{1}{2}$ time of the usual pay rate. This, I think, is adequate. But what I award in the present case is that this will continue up to 48 hours' work in a week. But in excess of that the overtime rate would be double the usual rate. This is on the line as provided under the Factories Act. I see no reason why that rate should not be followed in the present case.

Regarding the Muster Gang labourers, the overtime rate is not mentioned. As I have placed them in the Coopers' rank, so far as their pay is concerned, they will get the same overtime as coopers. The Muster Gang Sirdars will get overtime according to the above method on their pay rate. This is prospective. The issue is thus disposed of.

Issue No. 9.—Extra pay for weighing and over-piling.

Extra rate for weighing arises in case of Sirdars' men. I have already ruled that Sirdars' men are Sub-contractors' employees, and they are not attracted by the present case. I do not think I am called upon to give any finding regarding this issue. So this issue is disposed of without any direction.

Issue No. 10.—Rules for confirmation.

The Labour Union claims that all workers should be confirmed within 6 months from the date of their original appointment. Those who have put in 6 months' service should be treated as confirmed. I think 6 months' service is the normal period for confirmation of an employee. But confirmation must depend on their efficiency as well. So what I award is that normally all workers should be confirmed on the expiry of 6 months' continuous service provided they come up to the requirements. If they are found inefficient and not up to the mark, they should be let off or retained for a little more time as an act of grace to give them an opportunity in the matter of confirmation. But I decide firmly against keeping people indefinitely in service without confirmation.

Issue No. 11.—Leave and holidays.

The Labour Union wants all public holidays to be treated as paid holidays. It also claims wage for work on Sundays and holidays at double the usual rate. Such work shall be optional. It wants 15 days' casual leave, one month's privilege leave and one month's medical leave with pay in a year. It further wants that privilege leave should accumulate up to 3 months. The Company at page 8 of its written statement has disposed of this issue as without any bearing. I do not see how this matter has no bearing. I get in the petition of compromise with the Mazdoor Union that 8 paid holidays in a year are provided for and one day Roster-off per week is allowed. But this only shows holidays and not leave. From this if any conclusion is to be drawn, I should suppose that there is no fixed system of leave and holidays. I am not supplied with numbers of holidays and leave which obtain at present in this Company. I would be inclined to award leave on the lines given in the Engineering Tribunal Award, viz., statutory leave on full pay as per Factories Act, 8 Festival holidays with pay, 6 days' casual leave in a year with full pay, sick leave for 15 days in a year on half pay. That award should also govern accumulation of leave here.

Regarding the specific claims in the present case I give Festival holidays as above, privilege leave 21 days, sick leave as above, and casual leave one week in a year. I do this on the supposition that this is an improvement on the existing system of leave about which I have been left guessing. But if the existing system provides better leave and holidays, then my present award will not stand in the way of such enjoyment.

Issue No. 12.—Medical aid.

The Labour Union wants free medical aid for all. Even expenses on the score of treatment by outside doctors should be borne by the Company. This should be admissible to all irrespective of status of the employees. The Company in its written statement at page 7 says that the employer has a doctor and a dispensary in the Southern Section, and the services of the doctor and the dispensary are at the disposal of the workmen. Regarding hospitalisation, full compensation in addition to the compensation available under the Workmen's Compensation Act, and full wages for the period of unemployment consequent upon accident are resisted by the Company. The Union has failed to impress upon me the necessity of adding to the existing medical aid provided by the Company. No evidence was led to show that any of the employees had sought for medical aid, but was either refused or did not get it. Under the State Insurance Scheme which is going to be introduced, the Company has got to make contribution, and the State would provide for medical aid. That being so, it is no longer necessary to provide for further medical aid. To make the Company liable to meet the expenses of treatment obtained from outside doctors would put the Company in a very uncomfortable position. It cannot, for obvious reasons, control such expenditure or verify the genuineness thereof. So the claim in that respect is rather extravagant. I, therefore, dispose of the issue without any direction.

Issue No. 13.—Provident Fund and Gratuity.

The Labour Union wants membership of the Provident Fund to be made open to all employees drawing Rs. 30 or above per month. It further claims contribution to the Provident Fund on each side at the rate of $8\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. of the basic salary. The Union also demands for gratuity at the rate of one month's pay for every year of service. The Company has not met this claim. I have not been supplied with any evidence about the existing Provident Fund, if at all, or the existing gratuity. The Union also does not appear to be serious on this point. It places no evidence which can be depended on in this respect. I do not understand whether these are sought to be introduced for the first time, or whether the claim is merely an improvement on the existing system. To establish this claim, it is necessary just to have the balance sheets of the Company, or, in the absence of that, direct evidence about the financial condition of the Company and its soundness. But there is no such evidence placed before me. So in the present state of things I cannot adjudicate upon this matter. I leave the issue without any direction as both sides have treated it only summarily.

Issue No. 14.—Contract system and bhaga.

The Labour Union wants to abolish this system of contract labour. The Company merely denied the claim. I have considered the evidence on the point. I am satisfied that howsoever much we may condemn this contract system academically from the point of view of labour, it cannot be abrogated all at once. If it is an evil, it is a necessary evil. Just as the Managing Agency in the case of companies cannot be abolished altogether all at once, so the Tribunals even emphatically inveighing against the system of sub-contract have left it there. So I also cannot accept the Union's claim that the contractors' labour system should be stopped at once. I call upon the Company to reduce the employment of contractors' labour and to absorb them gradually in its permanent strength so that in course of time the contract labour system may be done away with.

In the present case I have found that contractors' men have been serving here for a good number of years. They are not getting amenities they should otherwise have got in consideration of their length of service, had they been in the Company's employ. But the Tribunals are helpless here, howsoever much convinced they are of their grievances, to ameliorate the conditions of service of these employees because any direction given on the Company in this respect may not be legally binding on the contractors. If it was a case where the contractors were directly impleaded, then relief could have been given against the contractors legally. But in a case like the present one, the Tribunals are not competent to grant relief to these Sirdars' men unless the law is so amended, or the form of the case is different. So I am unable to grant any relief under the present issue.

Regarding the bhaga system also, my finding is the same. I am unable to grant any relief because it is a matter of the subcontractors.

Issue No. 15.—Reinstatement of retrenched workmen and/or compensation.

These retrenched men are admittedly Sirdars' men. So the present Tribunal, for obvious reasons, cannot give any direction for their reinstatement. That will be out of place. A Tribunal cannot pass an instructuous order. Any order passed the company may not respect. So I refrain from giving any direction under this issue.

Issue No. 16.—Withdrawal of police case.

A matter relating to the question of withdrawal of certain police case cannot be an industrial dispute. Again, this relates to Sirdars' men who have been put outside the scope of the present case. So, in any view of the matter, the Tribunal is unable to give any direction regarding this issue.

Issue No. 17.—Pay for the strike period from 18th November 1952 to 28th November 1952.

This relates to Sirdars' men. For reasons given above, the Tribunal cannot give any direction in this matter. Besides, even if certain workers of the Company had joined the strike, I am not supplied with evidence about the action taken against them by the Company. If any specific case was made out, that could have been gone into, and the Tribunal could have then given redress if it found the Company's action unjustified. But the issue being a general one, and pertaining to Sirdars' men involved in the strike in question, the Tribunal is unable to grant any relief here. So the issue is disposed of without any direction.

Before I part with the records of this case I think, I should say a word about the compromise petition filed between the Company on the one hand and the Mazdoor Union on the other. I have already referred to it in a way. This compromise petition cannot dispose of the present dispute because the Union in the compromise petition is not the sole Union representing the workmen under this Company. So at most it may be binding on the employees who are members of the Mazdoor Union. But it has no binding effect on the employees who are not members of the said Union, there being two other Unions, viz., the Labour Union and the Mazdoor Congress. So the Tribunal had to adjudicate upon the entire dispute putting out of reckoning the said compromise petition. So in the end the result is that where the advantages obtained by the above compromise petition are greater than what I have awarded, all the workmen will derive benefit thereof. But again where the benefits under the award are greater, all employees will stand to take benefit thereof, and not be bound down to the terms given in the said compromise petition. As it could not be ascertained with precision which of the employees are members of which Union, the position had to be left in this nebulous state. But this will not give rise to any practical difficulty because the higher benefits given under the award and also in the said compromise petition will be available to all employees under the Company. For reference I reproduce the compromise petition in question as an Appendix to my this award.

APPENDIX. .

BEFORE SHRI M. C. BANERJEE, District Judge, (Retd.), First Industrial Tribunal, Calcutta.

In the matter of an Industrial Dispute under Government order No. 3274Dis./D/11L-234/52, dated the 26th November 1952

Between

Messrs. Bird & Co., Limited, Calcutta

And

Their alleged workmen employed at Kantapukur Shed, Hide Road, Tea Transit Shed, Tea Ware House and 3 King George Dock as represented by West Bengal Bird & Co., Mazdoor Union, 94, Garden Reach Road, Kidderpore, Calcutta-23.

MOST RESPECTFULLY SHEWETH:—

That in the above matter the parties have come to an amicable settlement and agreed as follows:—

Recognition of West Bengal Bird & Co. Mazdoor Union..

Issue 1 (a) (b) (c).

The Company has recognised the Mazdoor Union. In view of the award in the application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act filed before your Honour in connection with this case published in the Calcutta Gazette, dated 2nd April 1953, it is admitted that there is no relationship of Master and Servant between the Company and the workmen employed under the Sirdars and as such there is no dispute between the Company and these workmen.

Issue 2.

In view of the agreement as under, there now is no dispute between the Company and the workmen directly employed by it.

Issues 3 and 4.—Scales of pay and piece-rate system and dearness allowance.

Any increase in the rate paid to labour can be made only after there is a corresponding increase in the rate that is paid by the Principals to the Company, which they are unwilling to consider at this time. It is anticipated that the proposals under other heads will result in an overall increase in labour earnings. The matter may be reviewed in the light of the experience gained during the coming season.

Issue 5.—House allowance.

The rates that are in force have been so calculated as to include provision for, among other things, house rent. No separate provision for housing is, therefore, necessary.

Issue 6.—Bonus.

The Mazdoor Union does not press for this demand.
